The benefit dance held in the Auditorium last Saturday night will bring a net profit of 20 or 25 dollars into the Athletic Association treasury. This sum to be applied on the hockey club deficit. A $106 lumber bill that had been charged against the club has been transferred to the Arena, and that has brought the deficit down to $742. It will have to take some doing, but we will have to erase that deficit if we are to have hockey here next year.

Jesse DuChamp

Jesse DuChamp has signed to play with the Plummer team this year. At shortstop, Jesse is a fine little player, with a good arm, and fair punch at the plate, and an ideal temperament, so he should be of considerable help to the Plummer boys. He may be out of position, though, in playing at shortstop.

Andy Anderson

I've heard that the reason 'La Rue' Andy Anderson wears his haircut combed the way he does, and why he turns his trousers up over the cuffs, is because he wants to look like Mickey Rooney in the 'Andy Hardy' pictures.

Bronko Nagurski

Bronko Nagurski, who will wrestle Andy Moen here next Thursday night, is a graduate of Bemidji high school. His home is, and was, International Falls, but he took his last year of high school at Bemidji, finishing there in 1923 or 1924.

Louie Benson

Louie Benson has been doing quite a bit of pitching for the state college champion Gusties this spring. He isn't the first-string pitcher, for that spot is held by the veteran Lefty Light, but Louie is the fellow they will call on if Light gets into trouble. And Plummer is anxious to have Benson on their Northern Minny team this year. Well, he would just about pitch them to a pennant.

STASSEN CONFERS ON KEYNOTE TALK IN U. S. CAPITAL

Expected to Urge Changes in Program on Relief and Agriculture

A Republican keynote address approving many New Deal objectives, but urging substantial changes in the relief, farm and other programs was predicted by Republican leaders in Washington after a series of conferences Monday with Governor Stassen, who will deliver the speech.

As a preliminary to the drafting of his oration, the youthful state head conferred successively with house and senate Republican leaders, including several presidential candidates, and reported that he found them largely in agreement on essential issues — although there was some conflicting advice.

It was said authoritatively that the speech would recommend a two-price farm program (one price for farm products consumed domestically and another for those sold abroad) and would call for local administration of relief with federal aid, a reduction in governmental expenditures, and modifications of the Wagner act and the wage-hour law. It was also said there would be an emphatic pronouncement against involvement in war.

3600 State Employes Take Qualifying Exams Under Civil Service Law

In 29 Minnesota cities, including Thief River Falls 7,600 state employes Saturday took qualifying examinations set up by the state civil service board, Kenneth C. Pennebaker, civil service director, announced.

If the employes pass the examinations, they will be "blanketed in" their jobs. If they fail, they will be replaced.

The qualifying tests, Pennebaker explained, embrace questions directly relating to the duties of the respective employes.

Notices were sent to 3,768 employes to participate in the tests, which involve 1100 different types of examinations. More than 100, however did not take the tests because of claims they already have been on the state payroll for five years, or for other reasons.

For the complete news read the Thief River Falls Times.

J. Hoffmann. The projects, in 11 counties, include 46 miles of grading, 18 miles of stabilized base and surfacing, 2 bridges, and 28 concrete box culvert bridges. Included in a project in Kittson county on T. H. 11—Grading from Donaldson to 9 miles E., Oscar Schenkey and Anderson Bros., of Middle River, $60,752.

American Red Cross Head Offers to Help Invaded Scandinavian Countries

Prompted by the movement of European hostilities into the Scandinavian peninsula, Chairman Norman H. Davis has instructed Red Cross chapters throughout the country to accept voluntary contributions for the purchase of war relief supplies, according to an announcement made here.

The statement was issued as orders were cabled to two American Red Cross representatives stationed in Finland to stand by for possible service in Norway.

"We are confident," Mr. Davis stated "that the American people will want to help the unfortunate Norwegian people in this sad hour in their history. An unexpected war has been thrust upon them and their suffering is all the greater because of their unpreparedness. We have cabled the Norwegian Red Cross asking what help it might require and we expect an answer shortly."

Mr. Davis said the Red Cross was studying how aid could be furnished to Norway in view of the blockade and other war conditions.

"It is highly possible," he said, "that the Red Cross will have to charter one or more ships to carry relief supplies to Norway and Finland. Flying under the Red Cross flag they would certainly be allowed to pass unchallenged through the war zones."

8 New Highway Jobs to Bring '40 Construction Total up to $2,250,000

The state Department of Highways this week advertised for bids on eight more construction jobs, estimated to cost upwards of $370,000.00, which will bring that portion of Minnesota's 1940 highway improvement program either already under contract or opened to contract bidding up to more than $2,250,000.

Awards of contracts on $559,592 worth of construction projects announced earlier this week brought to a total of approximately $1,295,[illegible] the 1940 projects already under construction or under contract for immediate commencement. Bids will be received May [illegible] on projects estimated to cost another $600,000 and bids will be opened on May 17 on the $370,000 worth of additional construction projects advertised this week.

These latest eight projects, located in eight counties and comprising 11.4 miles of grading, 5.6 miles of stabilized aggregate base and bituminous surface treatment, and two bridges. None are in Northwestern Minnesota.

Total of 1796 Telephones Are Now Served by Local Exchange

Coincident with the release of world telephone statistics by the American Telephone & Telegraph company, A. J. Rau, manager of the Thief River Falls exchange of the Bell system, announced that a total of 1796 telephones are served by the local exchange, an increase of more than 100 in the past year. He added that local calls average 9,200 per day, in addition to 170 long distance calls.

The report covering the world reads in part:

There are sixteen times as many people outside the United States as within it, yet this country has nearly one-half of the world's total of 41,000,317 telephones. Outside the United States, on the average, only every 100th person has a telephone, while within the United States, the average per capita use of the telephone amounts to 223 calls per year; elsewhere in the world the average yearly per capita use is only about 16 calls. At the present time, more than 1,000 telephone calls are completed in this country per second, or more than 91,000,000 calls per day.

At the beginning of 1939, the latest date for which it has been possible to gather comprehensive authentic information, the number of telephones in the world (41,-000,374) were connected to 174,-548,000 miles of wire, corresponding to 1.91 telephones and 8.11 miles of telephone wire for every 100 of the world's population of slightly more than two billion people. The United States alone accounted for approximately one-half of these facilities, viz. 19,-953,263 telephones and 92,850,000 miles of telephone wire. Europe, with 4 times as many people as this country, had only 15,205,459 telephones and 59,077,000 miles of telephone wire, corresponding roughly to one-third of the world totals.

During 1938, the world's telephones and wire mileage increased by 1,843,278 instruments and near[ly] 6,500,000 miles, respectively. Over one-half of the world's telephones are automatically operated, including more than 9,000,000 'dial' telephones in this country.

Contest on Prevention of Accidents in Homes Launched in Minneapolis

At the award presentation dinner of the Minnesota Safety Council held April 15th at the Nicollet Hotel in Minneapolis, announcement of a Home Accident Prevention Contest was made by Ward F. Senn, Chairman of the Home Safety Section of the council.

"Year after year, fatal home accidents have outnumbered traffic deaths," said Mr. Senn. "In 1939, 673 persons were accidentally killed in Minnesota homes—97 more than met death in traffic accidents."

According to plans announced, the Minnesota Safety Council will conduct this state-wide intercommunity contest in a manner similar to the traffic safety contests sponsored by the Council for the past several years. The contest will be a matching of home accident records and community home accident prevention efforts. Towns and cities will compete in four groups according to the population; counties within congressional districts. Appropriate recognition will be given winning communities at the annual award dinner in 1941.

Trout Angling Opened in Minnesota Wednesday

It was the lowly angle worm versus the fancy feathered fly and the whippy flyrod Wednesday when the stream trout season opened in Minnesota.

Game Wardens, the men in the field who ought to know, are betting on the earthworm, according to information from the state division of game and fish. Reason: the late spring.

Because of the abnormally tardy thaw, the wardens reported, most streams are turbid from mud and washings along the banks. The late spring has likewise slowed the insect hatch.

Worms versus the fly for the opening, however, is an age old argument. As Dr. Thaddeus Surber of the state game and fish division commented, "the trout decides ... the end anyway."

HENRY A. WALLACE ADDRESSES HUGE ST. PAUL MEETING

Secretary of Agriculture Talks on Federal Land Bank System

Secretary Henry A. Wallace of the department of agriculture paid tribute Saturday to farmers from eighteen states who crowded St. Paul's auditorium arena to make the largest mass meeting of agricultural representatives he ever had witnessed.

"Without a doubt", the secretary told a press conference, "the St. Paul meeting was the largest assemblage of farmers to hear serious discussion of agricultural problems in the history of the country."

Wallace delivered a talk calling on farmers all over the nation to fight for the administration's farm program and plans for liberalizing farm credit and reorganizing the federal land bank system.

Wallace and his associates were invited to St. Paul by M. W. Thatcher, chairman of the legislative committee of the Farmers Union and president of the National Federation of Grain Co-operatives which sponsored, jointly, the mass meeting.

The land bank system, Secretary Wallace contended, "can be put on a self-financing basis which will enable the American farmer to get permanently the benefit of a 3½ per cent interest rate." He singled out the American Bankers association and some of the state bankers associations as being prominent in the fight against lower interest rates for farmer borrowers.

DID THE SPRING RAINS WRECK YOUR ROADS?

THIS spring, as every spring, newspapers in many states report the break-up of roads.

As the rainy season gets in its ruinous work many roads are made almost impassable with mud, wash-outs, washboards, ruts, bumps, and chuck-holes. Highway departments are forced to post load restrictions, warnings and detours until the repair crews can do their work.

But there is no spring break-up on concrete roads. Continuity of service is one of their major advantages. They are reliable, trustworthy every month of the year. Maintenance costs are reduced to a minimum.

Yet first cost of concrete is less than that of any other pavement of equal load-carrying capacity. Swift but safe—visible at night—smooth but non-skid—saving in gas, tires and car repairs, concrete is indeed the standard by which all roads are judged.

FOR ALL-WEATHER ROADS INSIST ON CONCRETE!

Concrete highways bring business to your community. Tourists follow the concrete. Minnesota needs more concrete highways to hold and develop its tourist business.

Concrete IS THE REAL LOW COST ROAD

OFFER ASSISTANCE IN ADJUSTMENT OF FARMERS' DEBTS

Farm Security Administration Offers to Aid in Settlement

Any Minnesota farmer who has difficult debt problems can secure aid from the Farm Security Administration to assist in adjusting these debts, according to J. A. Halvorsen, farm debt adjustment supervisor, who conferred with Mr. Charley Ommodt, local FSA supervisor this week. Mr. Halvorsen has direct supervision over the farm debt adjustment activities in Pennington and Marshall counties.

He explained that, "Because of shifting property values and market prices that accompanied the depression, the farms of many worthy families were lost to creditors, who, in many cases, were at a loss to know what to do with the land when they took it over. On one side was the farmer with the burden of a fixed debt and interest charge made when expansion was the rule. On the other side was the creditor, who in face of lowered values and stagnated credit had to liquidate or face bankruptcy."

When asked, "What can a farmer do who is worried about his debts?" Halvorsen said, "Hundreds of farmers are solving debt problems by presenting them to us for consideration. In a number of counties of this area, local committees are at the service of farmers without cost or obligations. The county committees," he continued, "are composed of farmers, doctors, lawyers, and businessmen."

Mr. Halvorsen said that all information concerning cases is confidential. "Debt adjustment," he explained, "is a service carried on in strict confidence to avoid embarrassment to either creditor or debtor."

The FSA's debt adjustment service is available not only to FSA borrowers but to all farmers. Farmers desiring aid may contact Mr. Charley Ommodt, county FSA supervisor, at his office in Thief River Falls or write to Mr. J. A. Halvorsen, district farm debt adjustment supervisor at Box 844, Detroit Lakes, Minnesota.

MARSHALL COUNTY NEEDS MORE TESTS FOR BANGS DISEASE

First County-wide Test Reveals Herd Reaction of 10.61 Per Cent

Another complete test for Bang's disease in cattle must be conducted in Marshall county in order to be a fully accredited county with results of the first county-wide test completed last week showing a herd reaction of 10.61 per cent, according to R. A. Heierson, county agent.

In order for a county to be considered as a modified area, the herd infection cannot amount to more than five per cent and the percent of reactors in relation to all cattle tested cannot exceed more than one percent. The percent of reactors in Marshall county was 1.456. Further testing will be maintained in the county until such time as the requirements are met.

There were 42,218 cattle tested in Marshall county, including 2,677 herds. Of the 42,218 cattle tested, 616 reacted to the test. These reactors were found in 284 lots.

Below is a summary by laboratories of the county test:

The Mass Meeting

The town board, headed by Will McCrum, chairman, called together those good folks from Smiley, Kratka and there abouts Friday evening at the Smiley Hall to be present to discuss ways and means of securing or rebuilding the Smiley bridge that was swept away by "Old Man River".

An unusually swell turn out came at the beck and call of the town board that evening, and the general observation showed every man present was all for having the Smiley bridge rebuilt, they as a whole, not only wanted it, but they demanded it.

All the county commissioners were present except W. Mulry of Thief River Falls. Talks were made by each of them to give their opinions, as well as talks by a great many of the local farmers, stressing their opinions. Every day was a circus—for a while

The roar of the crowd... the thundering hoofs foretold the fall of mighty Rome—all because an empire went pleasure-mad and forgot what made it great. Rome went soft.

All play and no work has always spelled collapse—for a person as well as a nation. Isn't a balanced life with a fair share of work and a fair share of leisure more sensible and satisfying? Then tasks become attractive—and there's still ample time for your hobbies, family and friends. They help you readjust your perspective... revitalize your good humor... rest your mind and body. Good work puts you in a mood for recreation, and healthful re-creation puts you back in the mood for work. Your moderation puts you in balance and in harmony with progress.

WILL this lad ever be a likely candidate for a berth with a major league club? Even an experienced baseball scout, who spends his life scanning the sand lots and combing the bush leagues, would need a crystal ball to answer that one.

But you don't need to spend your life learning how to judge the value of lubricants... you don't have to do any crystal gazing... to choose a winning oil for your motor. It's easy to tell. This is why:

SPEAKERS IN CITY URGE CONTINUANCE OF 4-CENT GAS TAX

Good Roads Meeting Is Held Thursday Evening in Palm Garden

An apparent unanimity of sentiment in favor of reenactment of the four-cent state gasoline tax was revealed at a meeting in the Palm Garden Cafe last Thursday evening sponsored jointly by the Northwest Good Roads association and the Civic and Commerce association. F. A. Rinkel presided.

Following a welcome extended by Mayor W. W. Prichard, the principal address was delivered by F. W. Moeller, secretary of the good roads group. Pointing out that the purpose of the association is to secure adequate funds for development of all roads, he urged continuance of the four-cent gas tax as a fair levy to provide for road building and maintenance, at the same time opposing bond issues and higher motor vehicle taxes.

Rep. A. J. Powers of Mahnomen, who served as chairman of the highway committee in the lower house of the legislature at its last session, spoke of the need of the revenue from the four-cent tax, but said it was opposed by Twin City legislators as well as by the petroleum industry.

W. L. Peterson of Lancaster urged the early improvement of the north end of Highway 59 near the Canadian border, and said he was forced to detour to reach this city from Lancaster. B. S. Daniels of Crookston also spoke briefly, and Mr. Moeller presented motion pictures as the closing feature of the program.

STRUNK TALKS CONSERVATION TO SPORTSMEN

State Commissioner Points out Handicaps to Successful Program

WASHINGTON D. C., MAN IS GUEST AT MEETING

Sportsmen's Club Sponsors Program Monday in Auditorium

Addressing a meeting in the Auditorium Monday evening attended by sportsmen from thruout this section of the state, Dr. William A. Strunk, Minnesota commissioner of conservation, discussed some of the unfavorable factors in conservation work as conducted in the past, and discussed the department's plans for the future. Walter Jung, president of the Pennington County Sportsmens club, was in charge of the meeting, which opened with a concert by the municipal band.

Among the adverse factors, said Dr. Strunk, are conditions over the department has no control, such as laws made by the legislature governing open and closed seasons on wild game, and the injection of politics into departmental affairs. Conservation, he stated, is a science and should be carried out on that basis.

Another point brought out is that there are too any self-appointed experts on the subject of conservation. He urged citizens to consider problems confronting the department from a statewide viewpoint.

Dr. Strunk called attention to the common erroneous idea that conservation relates only to hunting and fishing. Instead, he said, it involves the guarding of all natural resources. He cited the fact that the game and fish division is only one of six divisions in the department, others relating to lands and minerals, state parks, water resources, state forests and the tourist bureau. His objective, he said, is to correlate all these activities with the aid of citizens of the state.

Dr. W. E. Bell of Washington, head of the division of wild life research of the bureau of biological survey, also spoke briefly, discussing the progress of wild life restoration. He declared the public has reason to feel optimistic over the future, and added that more than 13,000,000 acres of land in various parts of the nation are now devoted to wild life refuges. The work of his division covers the entire North American continent, he said.

POWER PLANT BONDS SOLD AT LOW INTEREST

Minneapolis Bank Purchases Issue at 2 Pct., Pays Premium of $657

BONDS TO BE RETIRED IN 13-YEAR PERIOD

Council Calls for Bids on New Diesel Unit to be Opened June 3

The $150,000 issue of municipal bonds to finance the projected addition to the city power plant was sold Monday evening on the basis of the lowest interest rate ever offered in the history of the community.

Successful bidder was the First National Bank & Trust company of Minneapolis, which in its sealed bid offered to take the issue on the basis of a two per cent interest rate and to pay a premium of $657.50. Taking the premium into consideration, the bonds will earn interest at the rate of 1.92 per cent, approximately one per cent lower than the net bids on the recent issue of school district and sewage disposal plant bonds.

The bonds, which are non-callable, will be retired at the rate of $12,000 a year from 1943 to 1952, with the final $10,000 maturing in 1953. Eleven firms entered a total of six bids on the issue.

O. J. Pfeiffer, representing Ralph D. Thomas & Associates of Minneapolis, recently appointed engineers for the power plant addition, Tuesday evening submitted to the city council specifications of the new Diesel unit to be purchased, and in the lengthy discussion that followed agreement was reached on various points at issue.

The council decided to call for bids to be opened Monday evening, June 3, on a unit with horsepower ranging from 1600 to 2050, equal approximately to the two large units in the present plant. The specifications call for an engine of two-cycle type with an engine speed ranging from 240 to 300 revolutions per minute. Mr. Pfeiffer indicated that the specifications as drafted would enable a half-dozen Diesel engine builders to bid on the new unit.

The addition to the power plant building, a part of the current expansion project, will be covered by a separate contract, on which bids will be called for later in the season after the dimensions of the unit to be installed are definitely known.

GRASSHOPPER WAR TO BE TOPIC HERE TUESDAY EVENING

State Entomologist, Other Officials Will Speak at Meeting

This is the time of year when the farmers should all be thinking about the possibilities of a grasshopper outbreak for 1940. The egg survey taken in the fall of 1939 showed that the situation was severe says Howard Grow, County Agent.

Many of the townships already have the organization necessary for control work. Every township that will need bait, furnished by the federal government, must have a man to serve as chairman and four or more men to work with him as supervisors organized for insect pest control.

Only a diamond will do

There come occasions in the course of life when gratification and happiness are so profound that adequate expression becomes difficult. These are times when the deathless fire of a diamond can convey the emotions that defy speech.

The gems you choose for these spokesmen should be worthy of their mission. You can make sure of this by purchasing them only from a jeweler of unquestioned integrity.

We shall gladly help you in the selection of a stone for any occasion . . . shall gladly explain the four important qualities which determine the worth of any diamond.

DISTRICT CLINIC FOR CRIPPLES IN CITY ON SATURDAY

Division of Social Welfare Sponsors Annual Event at High School

Crippled children from five counties will assemble Saturday in Thief River Falls to attend the field Clinic which will be conducted here by the bureau for crippled children of the state division of social welfare. Scheduled to be held at Lincoln high school from 8:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. the clinic will serve crippled children from Kittson, Marshall, Pennington, Red Lake and Roseau counties. Thief River Falls is one of sixteen centers selected for orthopedic clinics during 1940. Cooperating in local arrangements is the Thief River Falls Woman's club.

Crippled children who have never received corrective care for their conditions and whose parents cannot provide private medical treatment are urged to come to the clinic for an examination. They are requested to bring with them a note of referral from their family physicians.

The bureau for crippled children provides examination, hospitalization, physiotherapy and follow-up services of its field nursing staff. In addition, the bureau assists in arranging for transportation to treatment centers and for other necessities for patients who could not otherwise obtain necessary care for their crippling conditions.

Miss Elizabeth Goodrich, field nurse from the bureau, who has been in this area for the past three weeks, reported that the clinic is not only for the examination of new patients, but serves as an opportunity for a check-up of patients already under care. Notification will be sent to patients of Gillette State Hospital for Crippled Children and those under care of the bureau if they are supposed to report to the clinic.

Official Paper of Pennington County and City of Thief River Falls

CHEAP MONEY

When the city of Thief River Falls can borrow money at less than two per cent interest it is reasonable to assume that the city's credit is good, and that is cause for rejoicing. It is not so many years ago when conservative bond buyers looked with some suspicion upon the public obligations of this corner of the state. This corner of the state was then looked upon as a land of mortgage foreclosures and bankruptcy. The willingness of investors to take our paper now at such a low rate of interest is a vote of confidence not only in the city but in the territory as a whole.

The low rate of interest indicates too, of course, the condition of unemployment that exists in the money market, and that is not so good. Money, like individuals, seeks employment at the best possible return. The fact that money is now willing to work for so small a return indicates that the opportunities for employment are limited.

Most of the borrowing that is being done at the present time is being done by government units. There is little private borrowing and much of that little is handled through government agencies. Industry is not expanding and so needs no new capital. The result is that money, out of a job, is willing to work cheap.

Perhaps there is a definite relation between the unemployment of money and the unemployment of men. Many authorities think so. If that is true then we may find the solution for the problem of putting men to work when we discover why private industry is not seeking capital for new development programs. And we suspect the big reason why industry is not interested in new development is the government's attitude toward business. If the government would give a little encouragement to private enterprise, or at least cease to discourage it, there probably would be more demand for the money that now lies idle.

The present low interest rates are caused by the old law of supply and demand, a big supply and little demand. We probably would have more prosperity if the demand and the supply were more nearly equal even if that meant a higher rate of interest.

Senator Shipstead has announced his intention of seeking reelection this year, ending the rumors that he would retire from active politics by accepting an appointment to an administrative office. We are sorry to hear that he has made this decision. There are other candidates we would like to support but with him in the race we probably will have to string along with him once again. It is unfortunate that Minnesota's senior senator is not a member of a major party. His many years of service entitle him to a position of influence which can be obtained only through seniority in one of the major parties. In an era of dizzy ideas he has served the state well however and deserves to be reelected.

Dr. William A. Strunk, Minnesota's new commissioner of conservation, who spoke at the Auditorium Monday evening, said in no uncertain terms that his department is out of politics. Dr. Strunk is not the first public official who has made such a statement, and many others have no doubt made it in all sincerity, but to keep politics out of a state department is not an easy task and most of those who have tried have failed. From what we have seen of Dr. Strunk, however, and from what others have told us of him, we are satisfied that he either will run the department as he thinks it should be run or he will let someone else have the job. He himself is not a politician. The only thing the office can possibly offer him is an opportunity to perform a useful service. If he is given half a chance we believe he will serve the state well.

It really isn't strange that there are only 125 applicants for the rural mail carrier job that is to be filled here. Until such a time as the government offers a fair wage for a fair day's work it will always have this difficulty in getting help.

The famous old West Hotel in Minneapolis is to be wrecked because it cannot be made to pay. Modern hotels have to be built on more restricted lines, and without the spacious and generous hospitality which the West afforded. There has been much history made around the West, perhaps the most notable event being in 1892 when the Republican national convention was held in Minneapolis, and the West was the headquarters hotel. It seems like pure waste that so substantial and magnificent a building as the West must be torn down, but such is the effect of our over-worked system of real estate taxation. In the older countries where such old buildings are prized the taxes would be based on the rental value, which is quite a different matter.—Morris Tribune.

Before criticizing your wife's faults, remember that it may have been those very defects which prevented her from catching a better husband. —Detroit Lakes Tribune.

So popular have radios become that there are now 125 types of portable sets alone on the market, ranging in price from $8 to $80 and varying in weight from four to 35 pounds. However, they still give you the same old jokes.—Askov American.

Big-Time Wrestlers at Auditorium Tonight

Judging by the reports of the advance ticket sales, and the general interest that the matches have created, promoter Bill LaFave stated that he expected a capacity crowd at the Auditorium to witness tonight's wrestling card. The all-star program will feature former world's heavyweight champion Bronko Nagurski in a match against Andy Moen; in the semi-windup will be Abe Kashey and Bob Foster; while Stan Myslajek and Ray Graham will open the program by wrestling the preliminary.

Mr. LaFave added that while many of the fans are anxious to see Nagurski, just as many of the fans are interested in the Abe Kashey vs. Bob Foster match. Kashey, of course, is not reputed to be the wrestler that the Bronko is, nor does he have Nagurski's tremendous strength, but he is more of a show-man, and that tough stuff of his is very entertaining.

Bronko Nagurski is favored to throw Andy Moen in his match; but Moen is capable of making the Bronk show the stuff that brought him to the world's championship. Nagurski, as befits a former all-American football player, has brought a lot of the tricks that he learned on the gridiron into the wrestling ring. Bronko uses a vicious body block and a flying tackle, with various body slams, to subdue his opponents.

According to promoter LaFave the Abe Kashey and Bob Foster match can be rated a toss-up, and only for the reason that one cannot tell what will occur when Kashey is one of the participants in a wrestling match. Kashey is well-established among the wrestling greats of the country, and is a capable opponent for any man, bar none; but he has a tendency to get into altercations with the referee over foul tactics and has been disqualified on numerous occasions. He has an unquenchable penchant for the rough stuff, however, and cannot refrain from trying to sneak over some unorthodox bit of trickery whenever he thinks that he can get away with it. But there is always excitement when Kashey wrestles.

In Stan Myslajek the fans will be seeing a youngster who is noted for his speed and cleverness. He is especially proficient in the use of the body scissors, in which hold he has been trained by Tony Stecher, and with it he has won scores of bouts in this vicinity.

He Looks Nice Here But—

ABE KASHEY
Bad man of the mat game won't look so handsome when he swings into action in his bout with Bob Foster of Des Moines in the Auditorium this evening.

WEED MEETING TO BE CONDUCTED IN CITY ON TUESDAY

Local Weed Inspectors Will Consult with State Authorities

The state department of agriculture, dairy and food division of weed and seed control, has called the local weed inspectors to Pennington county's annual weed meeting which will be held at 10:00 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. on Tuesday, May 14 in the court house at Thief River Falls.

Definite progress in weed control and eradication programs was made in 1939 in nearly all Minnesota counties. This work will be considered at the county meeting, and, together with new plans, may be used as a foundation on which 1940 plans can be made. Every farmer, every official and every citizens concerned and interested in the week problem may take an active part in the meeting.

New phases of control work and plans for cooperative effort will be discussed. Practical field work, quarantines, education and experience gained at the Lamberton Weed Farm the past years will serve as a base on which plans can be made for farm and neighborhood programs.

County commissioners, auditor, engineer, county agent and township officers are invited and urged to attend. Rural school teachers, high school agricultural teacher and classes are also invited. The law directs the town chairmen and mayors or their substitutes to attend. County commissioners will be interested in the possibilities of the county employing its own county supervisory weed inspector to cooperate with local and state inspectors. The counties having such inspectors in 1939 report increased activity in killing weeds. Some counties have killed free of charge to the farmers areas not to exceed 2 acres. This will be explained at the meeting.

Those in charge of the meeting for the state division of weed and seed control will be C. H. Schrader and George Hammerbeck.

The Judge Quits Golf

Judge Lincoln Arnold called the press into his office the other day and, after the amenities of the occasion had been completed, he issued a statement to the effect that he, the Judge, did not choose to play golf this year, and that he was going to concentrate on tennis. The Judge enlarged on this cryptic statement by saying that he realized that he had become too expert for his golfing companions, and as a result the game had lost its relish. In his instance, he added, it was a case of going into newer fields and greener pastures. That's the Judge's story. But in conversations with these golfing companions of the Judge's one hears a vastly different story, and its kernel is that the Judge knew that this was to be the year of the Great Revenge. He knew that certain of these companions had purchased new clubs, that others had undergone surgery, and that still others had subjected themselves to a milk and gland-food diet, and all for the sole purpose of securing a golfer's revenge on the Judge. According to this story, the Judge was cognizant of these facts, and so he decided to issue the statement that he did not choose to play golf this year.

Track

Coach John Lindenmeyer is pushing a squad of 16 or 20 Prowler trackmen through intensive drill in preparation for the district track meet, which will be held in Grand Forks, at the 'U' next Saturday. Sour weather and lack of adequate training facilities has handicapped the squad and it is doubtful if Lindenmeyer will be able to whip the team into condition for Saturday's meet. Don Olson, a well-built and hard-running sophomore, appears to be the most promising point-getter on the squad. He's a half-miler.

Baseball

Thief River Falls has become a member of the six team Northern Minnesota baseball league. It cost the boys ten bucks to join, the entry fee, but they were glad to pay that amount for the privilege of playing organized ball. So it's up to the rest of us to support the team, which will be all home talent, by attending the games. Two bits will be the admission for the league games. The season to open on May 19th.

With the West Sider's Lenny Helquist pitching and hitting like the Yankee's Red Ruffing, the West Side, by a 10 to 4 score, handed a trouncing to the East Side in a baseball game played at the fair grounds last Sunday. The first defeat tagged on the East Side, several weeks ago, was taken as an accident, but when it happened again Sunday, and by such a score, Wally DuChamp, manager of the East Side, immediately made arrangements to have his eyes tested. And he's getting glasses. They should be a great help to Wally, for with glasses he'll be able to see by how much he misses those curve balls he's been waving at.

Miscellany

Don Lorentson is running the high and low hurdle events for the St. Olaf track team. In a meet [illegible] last Saturday, Don won firsts in both events.—The first name of Bemidji's Buck Robbins is Horace.—Plummer has just about given up hopes of having Louie Benson do their pitching this year. Instead they are going to have Mortrude of Crookston, a pitcher with much Northern League experience, on the mound. Mortrude, who has played with Superior and Crookston, could have pitched for the Pirates again this year, but the Northern League salary scale ranges only to 90 dollars a month, and he has a job in Crookston that pays him $125 a month, so it will be more money in his pocket if he pitches independent ball. He'll perhaps get $5 or $10 a game, and expenses, while pitching for Plummer.—The monograms to be awarded the high school lettermen this year will be in the form of "T. R. F.", instead of the 'L' that has been issued the past few years. Better get to the Auditorium early tonight. It's Bronko Nagurski against Andy Moen; Abe Kashey meeting Bob Foster; and Stan Myslajek grappling with Ray Graham.

Until recently world's heavyweight wrestling champion, who will be the headliner on a mat card in the Auditorium tonight, being pitted against Andy Moen, huge Fergus Falls grappler.

STATE NOW READY TO START WORK ON 3,692 TRUNK MILES

Special Work to Cost About 2 Million Included in 1940 Program

The Minnesota state highway department today announced, as a part of its 1940 maintenance program, completed plans for surface improvements and reconditioning this year on 3,692 miles of state trunk highways.

Estimated to involve approximately $2,000,000 worth of special work, distributed in every section of the state, it is the largest mileage of trunk highway surface improvements ever undertaken in a single year's maintenance program.

A major portion of the mileage to be benefitted is on the so-called secondary trunk system, which includes a large part of the 4,500 miles added to the state highway system by the legislature in 1933. The program will add substantial improvement to hundreds of miles of such routes which heretofore could not be reached in the special maintenance program, and is designed to provide surfaces suitable for traffic until such time as they can be reached in the construction program.

The program announced today is either already under contract or ready for letting at an early date. It includes:

Sealcoating of 588 miles of bituminous roads of high type base, estimated to require 52,380 cu. yds. of mineral aggregate and 2,285,000 gals. of bituminous material, and cost about $350,000;

Bituminous retreatment of 2,182 miles, estimated to require 190,960 cu. yds. of mineral aggregate and 5,515,000 gal. of bituminous material, at a cost of about $1,200,000;

New bituminous treatment of 107 miles, comprising 47,750 cu. yds. of mineral aggregate and 1,200,000 gal. of bit. material, at a cost of $300,000;

Graveling or regraveling of 721 miles, requiring 289,125 cu. yds. of gravel at an estimated cost of $200,000;

Reshaping of grades, requiring grading and graveling operations on 94 miles, estimated to cost about $72,000.

This summer's maintenance improvement program not only exceeds that undertaken last year in mileages, but it is expected to be under way at a much earlier date, as last year's work was delayed for weeks in many sections of the state by unfavorable soil conditions and long periods of wet weather.

Norse Ask Armistice As Allies Withdraw

Organized Norwegian resistance to the German invasion collapsed late last week in the face of an allied retreat from all but the northernmost section of Norway, it was announced at Stockholm.

Alone and encircled, "with only enough ammunition for one day," the Norwegian central command asked Germany for an armistice, acknowledge the Nazis as master of Norway and bitterly accusing the allies of "incomprehensible action" in retreating without proper notice to the embattled Norwegian forces.

The fugitive Norwegian government, which alone has authority to sue for peace, formally was reported fleeing into the mountainous north country where British, French and Norwegian forces still are trying to dislodge a German contingent around Narvik, Arctic ore port.

Whereabouts of the British expeditionary force which sailed away from Namsos Thursday was unknown. Some credence was given to reports that at least part of the troops were to be landed farther north. The Norwegian telegraph agency said that "evacuated allied troops have landed safely at other ports."

One British officer, just before the embarkation at Namsos, said the British were bound for England.

Though the main Norwegian resistance had collapsed, there was evidence of some continuing guerrilla fighting against the invaders.

Reports reaching Stockholm said one Norwegian volunteer force of 140 men had ambushed a German detachment of 400 about 100 miles south of Roros killing 115, wounding 60 and taking many others prisoner. Roros is near the Swedish frontier.

A number of Norwegian troops under Lieutenant Dahl, described as "a fanatical patriot but nevertheless a good soldier," declined to capitulate and fled into the mountains where they promised a determined stand.

But the fight was over for most Norwegians and disillusioned soldiers gave up their arms on the Steinkjer front, 60 miles north of Trondheim, allowing mechanized and motorized Nazi legions to pour into bomb-battered Namsos in the wake of the retreating allies.

The Germans also reached Grong and were reported to have made contact with the capitulating Norwegians.

Word of the Norwegian surrender came from Col. O. B. Getz, acting commander in the central area, in an order of the day shot through with disillusionment and saying that the step was being taken to avoid needless slaughter of unsupported, ill-equipped soldiers.

Better Wool Prices Are Seen for Later Months, Says Market Specialist

The March price of about 27 cents for wool is materially higher than last year and it will probably go higher later in the season, says D. C. Dvoracek, extension marketing specialist, University Farm, St. Paul.

A small carry over of wool stocks and war-influence on foreign prices are credited with the rise. The dip in February and March quotations was due to relatively large imports of wool this spring and a somewhat lower level of woolen mill consumption, the economist says.

The lower mill consumption, plus regular spring marketings are expected to be depressing influences for the next few months, but the prospects of increased business activity and larger consumer buying power will support prices during the second half of the year or until the Southern Hemisphere crop becomes available. It appears therefore, that wool prices for the year should remain fairly stable, recovering somewhat from the usual spring decline. Dvoracek says that farmers might well consider pooling their wool clip to take advantage of possibly higher prices during the late summer and early fall.

Three New State Parks to be Opened May 15th

When the state park system officially opens May 15, three new state parks will be ready, making 26 such places for the exclusive use of campers, fishermen, tourists, hikers and general outdoor folks. Peace and quiet are points emphasized in the park program too. One of the regulations is: "No noise or disturbance after 10 p. m. in consideration of campers desiring quiet and rest". The new sites are Cottonwood River state park at New Ulm, Middle River state park, northeast of Warren, and Two Rivers state park near Bronson.

It costs you money every time you don't read these want ads.

103 County Families Obtain Benefit from U. S. Housing Agency

A total of 103 families in Pennington county, made property repairs or bought homes under various provisions of the National Housing Act through December 31, 1939, it was reported today by Daniel J. Fouquette, Federal Housing Administration state director for Minnesota, North and South Dakota.

Included in the total were 85 property improvement loans insured under Title I involving $31,931.70, and 18 small home mortgages accepted for insurance by FHA under Title II involving $70,200.

Under Title I of the National Housing Act, certain types of repairs, alterations and improvements may be made to residential and other structures with funds provided from private qualified sources.

Under Title II, funds for the purchase of new or existing homes may be obtained from approved lending institutions such as banks, trust companies, mortgage companies, insurance companies and other financial institutions.

Man Escapes Drowning in Mishap at Marcoux

A farmer near Mentor narrowly escaped drowning last Wednesday afternoon, after he had been pitched into a ditch full of water as the result of an automobile accident. Fred Matson, driving eastward on highway No. 2, near Marcoux Corner, with a team of horses pulling a rack loaded with hay, was struck from the rear by Irvin Walton, of Crookston, driving a truck, according to state highway patrolmen who investigated the accident. The impact threw Matson into the ditch and upset the hay rack, much of the hay falling on top of the farmer. Walton, and the passenger with him in the truck, rescued Matson from the water-filled ditch, but the Mentor farmer was thoroughly soaked and chilled.

Work to be Continued at Lake Bronson Camp

After considerable controversy, the State of Minnesota has given a donation of $1200 for the maintenance of the Lake Bronson Work Camp at the Two Rivers State Park at Lake Bronson. This fund, to be secured, must be matched by $1300 from the county and $500 from the Village of Lake Bronson. The Federal Government threatened to dismantle the camp May 1, after the State had refused to contribute to its upkeep.

Big-Time Wrestlers at Auditorium Tonight

Judging by the reports of the advance ticket sales, and the general interest that the matches have created, promoter Bill LaFave stated that he expected a capacity crowd at the Auditorium to witness tonight's wrestling card. The all-star program will feature former world's heavyweight champion Bronko Nagurski in a match against Andy Moen; in the semi-windup will be Abe Kashey and Bob Foster; while Stan Myslajek and Ray Graham will open the program by wrestling the preliminary.

Mr. LaFave added that while many of the fans are anxious to see Nagurski, just as many of the fans are interested in the Abe Kashey vs. Bob Foster match.

Kashey, of course, is not reputed to be the wrestler that the Bronko is, nor does he have Nagurski's tremendous strength, but he is more of a show-man, and that rough stuff of his is very entertaining.

Bronko Nagurski is favored to throw Andy Moen in his match; but Moen is capable of making the Bronk show the stuff that brought him to the world's championship. Nagurski, as befits a former all-American football player, has brought a lot of the tricks that he learned on the gridiron into the wrestling ring. Bronko uses a vicious body block and a flying tackle, with various body slams, to subdue his opponents.

According to promoter LaFave the Abe Kashey and Bob Foster match can be rated a toss-up, and only for the reason that one cannot tell what will occur when Kashey is one of the participants in a wrestling match. Kashey is well-established among the wrestling greats of the country, and is a capable opponent for any man, bar none; but he has a tendency to get into altercations with the referee over foul tactics and has been disqualified on numerous occasions. He has an unquenchable penchant for the rough stuff, however, and cannot refrain from trying to sneak over some unorthodox bit of trickery whenever he thinks that he can get away with it. But there is always excitement when Kashey wrestles.

In Stan Myslajek the fans will be seeing a youngster who is noted for his speed and cleverness. He is especially proficient in the use of the body scissors, in which hold he has been trained by Tony Stecher, and with it he has won scores of bouts in this vicinity.

The victim of a self-inflicted wound from a rifle shot, Nels Hveem, 49, died early last Thursday morning at his farm home three miles southeast of Erie. He had been in poor health for some time past. Dr. C. M. Adkins, coroner, who visited the scene, decided that no inquest was necessary.

WEED MEETING TO BE CONDUCTED IN CITY ON TUESDAY

Local Weed Inspectors Will Consult with State Authorities

The state department of agriculture, dairy and food division of weed and seed control, has called the local weed inspectors to Pennington county's annual weed meeting which will be held at 10:00 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. on Tuesday, May 14 in the court house at Thief River Falls.

Definite progress in weed control and eradication programs was made in 1939 in nearly all Minnesota counties. This work will be considered at the county meeting, and, together with new plans, may be used as a foundation on which 1940 plans can be made. Every farmer, every official and every citizens concerned and interested in the week problem may take an active part in the meeting.

New phases of control work and plans for cooperative effort will be discussed. Practical field work, quarantines, education and experience gained at the Lamberton Weed Farm the past years will serve as a base on which plans can be made for farm and neighborhood programs.

County commissioners, auditor, engineer, county agent and township officers are invited and urged to attend. Rural school teachers, high school agricultural teacher and classes are also invited. The law directs the town chairmen and mayors or their substitutes to attend. County commissioners will be interested in the possibilities of the county employing its own county supervisory weed inspector to cooperate with local and state inspectors. The counties having such inspectors in 1939 report increased activity in killing weeds. Some counties have killed free of charge to the farmers areas not to exceed 2 acres. This will be explained at the meeting.

Those in charge of the meeting for the state division of weed and seed control will be C. H. Schrader and George Hammerbeck.

The Judge Quits Golf

Judge Lincoln Arnold called the press into his office the other day and, after the amenities of the occasion had been completed, he issued a statement to the effect that he, the Judge, did not choose to play golf this year, and that he was going to concentrate on tennis. The Judge enlarged on this cryptic statement by saying that he realized that he had become too expert for his golfing companions, and as a result the game had lost its relish. In his instance, he added, it was a case of going into newer fields and greener pastures. That's the Judge's story. But in conversations with these golfing companions of the Judge's one hears a vastly different story, and its kernel is that the Judge knew that this was to be the year of the Great Revenge. He knew that certain of these companions had purchased new clubs, that others had undergone surgery, and that still others had subjected themselves to a milk and gland-food diet, and all for the sole purpose of securing a golfer's revenge on the Judge. According to this story, the Judge was cognizant of these facts, and so he decided to issue the statement that he did not choose to play golf this year.

Track

Coach John Lindenmeyer is pushing a squad of 15 or 20 Prowler trackmen through intensive drill in preparation for the district track meet, which will be held in Grand Forks, at the 'U' next Saturday. Sour weather and lack of adequate training facilities has handicapped the squad and it is doubtful if Lindenmeyer will be able to whip the team into condition for Saturday's meet. Don Olson, a well-built and hard-running sophomore, appears to be the most promising point-getter on the squad. He's a half-miler.

Baseball

Thief River Falls has become a member of the six team Northern Minnesota baseball league. It cost the boys ten bucks to join, the entry fee, but they were glad to pay that amount for the privilege of playing organized ball. So it's up to the rest of us to support the team, which will be all home talent, by attending the games. Two bits will be the admission for the league games. The season to open on May 19th.

With the West Sider's Lenny Helquist pitching and hitting like the Yankee's Red Ruffing, the West Side, by a 10 to 4 score, handed a trouncing to the East Side in a baseball game played at the fair grounds last Sunday. The first defeat tagged on the East Side, several weeks ago, was taken as an accident, but when it happened again Sunday, and by such a score, Wally DuChamp, manager of the East Side, immediately made arrangements to have his eyes tested. And he's getting glasses. They should be a great help to Wally, for with glasses he'll be able to see by how much he misses those curve balls he's been waving at.

Miscellany

Don Lorentson is running the high and low hurdle events for the St. Olaf track team. In a meet [illegible] Saturday, Don won heats in both events.—The first name of Bemidji's Buck Robbins is Horace.—Plummer has just about given up hopes of having Louie Bedson do their pitching this year. Instead they are going to have Mortrude of Crookston, a pitcher with much Northern League experience, on the mound.

Mortrude, who has played with Superior and Crookston, could have pitched for the Pirates again this year, but the Northern League salary scale ranges only to 90 dollars a month, and he has a job in Crookston that pays him $125 a month, so it will be more money in his pocket if he pitches independent ball. He'll perhaps get $5 or $10 a game, and expenses, while pitching for Plummer.—The monograms to be awarded the high school lettermen this year will be in the form of "T. R. F." instead of the 'L' that has been issued the past few years. Better get to the Auditorium early tonight. It's Bronko Nagurski against Andy Moen; Abe Kashey meeting Bob Foster; and Stan Myslajek grappling with Ray Graham.

At Auditorium Tonight

BRONKO NAGURSKI
Until recently world's heavyweight wrestling champion, who will be the headliner on a mat card in the Auditorium tonight, being pitted against Andy Moen, huge Fergus Falls grappler.

STATE NOW READY TO START WORK ON 3,692 TRUNK MILES

Special Work to Cost About 2 Million Included in 1940 Program

The Minnesota state highway department today announced, as a part of its 1940 maintenance program, completed plans for surface improvements and reconditioning this year on 3,692 miles of state trunk highways.

Estimated to involve approximately $2,000,000 worth of special work, distributed in every section of the state, it is the largest mileage of trunk highway surface improvements ever undertaken in a single year's maintenance program.

A major portion of the mileage to be benefitted is on the so-called secondary trunk system, which includes a large part of the 4,500 miles added to the state highway system by the legislature in 1933. The program will add substantial improvement to hundreds of miles of such routes which heretofore could not be reached in the special maintenance program, and is designed to provide surfaces suitable for traffic until such time as they can be reached in the construction program.

The program announced today is either already under contract or ready for letting at an early date. It includes:

Sealcoating of 568 miles of bituminous roads of high type base, estimated to require 52,380 cu. yds. of mineral aggregate and 2,285,000 gals. of bituminous material, and cost about $350,000;

Bituminous retreatment of 2,182 miles, estimated to require 190,960 cu. yds. of mineral aggregate and 5,515,000 gal. of bituminous material, at a cost of about $1,200,000;

New bituminous treatment of 107 miles, comprising 42,750 cu. yds. of mineral aggregate and 1,200,000 gal. of bit. material, at a cost of $180,000;

Graveling or regraveling of 721 miles, requiring 289,125 cu. yds. of gravel at an estimated cost of $200,000;

Reshaping of grades, requiring grading and graveling operations on 94 miles, estimated to cost about $72,000.

This summer's maintenance improvement program not only exceeds that undertaken last year in mileages, but it is expected to be under way at a much earlier date, as last year's work was delayed for weeks in many sections of the state by unfavorable soil conditions and long periods of wet weather.

Sun-Tan vs. Chiggers

Norse Ask Armistice As Allies Withdraw

Organized Norwegian resistance to the German invasion collapsed late last week in the face of an allied retreat from all but the northernmost section of Norway, it was announced at Stockholm.

Alone and encircled, "with only enough ammunition for one day," the Norwegian central command asked Germany for an armistice, acknowledge the Nazis as master of Norway and bitterly accusing the allies of "incomprehensible action" in retreating without proper notice to the embattled Norwegian forces.

The fugitive Norwegian government, which alone has authority to sue for peace, formally was reported fleeing into the mountainous north country where British, French and Norwegian forces still are trying to dislodge a German contingent around Narvik, Arctic ore port.

Whereabouts of the British expeditionary force which sailed away from Namsos Thursday was unknown. Some credence was given to reports that at least part of the troops were to be landed farther north. The Norwegian telegraph agency said that "evacuated allied troops have landed safely at other ports."

One British officer, just before the embarkation at Namsos, said the British were bound for England.

Though the main Norwegian resistance had collapsed, there was evidence of some continuing guerrilla fighting against the invaders.

Reports reaching Stockholm said one Norwegian volunteer force of 140 men had ambushed a German detachment of 400 about 100 miles south of Roros killing 115, wounding 60 and taking many others prisoner. Roros is near the Swedish frontier.

A number of Norwegian troops under Lieutenant Dahl, described as "a fanatical patriot but nevertheless a good soldier," declined to capitulate and fled into the mountains where they promised a determined stand.

But the fight was over for most Norwegians and disillusioned soldiers gave up their arms on the Steinkjer front, 60 miles north of Trondheim, allowing mechanized and motorized Nazi legions to pour into bomb-battered Namsos in the wake of the retreating allies.

The Germans also reached Grong and were reported to have made contact with the capitulating Norwegians.

Word of the Norwegian surrender came from Col. O. B. Getz, acting commander in the central area, in an order of the day shot through with disillusionment and saying that the step was being taken to avoid needless slaughter of unsupported, ill-equipped soldiers.

Better Wool Prices Are Seen for Later Months, Says Market Specialist

The March price of about 27 cents for wool is materially higher than last year and it will probably go higher later in the season, says D. C. Dvoracek, extension marketing specialist, University Farm, St. Paul.

A small carry over of wool stocks and war-influence on foreign prices are credited with the rise. The dip in February and March quotations was due to relatively large imports of wool this spring and a somewhat lower level of woolen mill consumption, the economist says.

The lower mill consumption, plus regular spring marketings are expected to be depressing influences for the next few months, but the prospects of increased business activity and larger consumer buying power will support prices during the second half of the year or until the Southern Hemisphere crop becomes available. It appears therefore, that wool prices for the year should remain fairly stable, recovering somewhat from the usual spring decline. Dvoracek says that farmers might well consider pooling their wool clip to take advantage of possibly higher prices during the late summer and early fall.

Three New State Parks to be Opened May 15th

When the state park system officially opens May 15, three new state parks will be ready, making 25 such places for the exclusive use of campers, fishermen, tourists, hikers and general outdoor folks. Peace and quiet are points emphasized in the park program, too. One of the regulations is: "No noise or disturbance after 10 p. m. in consideration of campers desiring quiet and rest". The new sites are Cottonwood River state park at New Ulm, Middle River state park, northeast of Warren, and Two Rivers state park near Bronson.

103 County Families Obtain Benefit from U. S. Housing Agency

A total of 103 families in Pennington county, made property repairs or bought homes under various provisions of the National Housing Act through December 31, 1939, it was reported today by Daniel J. Fouquette, Federal Housing Administration state director for Minnesota, North and South Dakota.

Included in the total were 85 property improvement loans insured under Title I involving $31,931.70, and 18 small home mortgages accepted for insurance by FHA under Title II involving $70,200.

Under Title I of the National Housing Act, certain types of repairs, alterations and improvements may be made to residential and other structures with funds provided from private qualified sources.

Under Title II, funds for the purchase of new or existing homes may be obtained from approved lending institutions such as banks, trust companies, mortgage companies, insurance companies and other financial institutions.

Man Escapes Drowning in Mishap at Marcoux

A farmer near Mentor narrowly escaped drowning last Wednesday afternoon, after he had been pitched into a ditch full of water as the result of an automobile accident. Fred Matson, driving eastward on highway No. 2, near Marcoux Corner, with a team of horses pulling a rack loaded with hay, was struck from the rear by Irvin Walton, of Crookston, driving a truck, according to state highway patrolmen who investigated the accident. The impact threw Matson into the ditch and upset the hay rack, much of the hay falling on top of the farmer. Walton, and the passenger with him in the truck, rescued Matson from the water-filled ditch, but the Mentor farmer was thoroughly soaked and chilled.

Work to be Continued at Lake Bronson Camp

After considerable controversy, the State of Minnesota has given a donation of $1200 for the maintenance of the Lake Bronson Work Camp at the Two Rivers State Park at Lake Bronson. This fund, to be secured, must be matched by $1200 from the county and $500 from the Village of Lake Bronson. The Federal Government threatened to dismantle the camp May 1, after the State had refused to contribute to its upkeep.

Ascension Day

The last Ladies aid fell on Ascension Day so Reverend Anderson spoke briefly on the significance of this day in connection with the devotions. President, Mrs. S. Anderson paid a tribute to the late secretary, Mrs. A. Hylland and appointed Mrs. E. Nelson to serve as secretary for the remainder of the term. The new heatrola is up and makes a decided improvement in the church. A "Thank You" card from the A. Hylland and Nels Satre families was read.

The Woman's Missionary Federation Circuit meeting will be held in Middle River on May 14. Mrs. F. Brown and Mrs. C. Doran with Mrs. Chas. Knutson and Mrs. Hans Peterson as alternates were elected to serve as delegates at this meeting. Of course other members of the Aid can also attend this meeting. Each aid is only allowed two delegates with voting privileges.

The Historian Mrs. F. Brown is asking for old pictures taken at any of the past Ladies aids or church gatherings. Small reprints can be made so anyone donating a picture can have it back if necessary.

Two readings comprised the program. Mrs. C. Doran read "Early Days in Canada" as told by Mrs. Arnold Steen. Mrs. Chas. Knutson read about the "various early aids in Canada" and about some of their accomplishments. In both readings Reverend Bervral Anderson was mentioned as establisher of the oldest Norwegian congregation in Canada. He called this the Bardo district naming it after a Congregation he had near Crookston before going to Canada. After these readings Mrs. Hans Peterson recalled that this same pastor had married Mr. and Mrs. Ole Newton in 1889. She also remembered the time when he left for Canada and that he had named his new congregation Bardo too. Later others of the listeners recalled that their parents used to speak of Rev. Bervral Anderson.

A new Cradle roll was hung up. All children under Sunday school age may become members of the cradle roll. There is an enrollment fee of ten cents. Each infant when baptised becomes a member of the cradle roll.

Mrs. Oscar Knutson, Mrs. Bertha Nelson and Mrs. Oscar Tweeten served the Aid lunch.

Annual Election of Farmers' Club

Russell Thelling, president, reelected; Ervin Anderson, resigned and Vernon Gillvedt appointed in his place, vice president; George Hanson, secretary; Arne Wick, treasurer, reelected; Anton Boman, director.

On the program was the German Band from Goodridge. In the band are Ardell and Karol Grondahl, Gail Jones, Betty Johnson, Pearl Limesand and Benorra Hagen, Mrs. Hagen is the leader and the band is a good one, playing very well together.

Ray Johnson, the new 4-H County agent gave a short talk on club work. He explained the 4-H pledge and motto and praised the Benville Brigadiers for good attendance at their meetings. He ended with a few words on the foreign war after which everyone rose and sang "God Bless America". Arnold Larson sang and played his guitar. Miss Adeline Nygaard gave a demonstration measuring the dry ingredients for a cake and measuring the shortening by the water displacement method."

WHAT'S IT WORTH? (ABOUT $300 MORE!)

ANY WAY you look at it—it will pay you to own a new Nash. It alone has the 99 H.P. Manifold Sealed engine that took a "first" in the 1940 Gilmore-Yosemite Run with 23.76 miles per gallon. It alone has that smooth new Arrow-Flight Ride, Sand-Mortex Soundproofing. No other sedan near its price has provision for a big Convertible Bed... or has a 7-bearing crankshaft, the extra weight, the double frame, that mean so much in comfort.

To get all this in another car, you'd have to pay about $300 more. But it's "standard" with Nash—and extra value when you trade. Take a look—take a ride in a 1940 Nash today!

HOW MUCH DOES THE MINNESOTA BREWING INDUSTRY MEAN TO ME? Plenty!

I like my bottle of beer with my supper. That's all beer meant to me . . . just a good drink! Now I've learned how the Minnesota brewing industry helps me and everybody else in other ways. The facts are that:

"THERE ARE OVER 36,000 PERSONS employed to make, deliver, and sell beer in Minnesota. Thousands of others work in businesses supplying breweries and retailers. That keeps many off relief rolls and keeps taxes down.

"FARMERS GET MORE THAN $3,500,000 a year from Minnesota breweries for Minnesota grains.

"ABOUT $2,000,000 IN TAX REVENUE goes to the state each year for beer taxes alone! The brewing industry pays millions more for income, real estate, property, and license taxes! Without this revenue our individual taxes would go up!"

Besides, leading physicians and educators agree that beer satisfies the people's demand for a mild but stimulating beverage . . . that it is essentially non-intoxicating . . . and that it promotes the moderation that leads to true temperance.

SHE'S A BOY!

Timothy Bungert two-and-one-half year old son of a Minneapolis policeman, will no doubt get a haircut now. Mrs. Bungert telephoned her husband the other day that Timothy had strayed away. "Have you a lost boy there?" Mr. Bungert asked the police matron. "No, but we have a lost girl," she replied. Further checkup revealed that the "girl" was really Timothy but because his hair had been allowed to grow long and curly he was mistaken for a "gal."

These Trees of Mine

By Mrs. E. E. Zeh

I have several hawthorn trees, or thorn apples as they are also called, none of them very large or very fine, and they do not stand where they show off to advantage, but they are beautiful trees when they are given space and proper pruning. When left to themselves, of course, they are apt to be scraggly and they throw up many shoots from the roots. I dug mine many years ago down by the river but they have been much neglected.

I don't remember seeing one in any other garden than my own, though nursery men offer them at fifty cents each and praise them very highly. You may dig them for yourself however, and many other native shrubs including dogwood.

Somehow the things I dig for my self mean much more to me than those I buy, and usually there are some happy memories connected with their getting. So many lovely shrubs are native here and may be had for the taking but most people seem to value only what they pay money for, the more money the greater the value. To them anything that is native is wild, and is only "brush, just brush", fit only to be cut down with contempt. To that sort of a person nothing is beautiful unless it is in a straight row or in a round bed.

When I was a child on a little farm by a lake we had a large and very beautiful hawthorn tree in our yard, near the water—a tall, straight trunk and a flat umbrella like top which in the spring was a mass of white, tinged with pink, and in the fall was loaded with the little scarlet apples. We all loved it, but one day running down to the lake in my bare feet I stepped on a broken off thorn, very long and very sharp, which went through my foot and stuck out on top. I never will forget what my poor mother suffered when it took all of her strength to pull it out.

However all my memories of hawthorn trees are not so painful. We children loved to eat the little apples and we found many uses for the thorns. Then, in the back of my mind, are many vague, half remembered snatches of English verse and song—Sherwood Forest and Little John.

The flowers have a very decided odor, considered unpleasant by most people but loved by me—in limited amount. "Endurin' of the Army", to quote Riley, when we were supposed to use everything for some good purpose I made a very good apple butter or marmalade from the little apples before they were fully ripe and was surprised at the amount of pulp I got from a fruit that seemed to be mostly seeds.

If you get yourself a little hawthorn tree, however acquired, you will enjoy it I know. It will live for many years and at least twice a year it will be beautiful.

Chick Kircher tells us that he met up with a fellow down in St. Louis who made better mousetraps. They were really beautiful traps and highly effective. He opened his sample kit and showed them to Chick.

You might remember that.

WITH THE CHILDREN IN MIND

Vegetable Meat Loaf
Baked Potatoes Buttered Peas
Celery and Apple Salad
Bread and Butter
Snow Pudding with Soft Custard Date Cookies
Coffee or Tea for Adults Milk for Children

Here's a simple oven dinner—easy to prepare, not too expensive—substantial and satisfying—the kind of a meal any one will enjoy, and—best of all—the kind of food any child specialist will approve for your children—especially after he's been told what has gone into the meat loaf.

VEGETABLE MEAT LOAF

- 2 tbsp. all-purpose flour
- 1½ tsp. salt
- ⅛ tsp. pepper
- ½ cup drained cooked spinach, chopped
- ½ cup ground or grated raw carrots
- ½ cup tomatoes
- 1 lb. ground beef
- 1 egg
- 2 tbsp. meat drippings

Mix flour, salt, pepper, spinach, carrots and tomatoes with the ground beef. Stir the well beaten egg into the mixture. Pack into a baking pan, 4 by 8 inches across the bottom (2½ inches deep), containing meat drippings. Bake 1 hour in a moderate oven, 350° F. This will make 6 servings.

Snow Pudding is a refreshing old time dessert that children always love. And I've noticed that the grown ups always eat it with enjoyment too. In case you've forgotten just how it was made, here is the recipe:

SNOW PUDDING

- 1 tbsp. granulated gelatine
- ¼ cup cold water
- 1 cup boiling water
- ⅔ cup sugar
- ¼ cup lemon juice
- Grated rind 1 lemon
- Whites of 2 eggs

Soak gelatine in cold water for 5 minutes and dissolve in boiling water. Add sugar, lemon juice and rind. Strain and set aside to cool. Stir the mixture occasionally, and when quite thick beat with an egg beater until frothy. Add egg whites which have been beaten until stiff, and continue beating until stiff enough to hold its shape. Pile by spoonfuls in a glass dish and chill. Serve with soft custard sauce. This will make 8 servings.

SOFT CUSTARD

- 2 eggs or 4 egg yolks
- 2 to 4 tbsp. sugar
- ⅛ tsp. salt
- ½ tsp. flavoring
- 2 cups scalded milk

Beat the eggs and add sugar, salt and flavoring. Pour scalded milk over beaten egg mixture and place in double boiler over hot water. Stir constantly while cooking. The water in the boiler should be a little under the boiling point. As soon as the mixture stops frothing and lightly coats a spoon, it is done and should be removed at once from the heat. If cooked too long it will curdle. Use soft custard as a sauce for a gelatin pudding, or over fresh fruit garnished with whipped cream or meringue. It may also be served in sherbet glasses and topped with meringue or whipped cream garnished with tart jelly.

Horse Sense

Ulysses, famed Grecian warrior in the battle with the Trojans, at first didn't want to go to war, according to legend. Pretending madness, he put on a fisherman's hat, yoked horses and started to plow up the ground. His trick was uncovered when he turned the horses aside as he saw his infant son lying on the ground in front of the plow.

Down the River!

The most famous of all river steamboat races was that between the R. E. Lee and the Natchez, run from New Orleans to St. Louis in 1870. The R. E. Lee arrived at St. Louis at 11:25 a. m. July 4, 3 days, 18 hours and 30 minutes out of New Orleans, a distance of 1,210 miles. The Natchez arrived some six hours later.

Nine Lives of a Cat

The idea that a cat has nine lives is traceable to the ancient superstition that evil spirits were able to assume the form of black animals, particularly black cats, and that a witch could take on the body of a cat nine times. Among the ancient Egyptians, the cat-headed goddess Pasht, the mother cat of the witches, was said to have nine lives.

Sneezing Custom

The origin of "God bless you" or a similar benediction after sneezing is obscure. The Romans believed that sneezing expelled evil spirits and, therefore, used the expression, "Good luck to you." There is an old legend that before the time of Jacob men sneezed once and died. Jacob interceded with the Lord in their behalf and the favor was granted, provided that after every sneeze a prayer or benediction, "God bless you," be said.

Reflecting a Trend

It takes more than 17,000 workers to produce the polished plate glass mirrors sold in this country. Mirroring of large sections of walls in homes, a recent decoration trend, is "reflected" in the mirror industry's annual purchases of $11,000,000 worth of raw materials and sales of [illegible], according to a Toledo, Ohio, glass company.

Six an Hour by Air

Road Crews Open Cleanup of Roadside Signs, Debris

Maintenance crews of the state highway department have taken the field this week in all 16 maintenance districts to eradicate from the roadside advertising signs and billboards erected on highway right-of-way.

And while they are at it, they have been instructed to carry their spring housecleaning campaign a little further and clear roadsides of bottles, cans, and all other debris, carelessly discarded by passing motorists.

Owners of roadside signs and billboards were publicly requested some time ago to remove by May 5 these encroachments from the right-of-way, where they constitute illegal and sight-obstructing menaces to safety. Those which have not been removed by their owners will now be removed by highway crews.

COUNCIL ACTS TO OK $25,000 IN BUILDING JOBS

Five New Houses and Business Block Addition Included

DIAMONDBALL MEN APPEAR AT MEETING

Police and Fire Department Members Seek Civil Service Plan

The city council at its regular May session Tuesday evening approved building permits aggregating almost $25,000, including five new residences, an addition to a business block and numerous residence improvement projects.

L. J. Cerny & Son will build a second story on the Mint Tavern building on LaBree av. at an estimated cost of $4,600. Residence permits were granted to Richard Mabey, Riverside av., $3,000; Milton Larson, Kendall av. N., $4,500; Dr. Edward Bratrud, two houses on Crocker av. N. and on Merriam av., $2,400 each; and Emil Hanson, $3,200. Thirteen minor permits call for work ranging in cost from $60 to $800.

Representatives of the police and fire departments were present to ask the council to place the two departments under civil service regulations, as is the case in Crookston, Bemidji, Moorhead and many other cities of the state. The plan calls for the appointment of a civil service commission of three members to conduct examinations and to hire and discharge employes. It was pointed out that operation of the plan would give employes an added feeling of security. The council referred the matter to City Attorney Theodore Quale for further study.

Acting favorably on the request of Fire Chief Leonard Hanson, the sum of $200 was voted to the fire department to pay the expenses of delegates to the state fire school now in progress in Minneapolis and to the state firemen's convention to be held in Virginia June 11 to 13.

A committee of diamondball players were present to ask the cooperation of the council in providing lighting facilities for night games on the east side playground. After it had been indicated that the expense of installation might be held down to approximately $380, the matter was referred to the council light committee with power to act, providing an investigation revealed no objections on the part of residents in the vicinity of the playground.

T. M. Thronson submitted a recommendation from the athletic association urging the appointment of a city planning board to

City Population Reported at 6016

Heads Junior Chamber

DON MATTSON

Who last Thursday was elected president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, succeeding Leo Aanstad. Mr. Mattson served as secretary during the past year.

Fulfilling the expectations of many local residents, the population of Thief River Falls passed the 6,000 mark in the 1940 census, unofficial figures released this morning by District Census Supervisor H. O. Chommie setting the figure at 6,016.

The count reveals an increase of slightly more than 40 per cent over the 1930 total of 4,268, and indicates that Thief River Falls is one of the fastest growing cities in the state. The figure is expected to be slightly increased when the final count is released by the census bureau in Washington later in the summer.

If the population of the urban portions of North and Rocksbury townships adjoining the city limits were taken into consideration, it was indicated that the population of the community would be fully 7,000. The unofficial count in the Town of North revealed a total of 1063 compared to 739 in 1930, while Rocksbury showed 685 compared to 593 ten years earlier.

Census returns show 288 residents of St. Hilaire, eight more than in 1930, and 173 for Goodridge compared to 171 in 1930. The population of Warren increased from 1,472 in 1930 to 1,634 in 1940, while Crookston gained from 6,321 in 1930 to 7,149 this year. Roseau showed a huge gain during the ten-year period from 1,028 to 1,764. Newfolden gained from 244 to 297, Holt from 188 to 209 and Middle River from 275 to 327.

Mrs. Mary V. Shaw, Chairman of Local Chapter, Announces Drive

Shaw, chairman of the Pennington county chapter, announced this week that a campaign will get under way immediately to collect the local quota of $420, and solicited the wholehearted cooperation of residents of this community.

Mrs. Shaw received late last week from Norman H. Davis, national chairman, an appeal which reads in part as follows: "With the invasion of Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg the war has entered a phase which will inevitably and at once bring widespread suffering to millions of helpless men, women and children.

"In order to inaugurate widespread relief measures the American Red Cross is at once launching a campaign for a minimum war relief fund of $10,000,000. Your chapter quota is $420."

The next major event on the school calendar is the annual high school activities dinner, slated for next Wednesday evening, May 22, in the school gymnasium. Mr. Bye stated that H. H. Kirk, superintendent of the Fargo public schools, will be the principal speaker.

School letters and emblems will be presented to students who have met certain standards of participation in various activities, including chorus, band, football, basketball, track, debate, declamation, girls' athletics, twirling, cheer leading, Prowler, Lincoln Log and National Honor Society.

To provide further for meeting the varied need and talents of high school students, the board authorized the addition of three new courses, including rudiments of music for Grade 10, art for Grades 11 and 12, and business principles and law for Grade 12. Action also was taken to make application to the state board for vocational education for the continuance of the agriculture department.

Following receipt of a ruling by Attorney General Burnquist that it is illegal for school districts to contribute funds to the Association of Supplementary Aid Schools which is seeking to obtain payment of the aids in full, the local board rescinded its recent action in making a contribution of $75. Payment of the sum had not yet been made.

The board voted to continue the practice of supplying free to each member of the graduating class one dozen commencement invitations, the cost last year having amounted to $45.70. The local chapter of the Future Farmers of America was granted the use of a school bus to transport the members to a camp at Itasca park June 2 to 5.

DELEGATES NAMED TO PHILADELPHIA

W. L. Peterson, Lancaster, Appointed on State Committee

Approximately 120 delegates representing all counties except Wilkin participated in the Ninth district Republican convention in the Thief River Falls Auditorium Tuesday afternoon. Paul A. Lundgren of this city presided ably as convention chairman, while Miss Marjorie Thompson of Clay county served as secretary.

Named delegates to the Republican national convention in Philadelphia were Roy E. Dunn of Pelican Rapids and Miss Thompson, while alternates will be Newell R. Johnson of Bemidji and Mrs. C. H. Dodds of Baudette. The delegation will go uninstructed.

Following a spirited debate as to whether district officers should be elected by the convention or by the county chairmen and chairwomen, the latter course was adopted, with the result that Newell Johnson was named district chairman, Mrs. Harding, Crookston, chairwoman; Theodore Quale of this city, vice chairman; Mrs. Fhaurud of Ottertail county, vice chairwoman; Douglas Haugen, Pelican Rapids, secretary; and Merle E. Johnson, Kennedy, treasurer. Named to the state central committee were W. L. Peterson of Lancaster and Mrs. George Frankberg of Fergus Falls.

A series of resolutions introduced by Lou Benshoof of Detroit Lakes, chairman of the resolutions committee, all of which were unanimously adopted, included endorsement of the administration of Governor Stassen and other Republican state officials; urged a balanced budget in state and national governments; advocated an investigation of the effects of the operation of reciprocal trade treaties; opposed all -isms menacing the government, as well as the New Deal policy of scarcity; urged giving the American farmer the domestic market; and asked a sound monetary policy.

Other resolutions adopted endorsed reelection of Roy Dunn as national committeeman and Mrs. Chris Carlson of Blue Earth as national committeewoman; J. W. Padden of Crookston for delegate-at-large to the national convention in Philadelphia; and State Senator A. O. Sletvold of Detroit Lakes for United States senator. THATCHER SPEAKS ON FARM PROBLEM IN CITY SATURDAY

Urges Enactment of Bill to Scale Down Farm Loans and Interest

Heading a group of officials of Farmers Union enterprises who spoke in the municipal Auditorium Saturday evening, M. W. Thatcher, general manager of the Farmers Union Grain Terminal association, discussed efforts being made to secure the enactment by congress of the Wheeler-LaFollette-Jones bill, designed to scale down farm mortgages and reduce the rate of interest. The meeting was held under the auspices of the local cooperative seed and grain association now in process of organization.

Stating that the prosperity of all citizens depends on federal legislation, Mr. Thatcher declared that farmers haven't a chance in the world of making progress in the future unless necessary laws are enacted, and added that the individual states are powerless to remedy the situation.

He criticized the Farm Credit administration as having been cold-blooded in its foreclosures on farms and in taking over the farmers' soil conservation checks, and he approved the recent transfer of the agency to the department of agriculture.

Approximately 300 people attended the meeting, which opened with a brief band concert.

FEDERAL LOAN ON WHEAT BENEFITED COUNTY FARMERS

Chairman C. R. Anderson Says 93 Took Loans on Crop Last Year

Wheat loans and other AAA wheat program provisions enabled Pennington county farmers to receive approximately $3500 more for their 1939 crop than if they had been forced to sell their wheat at harvest time, Carl R. Anderson, chairman of the Pennington county AAA committee, estimated this week.

He said 93 Pennington farmers obtained loans on their 1939 wheat, storing 10,556 bushels on their farms and 9,025 bushels in commercial warehouses. All loans fell due April 30 and by that time, Mr. Anderson reported, all loans had been paid.

The average loan rate in Pennington County on 1939 wheat was 72 cents a bushel. The average farm price of wheat during April was 90 cents. At harvest time the farm price was 19 cents below the loan rate and 36 cents below the April farm price.

"Farmers of Pennington County have shared with the wheat producers of the entire nation in benefiting from the wheat loan and other provisions of the AAA wheat program", Mr. Anderson said. "At the time the wheat was going under loan last July and August, our prices in this country were between 30 and 35 cents above the world level. Since then, the United States average farm price of wheat has gone up about 30 cents a bushel.

"By making use of the wheat loan program, we farmers have been able to take advantage of this price improvement," Mr. Anderson said.

90 FARMERS MEET TO PLAN DRIVE ON HOPPERS TUESDAY

Entomologist Explains Plan for Coming Campaign Against Pests

About ninety farmers attended the grasshopper meeting in the courthouse Tuesday evening. These men are all vitally interested in control work, and discussed results of the 1939 campaign with T. L. Aamodt, assistant state entomologist.

Mr. Aamodt talked briefly about infestation, time for spreading bait, and bait formula. In spite of the fact that many farmers were disappointed with results in 1939, the same bait formula will be used this year. Mr. Aamodt said that the bait is satisfactory in other counties and believes that it would be in this county if baiting conditions are favorable and recommendations followed. However, tests will be made of several different kinds of bait on four farms in the county to show what the result will be.

Al Buresky, district field man for control work discussed the egg survey and stated that general hatching has not started in this territory.

Arrangements have been made to mix the bait with an old creamery butter churn this year. That will mean that farmers will be able to get bait without waiting.

SENIOR PLAY IS ATTENDED FRIDAY BY BIG AUDIENCE

Class Play, "Tourists Accommodated" Is Effectively Presented

A near-capacity audience Friday evening witnessed the successful presentation of the senior class play, "Tourists Accommodated", in the Lincoln high school auditorium. Staged under the direction of Hilding Peterson by a cast of 35 young actors, the sprightly comedy-drama was entertaining thruout.

The moral of the play, effectively presented in a concluding scene by James Borreson, was that the home community offers to young people many advantages over the big city.

The scene of the action was a New England farm home. Members of the cast had their parts letter perfect, principal roles being filled by Marguerite Simonson, Sylvia Mickelson, Doris Hostvet and James Borreson.

Preceding the play the high school clarinet ensemble played a group of selections under the direction of Glendon Ahre, while between the acts Edward Peterson, a member of the ensemble, gave a solo accompanied on the piano by his mother, Mrs. E. O. Peterson.

Called on for a talk, Roy Dunn expressed his faith in the system of political parties as a means of carrying on a sustained program. Pointing out that sentiment is not yet crystallized on any one Republican candidate for the presidency, he urged that the Minnesota delegation to the national convention be uninstructed.

John Padden of Crookston spoke in criticism of the lack of effective party organization in the district, as well as the need for greater financial support. A motion made by him was adopted, giving the district committee authority to assess the various counties on the basis of $5 for each delegate to the district convention. At the close of the meeting Chairman Lundgren was given a rising vote of thanks for the efficient manner in which he had conducted the business of the convention.

TIME TO PREPARE

There can no longer be any question as to the seriousness of the situation in Europe. A war that may change the course of events in the entire world is now definitely in progress. The preliminaries are over. The death struggle is on. Out of the struggle there may emerge a victor. Or the struggle may result in victory for none, but devastation and chaos for all.

If there is a victory it may be for a power that is not now a part of the struggle. Germany may subdue the allies and wreck the British Empire. But Germany is not the only nation that seeks a place in the sun. England and France are not her only rivals. A victorious Germany may be an exhausted Germany and an easy prey for a fresh adversary. No one can foretell what will happen but certainly the outlook is discouraging. This war may solve a few problems but for each problem it solves it will create ten new ones.

There was a time, possibly, when the influence of our country might have averted the disaster. Like most of the democracies not directly involved in the argument however, we decided on a course of strict neutrality, hoping that by deserting our friends we would satisfy our enemies, and thus be permitted to live at peace forevermore. Now, one by one, our friends, the democracies of the world, large and little, are crumbling under the pressure of the dictators. Soon we may find ourselves in a position that should please the isolationists—truly isolated. We will stand alone, pledged to protect a rich but weak and underpopulated continent from a poor but strong and overpopulated world that is dominated by a few Napoleons and Caesars.

It is not a pretty picture. Perhaps it is all a bit fantastic. The present facts may not justify us in classifying such a prospect as a probability. But it certainly is a possibility, enough of a possibility to arouse us from our sluggish stupor. We should know by now that merely the desire to live peacefully will not keep us from becoming involved in war. We need to be prepared for the worst.

In recent years there has been much talk of social security—a thing universally desired. Recent developments in the world suggest that before long our real social security may depend on the effectiveness of our military organization. Whether we wish it or not we must take immediate steps toward the reorganization of our country as a military machine, a military machine so highly mechanized and so efficient that it will be feared as well as respected by would-be world rulers.

To convert the energies of our country from peaceable pursuits to preparation for war will involve sacrifices. It will mean greatly increased expenditures which should be paid, not by borrowing, but by increased taxation.

It will mean disagreeable adjustments in the living standards of the people who will have to deny themselves luxuries in order that the nation may pay for military necessities. The transition will not be pleasant but it is better that we sacrifice a few comforts now than to lose our liberties later.

Proper action was taken by the school board at its meeting Monday night when the members decided to have a thorough investigation made of the structural hazards of the Washington school. The recent report of a representative of the state fire marshal's office, in which the building was declared unsafe, leaves no other course open. The state official may have been mistaken. His conclusions were based on observations made during a short inspection. But he may have been right. The way to find out is to have a competent construction doctor give the old building a thorough physical examination. Then we will know the facts and when we know the facts we will be in a better position to discuss the problem intelligently.

Relief funds for the victims of war are being solicited. The American Red Cross has issued a call for a special fund of ten million dollars. Other campaigns for money for particular relief purposes are being conducted. A special drive is now under way in our community to secure help for the people of Norway. No one will question the need for assistance under the present circumstances. As time goes on there will be more calls for help. The American people have always given generously to aid the distressed at home and abroad and America will respond again.

HAZEL

Janice Lee, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Erickson, was taken to Thief River Falls Friday evening to get medical attention for a cut on the arm received when she fell on a newly sharpened axe. The cut was bandaged and taped and little Janice seems no worse for the accident.

LOCAL BALL CLUB PLAYS CCC TEAM HERE ON SUNDAY

Defeat Warren Last Sunday 6 to 3 in Pre-Season Contest

In preparation for their Northern Minnesota league opener here next Sunday, when the locals play the CCC camp, Thief River Falls last Sunday defeated Warren 6 to 3 in a game played on the fair grounds diamond.

The locals opened the game's scoring in the 2nd inning when Stan Cockrell, who had reached second base on a fielder's choice and a stolen base, was driven across the plate on "Rollie" Bergstrom's sharp single to left. And in the 4th inning Thief River salted away the game, with Wally DuChamp's single, a base on balls to Cockrell, Bergstrom's single, Roy Lee's single, and Johnny Jaranson's high fly which fell safe for a double, and an error, accounting for five tallies.

Warren broke into the scoring column in the 6th when Howard, who had smashed a long triple to right field, was punched home by Willey's single over third base. In the 8th two singles, an infield out, and a wild pitch gave the Warrens their final two runs.

Hemmy Sahl on the mound for the local team pitched creditable ball, collecting 11 strike-outs; but he issued four bases on balls and allowed nine hits.

Nagurski Shows Too Much Power for Moen

A large crowd was in attendance at the Auditorium last Thursday night to witness the Athletic Association wrestling program, and they saw Bronko Nagurski continue on his comeback campaign toward a return match with champion Ray Steele, by applying a toe-hold on his short, chunky opponent, Andy Moen, and forcing Moen to concede the fall and the match after 22 minutes of wrestling. Nagurski, who appeared tired, having wrestled the previous night at St. Louis, had altogether too much strength for the shorter Moen. Andy would apply a hold, adjust his leverage, and turn on the power, and Bronko would break these holds as if they were crepe paper.

In the semi-windup, Abe Kashey out-roughed and out-punched his lighter opponent Bob Foster, to win his match. Kashey, a noted 'villain' in wrestling circles, resorted to his usual foul tactics, and drew the boos of the crowd with his rough stuff.

In the second preliminary match with Roy Graham and Stan Myslajek as opponents, Graham, a mustachioed 'villain' who was continually bawling to the referee about Myslajek's foul wrestling, won the one-fall bout by applying numerous head-locks on his young Polish-American rival and then using body slams to weaken Myslajek. At one time Graham and Myslajek faced off in the center of the ring and exchanged punches, but without doing too much damage to each other.

Harold Stroble, a young 168 pound wrestler from Angus who has shown here before, made short shrift of his Dakota opponent in the preliminary match, applying a short arm scissors and winning the fall in seven minutes.

Larry Berg, recreational supervisor at the Middle River CCC camp, had four boys from the camp on the program, opening the show with two interesting and entertaining boxing matches.

County Auditor Senstad Arranges with Stores to Issue Fishing Licenses

With the pike fishing season opening yesterday, approximately 150 fishing licenses had been issued up to Tuesday from the office of County Auditor A. M. Senstad. Mr. Senstad stated that licenses also are available locally at Montgomery Wards, Kelly Hardware, Oens, Gamble Store and Woolworths, as well as from O. Gunstad at St. Hilaire and Stephen Singer at Goodridge. While licenses must be procured in the fishermen's home county, Mr. Senstad has made arrangements to issue licenses to Marshall county residents.

Wrestling Program

The gross receipts from last Thursday's wrestling program amounted to 676 dollars. A net profit of 105 dollars came into the Athletic Association treasury after 461 dollars in expenses were deducted. The expense bill breaks down into the following items: to Tony Stecher, agent for Nagurski, Moen, Graham, Myslajek, and Foster, 338 dollars; to Jack Sampson, referee, 15 dollars; government tax, 42 dollars; and promotional expense, 66 dollars. Promoter Bill LaFave is to be congratulated on the success of the program.

Hockey Club Deficit

Applying the 105 dollar wrestling card profit, and the 22 dollar profit from the dance, on the 635 dollar hockey deficit will bring that deficit down to about 417 dollars. That's the way to chop down deficits.

Notes on Bronko Nagurski

He's only 31 years old. So why should he retire? When he does decide to retire from the wrestling game he will go into business in International Falls. He has just built a home on Rainy Lake, three miles from International Falls. It was in 1926 that he was graduated from Bemidji high school. Did not play any football while at Bemidji, because he did not fulfill the residence requirement, having lived there only six months. The 1933 Chicago Bears, the pro outfit, was the best team with which he ever played; and Dutch Clark, the quarterback of the Detroit Lions, the best player that he ever saw. 5,000 dollars was the highest wage that he ever received for a season's play in pro football. But it must be remembered that he had his heyday during the depression years, and that the pro salary scale has increased greatly since then. There was better money in football than in wrestling. He smokes a pipe.

He has twice been world's heavy weight wrestling champion; having defeated Dean Detton in Minneapolis, and then losing the title to Jim Londos; and regaining the title by defeating Lou Thesz in Houston, Texas, and then losing the championship to Ray Steele, the present titleholder, some months ago. The Chicago Bears ran their plays from a 'T' formation. The 1934 Minnesota team could have defeated the 1927 Minnesota team, but only for the reason that the '34 team had the better balanced backfield, and more backfield reserves. The two lines were just about at a stand-off. His weight while at Minnesota ranged from 207 pounds in his sophomore year, to 218 pounds when a senior. Still likes football, and George Halas, the owner-coach of the Chicago Bears, continues to dangle offers in front of the Bronk. But he hasn't enough speed in his legs to play in the backfield. He had wrestled Everett Marshall in St. Louis on Wednesday night, and it was necessary for him to take a plane to Minneapolis, and then a fast drive up here to be on time for the match Thursday night. He got about 70 dollars for the match. He had more fun playing in the backfield than in the line.

Baseball

Here's an incident that happened during the pre-game warm-up at the ball game Sunday. Harold Stroble, the Warren manager, was pitching to his team, in batting practice, and one of his rookies was at bat. After hitting three or four balls, Harold shouted to him to 'Lay it down', meaning that the batter should lay down a bunt. Imagine Stroble's surprise, and I thought he was going to explode, when the batter turned around and laid the bat down in the batter's box!

Don't forget the Northern Minnesota baseball league opener here next Sunday. The locals play the CCC team, at the Fair Grounds.

CROOKSTON NOSES OUT PROWLERS IN DIST. TRACK MEET

Win by Narrow Margin in Annual Event Saturday in Grand Forks

Running two teams in the half mile relay, the final event on the program, and winning a first place and a third place, the Crookston Pirates barely managed to scratch up enough points to displace the Thief River Falls Prowlers as the district champions in the track meet held at Grand Forks Saturday. The point totals were 59½ for Crookston, and 58 for Thief River Falls.

The Prowlers' Tommy Carlisle was the high point man for the meet, scoring 15½ points, to edge out Crookston's Erickson who collected 15 points. Tommy ran a first in the 440, a second place in the broad jump, a tie for second place in the high jump, and a third place in the 220 yard dash. Other first place winners for the Prowlers were Bill Claffy in the 200 yard low hurdles, Don Olson in the half mile run, and Bob Rose in the high jump.

Track-men who placed third or better in the district meet are eligible to participate in the regional tournament, which will be held in Bemidji, on the State Teachers College field on Friday, and coach Lindemeyer said that the following Prowlers would be entered in the regional: Don Olson, Tommy Carlisle, Bill Claffy, Wayne Bredeson, Bruce Biddick, Bob Rose, Buster Anderson, Cliff Thomas and Bud Froseth.

The summary:

FARMS OWNED BY STATE ARE BEING SOLD AT FAST RATE

George Jones, Conservator, Says 28 County Farms Sold This Year

Sweeping ahead on the crest of a rising demand for Minnesota farms, the Minnesota rural credit department already has sold 550 farms for a total of $1,367,289 this year, or twice as many as in the first four months of 1939, George C. Jones, conservator of rural credits, reported this week.

With the best part of the selling season still ahead, Jones expects the department to sell another 1,000 farms before the year ends. The number of farms owned by the state had been reduced to 3,006 by May 1st, he reported.

Much of the credit for the growing interest in the purchase of Minnesota farm lands, Jones said, has been due to the response to an advertising campaign carried on through rural newspapers of the state and the helpful co-operation of publishers, business men and farmers in many communities who have joined enthusiastically as volunteers in the effort to get the state lands in their communities back into the hands of farmer owners. Restoration of the state lands to private ownership has become in many places a community undertaking, he pointed out.

Pennington county, in particular, has benefitted from the efforts to dispose of state farms, Jones' report disclosed. Since the first of the year, the department has sold 28 farms, embracing 4,699 acres, in this county for $55,560. The average price per acre was $11.82. The rural credit department sold 48 farms, including 7,858 acres, in Pennington county last year for $90,560. This means that the state has disposed of 76 farms in this county in the last sixteen months for almost $147,000. Property has been placed back on the taxrolls which should produce close to $4,500 in taxes, which will relieve that much the burden on property owners throughout the county.

LOSS FROM STATE LABOR DISPUTES REDUCED BY HALF

Governor Stassen Discusses Operation of Labor Relations Act

Picturing results obtained through the peaceful settlement of labor disputes under Minnesota's new labor relations law, Governor Harold E. Stassen in a capitol conference broadcast this past week pointed out that loss in wages to workers in Minnesota as a result of labor disputes was less than half as great in 1939 as in 1938.

"Statistics issued by the U. S. Department of labor show that, exclusive of the WPA difficulty, the loss through labor disputes in the nation as a whole almost doubled in 1939 compared to 1938," the governor reported. "Meanwhile, the loss in Minnesota was cut down to a point where it was less than half the loss in 1938.

"In other words, while the national figures were increasing, we in Minnesota cut down upon our loss through these difficulties by over 80,000 days of work, saving over a quarter of a million dollars in wages to the workingmen and their families and saving a loss also to business and the general public. No wonder individual workmen and their families appreciate this new law and the fairness with which it is being administered. No wonder other states are beginning to study it."

Governor Stassen said that the law had been administered in the interest of the people as a whole and that it had become a part of the program of the whole people.

610,000 State Citizens Fished During Past Year, Report by Strunk Shows

Fishing leads all other Minnesota sports in popularity, the state game and fish division announced today, with 610,000 resident participants in the past year. Resident fish license sales during 1939 were 610,019—a record high. In addition, 80,569 non-residents purchased licenses. Conservation Commissioner W. L. Strunk compared the sport of fishing in Minnesota with other conventional sports and found the latter far behind. "The number of licensed fishermen, you can see would fill to 10 times overflowing Memorial Stadium at the University of Minnesota. When we fill that for a single contest we regard it as an achievement," Strunk said.

4-H CLUB WEEK AT CROOKSTON IS SET FOR JUNE 10 TO 15

Varied Program Planned for Event on Campus of N. W. School

The annual 4-H Club Week to be held at the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston on June 10-15 will be of outstanding interest and value to 4-H club members, local and county leaders, according to Miss Anne Thorbeck, acting district leader of 4-H clubs.

Miss Thorbeck states that in addition to the members of the staff of the Northwest school, specialists from the 4-H club and general extension departments have been secured to adequately care for the more than five hundred expected in each of the two camp groups. Miss Thorbeck reports an unusually fine interest in the club group activities and that in some counties it is necessary to have two elimination contests to determine the county groups in music and one-act plays which will compete in the district finals at Crookston.

Contest features in class work during the club camps include 4-H club demonstrations, and judging of livestock, poultry and crops. Banners and loving cups will be awarded for the judging, music, one-act play, and athletic contests with ribbons and cash awards for the better groomed contests with a coveted sweepstakes banner for the county making the best record in all events.

Counties including East and West Polk, Mahnomen, Norman, Becker, Clay, East and West Ottertail will send club members to the camp June 10-12, inclusive; counties including Clearwater, Red Lake, Pennington, Marshall, Kittson, Roseau and Lake of the Woods will send the club members to the camp June 13-15.

Students Will Throng University Campus for Summer School Session

Coming from every section of Minnesota and probably from almost every state in the nation, approximately 7,000 persons, thousands of them school teachers, will spend five weeks at the University of Minnesota this year during one or the other of the two big summer sessions between June 17 and July 26 or July 29 and August 30.

Growing by slow degrees and at a healthy rate, Minnesota summer sessions have followed the regular sessions in gradual gains until the University of Minnesota now has the third largest summer attendance in the United States according to an estimate by its director, Professor Thomas A. H. Teeter.

Because summer school attendance is the principal route to professional improvement and vocational advancement pointed out to those whose winter business is teaching in elementary and high schools, the Minnesota summer sessions, like others, lays principal emphasis on special courses in education. In addition to specially arranged offerings in grade and high schools fields, Minnesota this summer will provide a "Workshop in Higher Education", aimed at giving assistance to teachers in colleges and universities, junior colleges and teachers colleges.

Speeders Head List as 166 Traffic Repeaters Lose License in April

One hundred and sixty-six "repeaters" who "thought they could get by with it once more" lost their driver's licenses during April for speeding, reckless driving and disobedience of stop signs and signals.

Forfeiting of the right to drive was in addition to fines or other penalties levied by the courts. Suspensions were in line with the state highway department's policy of suspending licenses of those convicted twice in a twelve-month period of offenses which have been shown to be the most common causes of serious traffic accidents.

In all, 251 motorists' driver's licenses were revoked last month, 198 of them for driving while under the influence of liquor. Another 213 drivers were placed under suspension for varying periods of time, making a total of 464 motorists who during the month forfeited the right to drive. Since January 1, 933 licenses have been revoked and 882 suspended.

Statewide Checkup of Drivers Licenses Set

Estimating that some 13,500 motorists who changed their addresses on May 1, "moving day" are now unwittingly driving without valid driver's licenses, the state highway department has set May 15 for the start of a statewide driver's license checkup. Both the drivers license bureau and highway patrol are cooperating in the drive, and the cooperation of local traffic and law enforcement officials is being sought, especially in larger cities where transfer and moving companies estimate that more than 40,000 persons have recently changed their residences. A license renewal is required within 15 days after any change of address.

Banff Springs Golf Legend

Indian legend placed a bad tempered Manitou in the lake that lies between tee and green on the short eighth hole of the Banff Springs golf course, in the Canadian Rockies. The golfer's version is that the Manitou exacts the first ball he drives as a tribute. The hole is known as the Devil's Cauldron and the nearest anyone has ever come to making an ace on it was five years ago when Donald Deyell, then chief clerk at the hotel, plunked his first drive into the lake and rolled the second into the cup. The Manitou is supposed to have laughed.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT BEER AND BREWING

THIS IS WHAT BEER IS MADE OF... Sunshine, water, malted grain—and hops for flavor. Converted into beer by a simple natural process. Mother Nature brews beer—that is why it is so wholesome.

PROVIDED BY U. S. FARMERS—23 BILLION POUNDS OF FARM PRODUCTS NEEDED BY BEER AND ALE. Since re-legalization, the brewing industry has bought this enormous quantity of produce from American farmers.

BEER AND ALE CONTRIBUTE $1,000,000 A DAY IN TAXES TO LOCAL, STATE, AND FEDERAL GOVERNMENTS. Or $400,000,000 a year! What would happen if there were no beer or ale to carry this enormous tax burden?

"THANKS FOR THE JOB!"...say 1,000,000 people put to work by beer and ale since their return. More than 100 other industries benefit from the making and sale of beer and ale.

BEER CAME OVER ON THE MAYFLOWER—Pilgrim records tell how the landing of the Mayflower was hastened because the Pilgrims ran short of supplies, "especially beer."

A NEW PLAN TO COOPERATE WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS. You will want to know about beer's new plan to "clean-up or close-up" retail establishments that permit abuses. This plan is in effect in a number of states. It is being extended. Ask us for free booklet. Write: United Brewers Industrial Foundation, 19 East 40th Street, New York, N. Y.

BEVERAGES FOR HOME ENTERTAINMENT. Always easy to serve, beer and ale are favored by many hosts and hostesses for home entertainment. Tasty, mild and wholesome—they are ideal beverages for moderation parties. MILD, WHOLESOME

Plummer 4 St. Hilaire 0

The Plummer Baseball team got off to an auspicious start on Sunday, May 12th by winning from St. Hilaire on the latter's field. Air tight pitching by Mortrude and capable fielding proved the margin of victory for the Plummer team. Plummer this season presents one of the strongest line-ups in this section of the state.

Sparked by Westrum, a fiery little catcher and a few additions to the aggregation and paced by capable and heady Earler Mortrude the Plummer boys are the team to beat in the Northern Minn. League this season.

The game of seven innings Sunday gave both teams a good opportunity to iron out the rough spots caused by lack of consistent practice due to wet spring and these two teams will put up as good a ball game as you will care to watch and from all indications the other four teams will be right up there battling all the way down the stretch and you fans will all have a chance to witness some very fine baseball right in your back yards.

For the opening game on the Plummer streamlined field grandstand dug-outs and the playing field throughly re-worked and second to none in this section, which is to be on May 26th at 2 p. m. with Thief River Falls the opposition. This assures you of a real game of ball.

A perusal of the following box score and summary of the game Sunday should convince you that you will see high class baseball in our league this season.

MODEL PLANE FLYS 19 MILES

Highland Village—Jesse Parson, Jr. was glad to get back his model plane after it had wandered nineteen miles from home. Wallace Gallagher, a farmer living two miles south of Minneapolis had discovered the plane in his field. He called the happy owner who had placed his name and telephone number on the plane's fuselage. The craft, a monoplane, had been caught by strong air currents and when it disappeared Larson said it was about 100 feet up and headed for ports unknown.

"So you're supposed to be Man's best friend!"

"Woof, woof, Old Hound. You must be sharing all of your master's burdens and cares. I'll bet he's the type that overworks and overworries—and gets nowhere. Now take my boss—he's plenty to do and plenty to think about. But you'll never find him trying to squeeze two days' work into one . . . or brooding over things that never happen. No sir; he's steady and cheerful—usually whistling when I meet him at the gate. And, when we go inside to the Mrs. and the kids, boy, is he welcome. He loves his home—and he loves to be host. He understands the meaning of hospitality . . . the good friends it attracts . . . the feeling of security his friends bring him. Why don't you chase over some time? It'll do you good to see the way we live."

PIKE FISHING NOW IS PERMITTED IN MINNESOTA LAKES

State Game and Fish Division Announces Catch Limits Fixed by Law

Gamey northern pike, wall-eyes and the battling muskellunge will lure Minnesota sportsmen into the outdoors this week-end for the premier of a fishing season expected to rank with the best. The season opened Wednesday.

Cold weather and the late spring, some division officials said, may slow the wall-eye catches somewhat in the northern lakes. In many northern waters the best pike fishing, they pointed out, occurs in late May in normal years.

Fish which may be taken in Minnesota beginning May 15 are pickerel or northern pike, wall-eyed pike, saugers or sand pike, and muskellunge.

The catch limit on pike is eight per day, while 16 allowed in possession; on northern pike eight per day, with 20 permitted in possession; and on muskellunge two per day and two allowed in possession.

Minnesota's fishing season will continue May 29 when the southern zone opens for sunfish, crappies and bass. The northern zone for these fish opens June 21.

Pan fish devotees who apply their drop line techniques on the interstate boundary portions of the St. Croix and Mississippi rivers will "get the jump" on other Minnesota anglers this season. Special interstate regulations permit the taking of sunfish and crappies beginning May 15. Black bass may not be taken in these waters until June 20.

Man Versus Machine

A modern linotype machine can set five times as much type today as a printer working by hand could in 1890, according to a recent survey. Yet there are now five times as many typesetters employed as 40 years ago.

WPA WORKERS ARE GETTING PRIVATE JOBS, SAYS STOLTE

Over 2100 Workers Leave the Rolls Voluntarily Each Month

A story of WPA workers constantly returning to private employment is told by figures released by S. L. Stolte, Minnesota state administrator of the Work Projects Administration. This employment data, he said, indicates that WPA does not have a "static" load but one that changes continually, with workers making an effort to private employment rather than remaining indefinitely on WPA.

During the 12 months ending in March there was a monthly average of 2,145 workers voluntarily leaving WPA in Minnesota. The great bulk of them gave private employment as their reason for leaving, although an average of 785 a month left for reasons which were classified as "unknown". Probably the greater part of these who left without explaining why, also went into private employment.

During the same period an average of 1,235 returned each month to WPA after a period in private employment, indicating that almost half of those who leave obtain work of a permanent nature.

At the same time, however, the number of those who need employment has not decreased to the same extent, Mr. Stolte pointed out. On November 1, 1939, 6,560 persons had been certified as in need and were awaiting assignment to WPA, while by May 1, 1940 the number had increased to 15,602. For the same dates the number at work on projects throughout the state had decreased slightly, from 43,078 to 42,543. Terminations because of the reduction in Minnesota's WPA quota will reduce this still further to an average of 38,100 at work during the month of May.

These terminations, which are due to the reduction in funds available for WPA, will undoubtedly mean an increase in the number of workers who are certified as in need but are unable to get jobs on WPA, Mr. Stolte said.

Seasick Fish

One of the latest discoveries in the field of oceanography, as reported by A. C. Weed of the Field Museum of Natural History, is that fish succumb, just as humans, to mal de mer or seasickness. Weed made the discovery in observing reaction of fish to the motion of a boat.

OPERATION REMOVES WIRE EATEN BY COW

Slayton —A fine young cow owned by Leon Johnson, near Hadley, was saved last week by an emergency operation performed by a local veterinarian. The cow refused to eat or drink for several days. The case was diagnosed as a foreign obstacle in its stomach and it was either a case of slow death, or an immediate operation. Mr. Johnson decided to take the chance and the operation was performed. An incision a foot long was made, after the animal was given anesthetic and the foreign obstacle turned out to be a piece of rusty wire about four inches long. The wire was removed, the stomach lining sewed up and the cow is now good as new.

WORKERS OVER 40 TOTAL 40 PCT. OF ALL UNEMPLOYED

State Employment Service Analyzes 150,200 Applicants for Jobs

Forty per cent of 150,200 persons in Minnesota who have asked the state employment service to help them find jobs, are over 40 years of age. This announcement was made in St. Paul by Victor Christgau, director of the division of employment and security, in connection with the observance of Employment Week, May 1 to 8, as proclaimed by President Roosevelt and Governor Harold E. Stassen, in which special consideration for idle workers over 40 is asked.

The largest single age group is that of persons between 25 and 29, which contains 15.4 per cent of the total. Mr. Christgau made the announcement as an additional contribution to factual material that is being given the public with respect to the general problem of unemployment in the state.

"From constantly increasing records maintained by the Division," he said, "we are accumulating facts about the phases of the problem with respect to which heretofore we have been obliged to guess.

Mr. Christgau emphasized that the 150,200 job-seekers are workers qualified for occupations to which they have been assigned by especially trained interviewers and are in no way related to classifications of persons receiving direct or work relief or unemployment compensation.

In promoting the 1940 Employment Week, emphasis is being placed on employer co-operation. Heretofore, similar "drives" have been somewhat restricted to urging jobless people, who had been continuously searching for work, to make a special effort.

The division of employment and security, Mr. Christgau explained, has as its first obligation, an effort to find, through the Employment Service, jobs for those who want work. Its supplementary activity, when employment cannot be found, is promptly to pay unemployment compensation benefits to idle workers who are able to qualify.

PARADE TO PARK WILL COMMENCE AT 10 A. M.

Graves Will be Decorated in Advance of Ceremonies by Committee

With the occasion made more significant by the past week's developments in the European war, Memorial Day next Thursday, May 30, will be observed locally with impressive exercises in the Elks park, following a parade to the park starting from the Auditorium at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Unlike in past years, there will be no procession to the cemeteries the graves of veterans being decorated in advance of the ceremonies by a committee under the direction of Alex Cloutier.

The committee in charge of the day's program today made a special request to operators of motor boats on the river that they stay away from the vicinity of the Elks park while the services are in progress, in order that the noise may not distract attention from the program.

Rites at the park, which will be conducted under the direction of Kern Olson, officer of the day, will open with selections by the municipal band, after which Rev. C. J. Cloutier will give the invocation. The speaker of the day, who will follow, will be Claire Brickner, Fargo attorney and World War veteran.

Assisted by a group of Boy and Girl Scouts, Dr. A. R. Hulbert will call the roll of departed veterans and will decorate small crosses set up in the park. The program will close with a solo, "God Bless America," by H. M. Hitterdal, accompanied by the band, following which taps will be sounded.

Alex Campbell, general chairman of the day's program, announced that Ward Long will serve as chairman of the parade which will leave the Auditorium for the park at 10 o'clock. Included in the line of march will be the Legion color guard, municipal band, Gold Star mothers, members of service organizations, Boy and Girl Scouts, Brownies and school children.

Seating facilities will be provided for the program in the park, Mr. Campbell stated. In the event of rain the services will be conducted in the Auditorium.

ALLIED FORCES HALT NAZI PUSH MOMENTARILY

Germain Armies Drive Forward Deep into France During Past Week

HITLER'S MEN ARRIVE NEAR CHANNEL PORTS

Nazis Conquer Holland and Take Over Most of Belgium

Following a week in which powerful mechanized German forces fought their way deep into France, the Allies, with swift counter-thrusts by land and air, Wednesday checked, momentarily at least, Adolph Hitler's two-pointed advance toward the English channel ports and Paris.

Among the day's developments were:

Britain made Prime Minister Winston Churchill virtual dictator through a swiftly enacted law conscripting British labor and property.

The British disclosed that they were flying some of their American-built bombers across the Atlantic from Canada in their desperate bid to overcome Nazi superiority in the air.

Pointing for the narrow straits of Dover and a short cut to England, the German armies of Flanders poured more men and guns into France, while giving the first official hint that their 13-day sweep through Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg and into northern France may have been slowed down.

Battice, the last of the great forts of Belgium's Liege defenses, fell to the Germans after a 20-minute air and artillery assault.

The Allies recaptured Arras and Abbeville, the latter the nearest point reached by the Germans in their channel drive, and took their main stand to halt the Nazis on a new 200-mile Allied line along the Somme and Aisne rivers.

Rumania called up 300,000 reserves and rushed most of them to the Russian frontier in fear of an impending Soviet march into Bessarabia. The move placed the oil-wealthy Balkan kingdom on a virtual wartime mobilization.

Family Reunion to Be Held June 23d In Thief River Falls

At a number of small family gatherings of the Newton, Halvorson, Olson and Brattland families residing in this locality last summer plans were made for a larger family reunion to be held this coming June. A committee has been named and preparations are under way.

The four branches of this family group are decendants of three daughters and one son, children of Aanund and Kjersti Mikkelson-Brattland. They came from Setesdalen, Norway in 1845, first settling in Wisconsin and then moving to Waseca, Minnesota from whence most of the group came to the Red River Valley in the early eighties.

The second daughter Ingeborg married Halvor Halvorson, a Telemarken, and most of their children are residents of Marshall and Pennington counties. The Halvorsons constitute the largest branch of this group.

The youngest daughter Jorond married Bjorguiv Olson and their children and decendants are scattered far and wide.

The only son was Mikkel Brattland and he married Ingeborg Straume from Hyllestad. Their decendants reside in the Red River Valley, mostly in Norman County.

A joint committee to make arrangements for the annual family reunion of all these branches on June 23 at Thief River Falls has been named and they are contacting as many as possible of all the families. The following were named as a committee: Mrs. Evelyn Halvorson Shern of Viking, Mrs. Anna Newton of McIntosh, Mrs. Ida Halvorson Lee of Thief River Falls, Mrs. Julia Eggen of Cottonwood, S. Dak., and Mrs. Isabel Swenson of Ada.

It is hoped that all members of the families interested will communicate with some member of the committee. If those living at a distance will notify a committee member accommodations can be provided. The reunion will be held at the Sons of Norway Hall.

GERMAN FORCES MAKE WIDE ADVANCE INTO FRANCE DURING WEEK

Last week saw the Dutch royal family in flight from their ancient homeland; it saw President Roosevelt calling on this country to prepare as never before, and grimly warning the western hemisphere that its way of life may be threatened; it saw the New York stock market fluctuating wildly; it saw nations frantically preparing to defend themselves and cringing under the fear of invasion; it saw homeless, destitute refugees cluttering the roads of western Europe.

On Tuesday the battle lines formed on the French frontier and it was evident the Germans intended to turn the Maginot line.

Holland capitulated and the Dutch commander-in-chief called on his troops to surrender. Only Zeeland province remained to the Dutch.

"The Battle of the Meuse" started on Wednesday. South of Sedan the Germans penetrated 10 miles into the outer defenses at the end of the main Maginot line and crossed the Meuse at several points.

Berlin boasted that possession of the Dutch air bases placed their planes "nearer to England's heart".

It was a black Friday for the allies. The Germans penetrated deeply through the French line on a 62-mile front in the Sedan sector towards Soissons. They captured Brussels, Louvain, Malines and Namur.

Local Resident Charged With Felonious Assault

Leif Erickson of this city was arrested Tuesday on a charge of felonious assault alleged to have been committed against Christian Steen, elderly farmer, Saturday evening in the Tiny Tavern. Mr. Steen, who was knocked down in the fracas and sustained a head injury, yesterday was reported to be in critical condition. The hearing in the case has been adjourned until next week and Erickson was released on $500 bonds.

Official Paper of Pennington County and City of Thief River Falls

We were not greatly impressed when Poland crumbled under the Nazi "blitzkreig" attack. It was the expected thing. Neither did the speedy conquest of Denmark and Norway add to our respect for the Hitler machine as a military organization. The bungling of the Allies and deceit and treachery employed so effectively by the Nazis seemed to be the outstanding features of the Norwegian campaign, all more or less disgusting. But now that the blitzkrieg army has swept through Holland, Belgium and northern France, overcoming strongly fortified positions and apparently demoralizing the well trained and well equipped forces of an enemy that was prepared for the attack, we will no longer question the power of Hitler's military machine. The bewildered Allies are not yet beaten. Certainly the scattered Nazi forces are not in a strong defensive position and if the Allies are able to coordinate their attack it is possible that they may convert a rout into a decisive victory. But there is little justification for such a hope. The odds now favor Hitler. Certainly he now is more of a menace to the peace of the world than before. Necessity, if not inclination, now compels our country to arm.

Now we are entering that delightful season of the year when we can start worrying about the crops. Fortunately however, this is not a one crop territory. The products upon which we depend mainly for our support come from livestock and poultry. Other sources of farm income are important of course but as farming communities go we probably have less to worry about than most of them.

Census figures for this corner of the state are most encouraging. Thief River Falls is not the only town that shows a substantial increase in population. As far as we have been able to learn, nearly all of the smaller towns in this territory have gained during the past ten years and the farm population is expected to show a proportionate increase. The figures indicate that Thief River Falls has not grown at the expense of other towns but rather with them. There have been adjustments in business relationships, caused largely by good roads and automobiles, that have brought about a greater concentration of some lines of business in towns like this that are favorably located to serve a large area. Such adjustments are taking place over the entire country. But the smaller towns are not necessarily doomed because of that tendency. There still is an economic as well as a social need for the smaller community centers. The census figures indicate that practically all these community centers, large and small, in this corner of the state are making progress and that is most encouraging.

If local residents do not get speedy delivery service it is not the fault of the fellows who drive the delivery trucks for they certainly get all the speed their trucks are capable of producing as they race through the streets and alleys. Some do not drive as fast as others of course. A few even slow down for curves. But in fairness to all it must be said that none of them hold up traffic and we think they should be commended for their willingness to risk life and limb in their eagerness to please the customers. We would suggest however that in the interests of safety it might be well if the use of the streets by delivery trucks be limited to certain hours of the day. During these designated hours the public would not be permitted to venture out except in case of emergency. At all other times of course the trucks would be expected to reduce their speed to the prescribed limits. The only alternative, as we see it, is to ask the housewives to get their orders in a couple of minutes earlier. Then the drivers will not feel so badly about slowing down to normal speeds.

With pardonable pride we pass along the voluntary testimonial of C. A. Smith of the Grygla community. Some of Smith's cattle left home. We don't know why. There may have been words but that isn't important. Smith was very fond of the cattle and did not want them to stray, so he set out in search of them. He searched everywhere thruout the east country and inquired of everyone but to no avail. Then he journeyed to Thief River and invested a quarter in a Times ad. "Come home cattle, all is forgiven." The ad clicked. When Smith arrived at the farm that evening, there in the barnyard were his cattle. "Quite a remarkable service", said Smith when he complimented us on the results. "Quite the usual thing," we snapped back, "they always bring results." "That may all be," said Smith, "but it's quite remarkable nevertheless. You see it was on a Wednesday that I ordered the ad, and Wednesday night the cattle were home." Think of that folks, for two bits an ad that drags 'em in even before the great family journal is off the press. That's that. The ad man will pay us for this plug. We put it in this column because nobody takes this column seriously anyway.

Boy, wouldn't it be wonderful if folks who blurt out exactly what they mean would occasionally think of something that isn't mean.—Baudette Region.

1940 Corn Growing Contest

We feel that corn is now an important crop in this section. We are very much interested in our local corn crops and want to do something to encourage the growing of more corn and better corn.

We believe that we lost out on a very important and valuable crop for this section when we stepped out of the sugar beet crop.

We also believe that the sweet clover crop is overdone and is now coming to the point of danger in damage to our section of the country.

Corn has already proved a money making crop and surely a step in the right direction for improved fields and yields.

We have no selfish motive in this deal, but the satisfaction of having done something to encourage a farm program worth while.

We do not care to make any rigid rules to this contest, but shall appreciate if all who are interested will register names at our office, so that perhaps a tour of inspection might be made during the summer and in that way exchange ideas and methods of cultivation, etc., between the growers.

A date will be set this fall for making awards, dividing the $50.00 into several prizes. If a corn husking contest is held, it would perhaps be a good time for making the awards. Otherwise, we shall be glad to arrange a special program at our place, with perhaps a showing of home movies at the time to add to the interest.

We feel that it is fair to expect anyone entering the contest to plant not less than five acres.

That all entering must check-row the corn planted entered in the contest.

That a matter of six ears be required for the entry at time of awards.

Anyone within the trade territory of Thief River Falls may enter the contest.

We shall appreciate if you will fill in the following blank and mail to us if interested.

Four Doubles Feature Local Win over CCC

Pounding pitchers Stockland and Halvorson for 12 hits, and sending 11 runs across the plate, Thief River Falls opened its Northern Minnesota baseball league schedule with a convincing 11 to 3 victory over the CCC Camp team in a game played here last Sunday.

Lenny Helquist, pitching for the locals, hurled steady ball, and he was given splendid support by his mates, particularly by his infield. Four times during the game the infield snapped through a double play. In the second inning, with a man on first, Johnny Jaranson scooped up a ground ball, flipped it to shortstop Roy Lee for the force at second, and Roy pegged the ball to Stan Cockrell at first for the double. In the fourth inning, with men on second and first, Lee ran into short left field and made a fine catch of a low looping fly and then pivoted and whipped the ball to Jaranson to double a man off second.

In the fifth, with a man on first, Lee grabbed a grounder, tossed to Jaranson at second for the force out, and Johnny threw the ball to Cockrell at first to complete the double. And in the sixth, with first and third occupied, Jaranson stopped a hard hit, made the throw to Lee who covered second, and Roy snapped the ball to Cockrell, and the fourth double play was completed. In the outfield, Jim LaFave playing in right field, made a leaping catch of Stockland's long and hard-hit drive in the 7th inning. Jim tumbled to the ground as he made his catch, but he managed to hang on to the ball.

The locals opened the scoring by getting two markers in the first inning. Roy Lee walked, stole second, and was sent home by Rasmussen's double. Rasmussen scored a moment later, when taking third on a passed ball, he came home on Bromberg's fly to left field. The locals added two more runs to their total in the third inning when Bob DuChamp's sharp single to right tallied Wally DuChamp and Bing Bergstrom. And in the fourth inning Thief River put the game on ice, when three hits, by Lee, Bergstrom, and Helquist, a walk, and two errors, gave them five runs. The local boys closed out their scoring with two runs in the fifth, on an error, a walk, Rasmussen's single, and Johnny Jaranson sacrifice bunt.

Next Sunday Thief River Falls will travel to Plummer where they will meet manager Krueger's highly-touted and gold-plated nine.

NORTHERN MINNIE LEAGUE STARTED SCHEDULE SUNDAY

Thief River Falls, Plummer and St. Hilaire Win First Games

The Standings

	W	L	Pct
Thief River Falls	1	0	1,000
Plummer	1	0	1,000
St. Hilaire	1	0	1,000
Red Lake Falls	0	1	.000
Middle River CCC	0	1	.000
Oklee	0	1	.000

Results last Sunday:
Middle River CCC, 3; at Thief River Falls, 11.
Plummer, 2; at Oklee 0.
Red Lake Falls, 0; at St. Hilaire 12.

Last Sunday's games saw Plummer, Thief River Falls, and St. Hilaire open their Northern Minnesota league schedules with victories.

Hemmy Sahl, pitching for Oklee, and Mortrude of Plummer hooked up in a fine pitching duel at Oklee last Sunday, with Mortrude holding Oklee to 4 hits and winning a 2 to 0 decision. Sahl allowed Plummer only 7 hits, but was given ragged support, and neither of runs scored by Plummer were earned.

Woody Almquist's long homerun, that nearly blasted the roof off the high school building, and with the bases filled, was the feature of St. Hilaire's 12 to 0 shutout of Red Lake Falls.

Four double plays by the infield, high-lighted the locals easy 11 to 3 win over the Middle River CCC. Playing as they did Sunday Thief River Falls will have the finest defensive outfit in the league.

Next Sunday's schedule has Thief River Falls playing at Plummer, Middle River CCC at Red Lake Falls, and Oklee at St. Hilaire.

SPORTS Tid-Bits

By Huck Olson

Baseball

The ball team looked pretty good in its opening game. Not very heavy at the plate, but they were plenty nimble in the field. Hemmy Sahl, who has been doing the hurling for the locals, was pitching for Oklee, so Thief River had to scratch up another pitcher. T. W., the manager, dug into the bat sack and came up with Len 'Sinker Ball' Helquist; and Lenny proceeded to astound the $10 cash crowd by pitching a 9 hit and 3 run ball game. And at least three of those hits were of the 'scratch hit' variety. In fact, not until he began to tire in the 3rd inning, were the CCC boys able to hit the ball out of the infield.

It would perhaps be of interest to his many fans if I recited Wally DuChamp's batting record in last Sunday's game. In the 1st inning he struck out, looking like a fellow that was casting for black bass; in the 3rd inning he reached first when shortstop Bakko bobbled his easy bounder; in the 4th, the popped a weak pop to the pitcher; in the 5th, he was out on an anemic looper to the second baseman; and in the 8th, he hit a foul pop fly to the first baseman. It was a sad afternoon; and what makes it particularly sad is the fact that his kid brother, Bobby, slashed out 2 hard singles in 2 trips to the plate, and drove in 2 runs, while he, Wally, who's supposed to be the slugger of the DuChamp trio of ball players, couldn't get the ball out of the infield in 5 times at bat.

Fishing

The wall-eyed pike fishing in the pool above the dam has been very spotty. But that is to be expected of the wall-eyes, who are a school fish. I was up at Wheeler's Point last Friday, fishing in the channel off the light-house. Caught a one-day's limit in about 2 hours, using a June Bug or Prescott spinner and shiner minnows. The pike were mostly small males, about a pound and a half in weight, and caught in about eight or ten feet of water.

Diamondball

The diamondball situation is becoming serious. A field had been planned for the East Side recreational center, but objections of nearby residents put a crimp in those plans. The latest proposal is to construct a field on the old mill-yard, across from the dam, and that wouldn't be a bad spot.

The guy that is most excited about the diamondball problem is Walt Larson of the Land O'Lakes. And for the reason that his firm has invested 60 bucks in pants for his diamondball team. And what's the good of having diamondball pants, and no place to play diamondball? According to Walt, if the worst comes to worst, and that means if there is no diamondball this year, Walt plans on organizing his team into a drum and bugle corps. He's going to make some use of these green pants.

Track

The regional track meet at Bemidji [illegible] followed the pattern of the regional meets held the past five or six years, and that pattern finds Park Rapids as the regional champions. They had quite a scrap, though, before they nosed out our district champions, Crookston, by 7½ points, with Park Rapids totaling 38½ points to the Pirates 31 points.

MOVE TO PREVENT FURTHER DECLINE IN GRAIN PRICES

Action Follows Thirty Cent Slump in Wheat Prices in Six Days

The Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce acted over the past week-end to halt the sensational plunge of grain futures prices which followed European war developments.

In an emergency move simultaneous with like action taken by the Chicago Board of Trade and the grain futures markets at Duluth and Kansas City, the chamber prohibited trading in all grain futures at prices below the closing levels of Saturday.

Concerted action by the four futures exchanges at special meetings yesterday came at the request of Henry Wallace, secretary of agriculture, who asked setting of price minimums to prevent "further price disturbance from current war developments."

In Chicago, wheat had dived more than 30 cents in six days as the German army thrust into western Europe.

Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce officials said the minimum price order, effective immediately, was unprecedented in that it sets a "floor" for grain futures prices but permits prices to rise the full limit for each day's fluctuations. In other words, prices cannot drop below Saturday's closing figure, but they may go up the daily limit set by previous regulation. In the case of wheat, which has been subject to a maximum 10-cent rise or drop, the 10-cent rise is still permissible.

Sheep Men Invited to N. W. School June 12

A sheep shearing demonstration and training school will be a feature of the 4-H Club Week to be held at the Northwest School at Crookston on June 10-15. W. E. Morris, livestock specialist of the Minnesota Agricultural Extension Division, will be in charge of the demonstration and school. E. S. Bartlett of Chicago, a professional sheep shearer, will demonstrate sheep shearing and give instructions to six or eight selected students. A general invitation is extended by Superintendent T. M. McCall of the Northwest School to all sheep men in the territory to attend the demonstration. The demonstration will be held on Tuesday, June 12, starting promptly at 8:30 a. m.

Minnesota Citizens Collect 56 Million from Life Insurance

Every day in 1939 life insurance policyholders and beneficiaries in Minnesota were paid $153,149, or a total of $55,900,000 for the year and $21.08 for every man, woman and child, according to a special compilation released today by the National Underwriter, weekly insurance newspaper.

Minnesota ranked 14th in life insurance payments among all states and is 19th in size of population. Payments showed an increase of $2,100,000 over 1938, or 4 per cent.

Ordinary life insurance in force in Minnesota totals $1,683,635,000 on 814,531 policies or $635 per capita. The average size policy in force is $2,067, average new policy sold in 1939 being $1,870.

Confiscated Gun Sale Nets State Sum of $3,879

A record breaking $3,879 was taken from the sale of confiscated guns and fishing tackle at the recent state game and fish division sale. This compared with $1,066 taken at the annual disposal one year ago. Prices paid averaged $11.10 per gun at this sale compared with $7 a year ago. Officials attributed the higher revenue to a new rigid policy of "no returns" of confiscated weapons to owners before the sale. Owners must bid them back at open auction under new rules.

Minnesota University Will Graduate 2500 at Ceremonies June 15th

Approximately 2500 new graduates variously bearing all of the degrees in the gift of the institution ranging from bachelor of science or arts to doctor of philosophy will receive diplomas at the sixty-eighth annual commencement exercises of the University of Minnesota the evening of Saturday, June 15. The ceremonies will be attended by some 20,000 people, thousands of whom will be the relatives and friends of the graduates. The Minnesota commencement has come to be one of the big, colorful pageants of the year in Minneapolis and draws many who have no immediate, personal interest.

A man who has been associated with the university of fifty years will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in Northrop Memorial Auditorium the morning of Sunday, June 9. He is Dr. John Walker Powell, who entered Minnesota in the autumn of 1890 after spending a year at Hamline. Dr. Powell was graduated in 1893. Subsequently he has held pastorates in Duluth and Minneapolis and has spent much of his life in the employ of the university.

Alumni Day, when graduates flock back to the campus to renew acquaintance with beloved scenes and old friends, will be Friday, June 14. Each year the classes that have been out for multiples of five years hold special celebrations, and this year this will mean classes whose years end in "5" and in "0". The fifty-year classes, to whose members special honors will be shown, is that of 1890, and the twenty-five year class, holding a silver jubilee meeting, is that of 1915. E. B. Pierce, secretary of the General Alumni Association, is looking for a record attendance at the alumni dinner that night.

Summer Concerts Slated to Start in Minneapolis

As was the case last year, the concerts will be under the joint sponsorship of the Minneapolis Orchestral association and the tourist and publicity committee of the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association and will be given Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights for four weeks.

A shining example of old-fashioned simplicity is an unpowdered nose.

He had deposited some valuable papers, proof of his army service, in a home town bank. In some way the papers were lost and Mr. Thomas was inconvenienced in proving his service record. Recently the safety deposit boxes were wrecked when another firm took over the old bank building and among the articles found were Mr. Thomas' papers.

Worthy of mention is the efficient "self-government" enjoyed by the pupils the past few weeks before the close of school. This "self-governing" club was ruled by various committees who took charge of housekeeping, playground activities, and spring "clean up". Each committee posted "laws" to help carry out their work and anyone who broke any regulation twice was arrested and "tried" by a committee of three pupils who acted as judges. Arthur Larson was president, Maurice Stenseth was secretary, and Helen Hardisty was vice president. Maurice was also the cop on the "beat."

Nature study held a great interest for the pupils this spring. The nature table to which varied objects contributed consisted of snails, clams, snapping turtle, cocoons, moths, crabs, etc. Several pupils tried raising flowers from slips with great success. Helen Hardisty's science seed experiment now is a fine patch of beans with string beans an inch long.

THE FORD WAY OF DOING BUSINESS

The Ford Motor Company was founded by a working-man for working-men. Its present officers began as employees of the Company. It was the first company to pay a minimum wage, beginning in 1914, at the then astounding figure of $5 a day. That was double the prevailing wage of the time. The Ford minimum is now $6 a day for all employees engaged in production work. And from that, the wages rise to $10.80 a day, with the average wage $7.25, exclusive of salaried employees.

The Ford Motor Company was the first large company to establish the 8-hour day—also in 1914. And the 40-hour week was inaugurated by the Ford Motor Company in 1926, years before any such laws existed.

The Ford Motor Company employs men without regard to race, creed or color. It is common knowledge that working conditions in the Ford shops are the best that science and constant care can make them. A square deal, a just wage and stabilized employment for a large proportion of our employees—and as fully stabilized for all as conditions will permit—enable our men to retain their personal independence.

In consequence of these policies the Ford Motor Company has one of the finest bodies of employees in the world. The larger proportion are mature men of long service with the Company—sober, decent family men. Hundreds of them have been with the Company for more than 25 years—thousands for more than 15 years. Their health record, home ownership and citizenship records are good.

All this is reflected in Ford products, whether cars, trucks or tractors. The work is honestly done. Materials are the best that can be made or procured. Less profit to the Company and more value to the customer is known throughout the motoring world as "Ford's way of doing business."

Henry Ford and Edsel Ford keep daily personal touch with all phases of Ford manufacture. In a conference with his staff, Henry Ford often says: "Go ahead—I'll sit here and represent the public."

Ford Motor Company was the first to make a motor car within the means of the average family—quitting the manufacture of what was then the largest selling model in the world to do so. Its chosen field in all the 30 years since that time has been the average American family—for which it has consistently provided car facilities which formerly only the wealthy could buy.

It is the policy of the Ford Motor Company to share the benefits of advanced methods and management with workers and public alike. Increased wages and employment over a period of many years have resulted in

A 100 per cent increase in the built-in value of the Ford car and a 75 per cent reduction in its price.

ROAD DEPARTMENT SEEKS BIDS ON 37 MILES OF PAVING

State Will Build 60-Foot Concrete Span North of Plummer

Marking the largest single letting of state trunk highway improvement projects in recent years, and including 37 miles of concrete paving in Southern Minnesota counties: M. J. Hoffman, state highway commissioner, this week called for bids, to be opened June 7, on 27 construction jobs estimated to cost approximately $1,850,000.

The proposed work, involving improvements in 21 counties, includes 23 trunk highway projects and 4 federal aid secondary projects on county roads. All but two of the 23 trunk highway projects will be carried out with state and matched federal aid or grade crossing money. The two jobs to be performed with state funds are comparatively small bridge widening jobs.

In addition to the largest amount of concrete paving advertised for any one letting in several years, the contract proposals call for 61.4 miles of grading, 12 bridge jobs, 18 concrete box culvert bridges, and 0.6 miles of stabilized base and bituminous surfacing. Two of the projects are in Red Lake county on Highway 59, including T. H. 59—Bridge No. 5817, concrete deck girder span 60 ft. long, over Clearwater River, 1½ miles No. of Plummer. T. H. 59 —Bridge No. 5818 and 5819, over Hill and Lost Rivers, ½ mile and 2 miles No. of Brooks.

THROUGH SEWER TO GAS STATION

Alexandria— Employees at the Tessmer Oil Co. station on North Broadway found two dead walleyed pike at a sewer entrance in the basement of the station. When the discovery was made they yelled for Mr. Tessmer and disclosed the news. Mr. Tessmer, however, was not so hot about the news. Reason? Someone is trying to play jokes he thinks. At any rate the fish were there and evidently got there through the sewer.

HITCH-HIKED 4000 MILES

Hutchinson.— Milburn Henke, returned recently after a hitch-hiking trip east during which he covered more than 4,000 miles. His longest ride in the same car was a 600 mile ride from Lancaster, New York to Ft. Wayne, Indiana. It took him only 4½ days to get home from Hanover, New Hampshire, which is doing practically as well as he could have done had he been driving his own car.

WHEAT LOANS ARE SET AT 64 CENTS FOR CURRENT YEAR

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace Announces 1940 Program

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace announced Monday a 1940 wheat loan program averaging about 64 cents a bushel to producers.

Wallace's announcement, approved by President Roosevelt, followed a week of sharp drops in wheat values during which the crop's value declined approximately 32 cents.

Department officials said that the announcement of the loan at an average rate of 64 cents a bushel means that, with 1940 conservation and parity payments of 19 cents a bushel added, wheat farmers cooperating in the AAA program are assured an average return of at least 83 cents a bushel at the farm, regardless of market prices.

The average loan value of 64 cents is about 57 per cent of the parity price, which on April 15, was $1.13. The 1939 loan averaged 63 cents.

A slight increase in the loan values on wheat in the soft red winter wheat region was the only important change between the 1939 and 1940 programs.

He was taken to the hospital in Wadena and after receiving first aid treatment was taken back to his home in Fargo. How the door of the car opened is not known.

U. S. Group Distributes 7,370,000 Bibles in '39

A distribution of 7,370,903 volumes of Scriptures in 1939, representing an increase of 5 per cent over the circulation of 1938 was reported by the American Bible Society at its 124th annual meeting held this week at Bible House, its headquarters in New York City. The Scriptures were circulated in more than forty countries and in upwards of 200 languages. This total, according to the Bible Society, by no means represents the increased demand for the Bible. Only the Society's budgetary limitations kept it from being much greater.

DUG OUT DEN OF FOXES

Herman. —According to Paul Goodell, local warden, two men living 2½ miles west of Herman dug out a den of foxes recently and got five cubs and one old fox for their effort. On inspecting the den the men found the carcasses of two male pheasant, two females, a prairie chicken, a meadow lark, a muskrat, two small pigs and a barn rat—which was evidence enough of what was going on.

Two Harbors Liquor Bill in 1939 Exceeds Amount Paid for Water and Light

The annual statement of City Clerk Ernest Carlson reveals the amazing fact that the drink bill for Two Harbors, counting the amount of liquor sold at the municipal liquor store, the amount of beer at taverns and the take of bootleggers, topped the amount of money paid for water and electricity used for lighting and cooking by a considerable sum. The total paid to the city of Two Harbors for water and electric service was $26,945.21, while the total sales at the liquor store for bottled goods alone was $99,395.10. The amazing thing from the profit standpoint is that the city made a net profit on liquor of $22,862.02 after charging off a depreciation of $97.49 on an investment of stock and fixtures of $5,932.50, while the profit on water and electric service was only $16,948.73 on an investment of $291,332.03.

'GIRLS ARE DIFFERENT'

Lake Crystal—Carl Nelson, candidate for congress on the Republican ticket, will not adopt the practice of some candidates—kissing babes in arms and telling their mothers what cute little rascals they are. "No sir," said Carl, "not me". However Mr. Nelson adds a further statement which he considers different when asked about girls he stated, "I'll kiss any babe who has reached her 18th birthday and would prefer that those in a recipient mood for an educated kiss be blondes."

FINDS 'COIN' OVER FIFTY YEARS OLD

Farmington.— While digging in his garden, Ed Selk overturned a metal coin bearing the inscription, "1 Qt. C. S.". Ed says he thinks it was once a milk ticket used by Caleb Smith who resided on the Gerard farm southwest of here and operated a dairy in Farmington. Ed says the milk "ticket" was probably 40 or 50 years old.

These Trees of Mine

By Mrs. E. E. Zeh

I dont' know whether the honey suckle should be classed as a small tree, a shrub or a pest. It is a fine hedge plant if kept well pruned but then of course you get neither blossoms or berries. It makes a good screen if allowed to grow and is of very rapid growth. It takes only a short time to shut out whatever you may want shut out, whether that is the public, the clothes line or the pig pen and the out houses. It is pretty when in bloom with its pink or white flowers, and it is beautiful in fruit, with the boughs bending to the ground with their load of scarlet or orange berries. I always want some branches for the vases in the house and, no matter how many are cut, the bush will grow that many more the next year.

And what food for the robins. You can easily tell that they swallow their food without chewing or they would never take the second berry. I am sure that some very powerful medicine should be made from them, they are so very bitter. Try one next summer- "the taste will linger."

If you have more time than money the little plants can be quickly and easily grown from seed. Plant the seed as soon as gathered and they will be an inch tall by cold weather. Then set them in the cellar till spring when they should be planted in the garden, a foot or more apart. By the next spring they will be ready to be planted where they are to stand.

Of course you can plant the seed directly in the garden if you wish. There will be no doubt about their coming up wherever a seed is dropped. They have a clever but mean trick of coming up in the middle of a clump of peonies and hiding there until they are a foot or more tall, and then, when they have to be taken out it hurts us all three, the peony, the honey suckle and me. It is generally fatal to the honey suckle. It is then that I call them a pest, but plant them, by all means, if you have plenty of room.

CAT MOTHERS SQUIRRELS

Hanley Falls.—Out at Ole Gautefall's farm a mother cat has taken on the duty of raising two baby squirrels. Originally the cat's family consisted of nine children, eight of which failed to survive. The two squirrels were found by the Gautefalls while felling trees in their woods. Latest reports indicate, mother, offspring, and adopted children are doing well.

U. S. Army Air Corps Offers Varied Courses to American Young Men

Many opportunities exist within the U. S. Army air corps for eligible young men of the nation due to the vacancies created by the air corps expansion program, which increases the enlisted strength of 45,000 men. The Chanute Field Branch of the Air Corps Technical School at Rantoul, Illinois, offers the chance for young men to acquire an education—an education on a par with that of any aeronautical institute of the nation—without cost to themselves or their families. During the next two years, 17,882 men will have the chance to learn a highly specialized technical trade.

Entrance requirements for enlistment in the Army Air Corps are: American citizen, unmarried, between the ages of 18-35 years, high school graduate, good physical and mental fitness with good character and moral background. References are required from persons of recognized standing such as high school teachers, local ministers and business-men.

Every effort will be made to send the applicant to the Air Corps Technical School to pursue the course that interests him and for which he is best adapted. However, before enlistment the applicant must pass a series of tests given to determine his eligibility for any one of the courses.

While in the service, food, clothing, living quarters and medical attention are provided. In addition, pay ranges from $21.00 to $240.00 monthly, depending upon the individual's initiative and ability.

Information relative to the Air Corps Technical School and enlistment in the Army Air Corps may be obtained from the Personnel Officer, Chanute Field, Illinois; or from any regular Army Recruiting Station for those who are interested in serving at other Air Corps' stations.

Asks Complete Moneys and Credits Assessment

A recent survey of money and credits, under the direction of G. Howard Spaeth, commissioner, state department of taxation, revealed that a major portion of money and credits in the state has escaped taxation in the past. It is shown that in most of the counties, money on deposit in the banks exceed by at least 100%, the total money and credits on the tax rolls. This comparison indicates that not only a large portion of cash in the state is escaping taxation, but also most of the book accounts, notes, chattel mortgages, mortgages on real estate outside the state and on mortgages on which the registration tax has not been paid. In addition to these items are postal savings, shares of stock in corporations, having less than 25% of their real estate and tangible personal property in Minnesota, as well as various other intangibles assessable as money and credits are not being listed for taxation.

33 Million Deposited in Savings and Loan Groups

Savings totaling $33,519,940 had been invested by the public in the 34 insured savings and loan associations in Minnesota as of May 1, it was stated today by Nugent Fallon, General Manager of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. In the first four months of this year, new savings placed in these institutions aggregated $7,160,518.

A total of 54,150 savers are now using the thrift facilities of the Minnesota associations. Their savings are fully protected against loss up to $5,000 per account by the Insurance Corporation, a Federal Government instrumentality.

Home loans made by the associations numbered 682 and amounted to $1,836,030 in April. As of April 30, home mortgage loans on the books of these associations aggregated $43,382,530. Assets of the institutions totaled $49,938,430 on May 1.

Requests for Drivers Licenses are Doubled

The number of drivers' licenses issued since May 15 has been practically double the normal rate of issuance, the state highway department announced this week. The extraordinary demand, especially for duplicate licenses, is believed to have been occasioned by the warning issued through newspapers, local police and the radio last week, pointing out that all motorists who have changed their residences on or about May 1, moving day, are required by law to take out new or duplicate licenses bearing the correct address. Highway patrolmen have been instructed to exercise special effort to check driver's licenses.

200 SILVER DOLLARS PAYMENT ON CAR

Glencoe.—Harold Illg stepped into Harpel Bros. Garage, Chevrolet dealers, and laid down 200 silver dollars as part payment for a new Chevrolet car he purchased. William Harpel Jr., who received the money, learned that both banks in Glencoe didn't have as many silver dollars as he brought. Harold said that he started to collect silver dollars last summer and still has a few left.

Department of Health, Safety Council Study Home Accident Causes

In an attempt to check the number of fatal accidents occurring in homes and on farms, the Minnesota department of health cooperating with the Minnesota Safety Council, is seeking additional information as to causes of such deaths, according to plans announced.

Forms requesting information in addition to that required on the death certificates are being sent to physicians and relatives in each case where a life has been lost.

"These reports are not required by law", said Dr. A. J. Chesley, executive officer of the state department of health, "and the information obtained is to be used for statistical purposes only. It is believed that the information secured will make possible more specific remedies for the home and farm accident problem."

A committee of accident statisticians spent two months in the preparation of the report form finally selected for use in the accident survey, a study being made of forms used by every agency in the U. S. investigating fatal home and farm accidents.

Doctors Condemn Lack of Attention Accorded to Feet of Children

Children's feet are easily molded, the Minnesota State Medical association's committee on public health education says today, and the time to prevent most of the foot ills of later life is in childhood.

"In this day of the medically supervised child, surprisingly little attention is paid to the fundamentals of foot care," the doctors point out in this bulletin. "It is the feet that have to bear the weight, hold the body upright against the downward pull of gravity and carry it around; and yet, in spite of the demands made on them, they are universally neglected and abused."

Most healthy, well nourished children have good feet and the chief essential to keeping them that way is to put them in properly fitted shoes and stockings according to the bulletin.

"Children's shoes should be at least one-half inch longer than their feet and about one-fourth of an inch wider," the doctors says. "Socks should allow adequate room for the spreading and lengthening of the feet on standing."

Creamery Operators to Meet Here This Evening

The Minnesota Creamery Operators and Managers association of Districts 3 and 4 will hold a joint meeting in the municipal Auditorium this evening at 7:30, creamery board members also being invited to attend. D. C. Dvoracek, extension economist from University Farm, St. Paul, will speak on cooperative finance and meat lockers.

COUNCIL PICKS GROUP TO MAP PLAY PROGRAM

Sets up City-wide Recreation Planning Board Tuesday Evening

SUPERVISOR TO BE PLACED IN CHARGE

Building Permits Totaling $16,000 Are Approved at Session

Acting favorably on a suggestion by Pete Gergen of the Detroit Lakes WPA office, the city council at an adjourned session Tuesday evening acted to appoint a recreation planning board to map plans for a year-round recreation program. The members were selected subject to the approval of the various groups they represent.

Named were Bill LaFave and Ole Engelstad of the athletic association; Aldermen H. W. Kingborn and Clarence Sande, representing the council; A. B. Stenberg and Morris Bye, representing the board of education; Dr. A. R. Hulbert and Carl Larson, park superintendent, representing the park board; Leonard Hanson of the American Legion post; Clarence Pope of the Parent-Teacher association; and Richard Dablow county superintendent of schools.

Mr. Gergen pointed out that the new setup would involve little if any added expense to the city, and would greatly expand the use of available recreation facilities. He indicated that Ferdinand Elstad of Moorhead, now engaged in recreation work at Fergus Falls, would come to Thief River Falls next week to assume charge of local activities.

Included in building permits approved, involving an estimated expenditure of $16,000 were Simon Holmberg, meat market building, $7,000; Central Lumber company, residence on Knight av. N., $2,500; A. A. Schmeltzer, residence on Knight av. N., $2,000; G. M. Johnson, residence on Crocker av. N., $3,800; and R. L. Noper, remodeling cabins, $500.

City Clerk P. G. Pederson read a communication from the state highway department announcing that traffic on Highway 32 north of this city will be detoured on the old highway to the west, pending rebuilding of the trunk route.

A letter from the Great Northern railway stated that if a new street crossing is established over the tracks on West Third st. next spring as requested by the fair board, the present crossing on Fourth st. will be removed.

Mayor W. W. Prichard announced that Lee Boyd of Crookston, district highway maintenance engineer, had agreed to come to the city this week to check up on the need of recoating the paving on trunk routes thru Thief River Falls. The mayor pointed out that the paving, constructed twenty years ago, is beginning to show signs of wear and should be repaired.

A motion was adopted to notify Mrs. Thora Nelson, city treasurer, that the office will be declared vacant unless the required surety bond is filed in advance of the next council meeting Tuesday, June 11.

PENNINGTON CO. SHOWS GOOD GAIN IN POPULATION

Count in Rural Districts Increases About 700 in Past Ten Years

The population of Pennington county, as of April 1, was 12,900 compared to 10,487 in 1930, it is revealed in unofficial census returns released today by H. O. Chommie, district supervisor. Exclusive of the gain of more than 1700 in the city of Thief River Falls, the figures indicate a gain of approximately 700 in the rural areas of the county.

The agricultural census, taken this spring in connection with the population count, shows a total of 1371 farms in Pennington county, which compares with 1300 in 1935 and 1100 in 1930, indicating an increase of 271 in the past ten years.

The population of the Town of North, most thickly settled of all townships in the county, increased from 739 in 1930 to 1056 on April 1 this year, the unofficial tabulation shows. Next is Rocksbury, which gained from 593 in 1930 to 664 this year. Figures for other townships in the county have not yet been released.

Elmer J. Ecklund's Military Career Is Reviewed by Legion

Following are extracts from a sketch of the career of Elmer J. Ecklund, after whom the local Legion post was named and who was the first Pennington county resident to lose his life in action in the World War. The review was presented by A. M. Senstad Friday evening at a memorial program sponsored jointly by the Legion post and auxiliary.

Elmer Joseph Ecklund was born at Escanaba, Michigan June 29, 1893. He received his grade schooling and his first year of high school in that city, and then left for Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin, where he completed his high school education, graduating with the class of 1914.

In the fall of that same year he went to Dickinson, N. D., to teach school, after which he came to Thief River Falls and found employment at the round house, continuing up to the time of his enlistment in Sturgeon Bay in Company F of the Wisconsin Fifth National Guard. On August 17, 1917, he left with his company for Camp Douglas, being sworn into the federal army in September.

He sailed with Company G of the 128th Infantry from New York on the transport ship Covington February 18, 1918, arriving at Brest, France March 4. He was transferred to the 28th Infantry of the First division, and saw first real action in Alsace-Lorraine, later going to Chateau Thierry, Cantigny, Fismes, St. Mihiel and other battle fronts.

Within four months from the time he first set foot on French soil, Elmer was crossing the Marne on a June day bound for the western front with what remained of his original company. War raged heavily, and after two weeks of action at Soissons he paid the supreme sacrifice, his death coming July 18, 1918, 19 days after his 24th birthday. His burial place is in the Aisne-Marne cemetery, where lie the graves of many of the unknown soldier dead.

CALL FOR BIDS FOR R. L. RURAL ELECTRIC LINE

Received Word of Washington Approval of Local Project

BIDS TO BE OPENED TUESDAY, JUNE 11TH

Construction of Approximately 270 Miles Lines Contemplated

The Red Lake Electric Co-operative, sponsoring the installation of rural electric lines in Pennington, Red Lake and South Marshall counties, will receive bids on construction of the lines Tuesday afternoon, June 11, at 2 o'clock in Red Lake Falls.

The announcement of the call for bids, the first definite step toward realization of the project, was made following authorization given by the Washington office of the Rural Electrification administration to Ellerbe & company of St. Paul, engineers on the project.

The work of staking out the proposed lines got under way this week. To be served under the setup are 185 homes in Pennington county, including 48 in the village of Goodridge, and three in South Marshall county. The largest number of Pennington county signers are in Wyandotte and Rocksbury townships, while the lines will extend as far west as three miles west of Thief River Falls. The project calls for the construction of approximately 270 miles of lines in the three counties.

On a similar project in the Grand Forks vicinity last week there were 21 bidders on the construction job, the contract being awarded on the basis of $568 a mile. A site for a central power plant to serve the Red Lake and other northwest cooperative power lines has been obtained near the state mill in Grand Forks, but there is still a possibility that a contract to supply current may be entered into with the Northern States Power company.

Announcement of the call for bids was made locally by S. E. Hunt, Pennington county director of the Red Lake cooperative and vice president of the Minkota Electric Power Cooperative, Inc.

Announcement also was made that an invitation to address the local group some time after the county fair is being extended to Victor Christgau of St. Paul, director of the state division of employment and security, who will be asked to explain the functions of the agency headed by him.

At last Thursday's session President F. A. Rinkel was instructed to appoint a committee to cooperate with other local groups in seeking the establishment of an airport adjoining Thief River Falls in connection with the nation's expanding air program.

93 Candidates Appear for Rural Mail Carrier Exams Held Saturday

Gunder Legvold, secretary of the local board of civil service examiners, was assisted in conducting the tests by T. S. Brekke and Fred Protz. Several World War veterans were included in the group taking the examinations. The papers have been sent in to Washington to be graded, following which names of the three highest ranking candidates will be submitted to Postmaster Andrew Anderson, who will select one from the list.

Official Paper of Pennington County and City of Thief River Falls

A RUDE AWAKENING

The willingness with which the people of our country accept the idea that we now must prepare to defend ourselves is an admission that we have not worried a great deal about our defense in the past because we have depended on other nations to stand between us and any possible enemies. Now that we are confronted with the probability that we soon will be the only great democracy left in a world of power drunk dictators, we are beginning to realize that the western hemisphere is still a part of the world that is constantly growing smaller. We are just as close to Germany and to Japan today as England was to France a hundred years ago.

In the past a condition of comparative peace has been maintained in the world by alliances of nations that have established balances of power. There have been times when the strong have been strong enough to impose their will on the weak but over a period of time the strength of the strong has been offset by new combinations. We are now in a period when old balances are being blasted and it probably will take a long time for new ones to form. Before those new ones are formed the world probably will experience a series of wars. And in those wars of the immediate future our country, whether we wish it or not, will be involved.

In our provincial attitude of the past we have refrained from entering "entangling alliances," expecting that an isolationist policy would enable us to live in peace. We have remained snobbishly aloof from associations of countries, such as the League of Nations, that have been organized for the purpose of solving international problems by peaceful means, smuggly proclaiming that we would have no truck with our riff-raff, brawling neighbors. Now, realizing that those riff-raff neighbors may soon be converted into one big military machine, organized for the purpose of world domination, we suddenly open our eyes to a horrid reality.

It is a rude awakening from a beautiful dream.

Speaking of street improvements, isn't it about time to discontinue the old practice of charging such improvements to adjoining property? Street construction and maintenance is a proper community responsibility. Now that the old pavement is about paid for and no longer an argument, there can be no harm in admitting that, while it was an improvement to the community as a whole, a few individuals suffered serious losses because of the heavy assessments it imposed upon them. Some unimproved property lost all its value. It is not an easy matter of course to measure the benefits and distribute the costs on any public project but it would seem that there would be less injustice if the streets were built according to community needs and the costs spread over the entire community.

It was twenty years ago this summer that the pavement was built in Thief River Falls and when next year's installment on the bonds is taken up the improvement will be paid in full. Now, after twenty years, the improvement is still serving the community faithfully and probably will continue to do so for a long time to come, providing it receives a little attention now and then. It is badly in need of an overhauling at the present time. City officials appreciate this fact and are getting information on resurfacing costs. A few dollars spent now for maintenance will save the city many dollars later when, for lack of proper maintenance a more extensive repair job would be necessary.

Our government is finally admitting that increased taxes are going to be necessary. That is encouraging. It indicates that our officials in Washington are beginning to realize that the spending and borrowing process cannot continue forever. The additional taxes imposed by the present Congress will not be laid heavily upon the rank and file—you may lay to that. The rank and file taxes will come later, after the election. But they will come. The prospect of paying more taxes is never a pleasant one but it is nice to know that the tax spenders are now aware of the fact that their spending spree will have to be followed by tough taxes. It is encouraging because it marks the beginning of the end of foolish spending.

Congratulations to the graduates of the class of 1940. For quite a few years now commencement speakers have lamented the lack of opportunity that has confronted the youth of the country. There is now plenty of opportunity for our young people. The whole crazy, cockeyed world needs to be made over. So step out, you young hopefuls, and take a hand. Such as it is, the world is yours. It is pretty heavily mortgaged and there are a few mad men to be reckoned with. No graduating class was ever confronted with a nicer problem. Congratulations, graduates, on your opportunity.

A couple of weeks ago the Red Cross issued a call for a ten million dollar special relief fund for war-torn Europe. Now the sum asked for has been doubled. Twenty million dollars is needed at once. The Pennington county quota on the first call was $420. As usual, our people have responded generously. In less than a week our quota has been raised. Now we must raise another $420. And there no doubt will be more calls for assistance. The need is great.

Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce moved in the right direction when they adopted the city's river-lake as a development project. This is a project that needs the co-operation of property owners along the river as well as the support of the city. It will take agitation, constant hammering and yammering, to get results. But eventually the river will become what it should be, a beautiful lake and a recreation center for the community. Why not start the project by giving the lake a name?

REPUBLICANS AT STATE MEETING NAME DELEGATES

Gov. Stassen and John Padden Among Four to Go to Philadelphia

Governor Harold E. Stassen got official permission Thursday to keep his date with the nation's Republicans at Philadelphia June 24.

The state Republican convention in St. Paul, with a shout of acclamation, elected him one of four delegates-at-large, and cleared the way for him to serve as temporary chairman of the national convention, and to deliver its keynote address.

Other delegates at large will be W. S. Moscrip, Lake Elmo farm leader, who got [illegible] of the 1,057 votes cast; John W. Padden of Crookston, state chairman of the Young Republican League, [illegible] votes, and Thomas McCabe, Duluth, 648½ votes.

Stassen told the convention his administration would seek re-election "on our record, and we will make equal or greater contributions to the public welfare in the next term." The Stassen record, and the achievements of other Republican officeholders, had been roundly praised earlier in the day by William E. Mitchell of Tracy in the convention keynote.

The convention adopted resolutions:

Commending the Stassen administration for "eliminating waste and extravagance;"

Praising major laws passed by the 1939 legislature, and

Calling upon the Republicans to fight the New Deal and back a program of farm price parity, prevention of foreign farm imports, opposition to treaties adopted without senate ratification and [illegible] participation in the European war.

Thursday's convention was the first of a double-header affair decided upon as a result of the shift in Minnesota's election laws which puts the primary in September instead of June. The second half of the convention will be held in September after the party's nominees have been chosen, and a platform will be built up at that time.

The fireworks, expected to pop when state central committee members went into a huddle to elect officers after the convention, fizzled out in a wave of sudden peacefulness.

Dr. E. C. [illegible], one of the centers of the predicted explosion, was re-elected state chairman without opposition. Mrs. Rose Spencer, Winona, acting state chairwoman, was elected chairwoman without any fight.

And Victor [illegible], secretary of the committee and the one about whom there had been the wildest pre-convention speculation Wednesday night, was likewise peaceably returned to office.

450-Pound Lion Visits Red Lake Falls Briefly

Two Red Lake Falls boys, Donald and Gordon Steinert, were the owners of a 450-pound lion for two days last week, says the Red Lake Falls Gazette. The boys accompanied by Louis [illegible] motored to Mankato last Sunday and returned early Tuesday with the "King of Beasts," which had been given them by the keeper of the zoo in Sibley park. When the boys went to Mankato they had hoped to get a cub, which had been offered to anyone who would care for it. The zoo keeper talked them into taking the two and a half year old animal, which they discovered, upon their return here, would be somewhat of a problem to care for and so Wednesday afternoon Gordon accompanied by Woodrow [illegible] took the animal back to Mankato, where they are fully equipped to care for such animals.

WATER CONSERVATION

To conserve Minnesota's surface water supplies the State Division of Drainage and Waters has supervised construction of [illegible] water conservation projects during the past five years.

ARRANGE TO CHECK COMPLIANCE WITH 1940 AAA PROGRAM

Pennington Farm Reporters Will Get Instructions Next Monday

Representatives of seven county agricultural conservation associations attended a district meeting in Thief River Falls, last Friday to discuss checking compliance for the Agricultural Conservation Program for 1940.

Carl E. Anderson, Hans Solberg and Ole Nesland, county committeemen; Lloyd Johnson, compliance supervisor; Hazel Melin, chief clerk; and Howard E. Grow, county agent, represented Pennington county.

The farm reporters, that will work in Pennington County, will receive their instruction Monday, June 3. The actual work in the field will start soon after this date. This year aerial photos will be used for the first time, and perhaps the work will progress slower at the start, but should be completed at an early date.

Men to work as farm reporters that will attend the county meeting are:

Alton Almquist, Clarence H. Anderson, Jesse O. Anderson, Clarence Peterson, Edwin Swanson, Eldred Ayers, Carl Einstad, Oscar J. [illegible], August Scholin, John Scholin, John Stenseth, Harold Jorstad, J. P. Kolseth, Morris Miller, E. H. Pomerenke and Victor [illegible].

The county performance supervisor, county committee, and county agent will also attend the county instruction meeting on June 3.

Plummer Whipped by Locals Sunday 6 to 4

In a well-played Northern Minny league game at Plummer Sunday, Hemmy Sahl out-pitched Plummer's Arv. Mortrude to defeat the Red Sox, 6 to 4. It was revenge for Sahl, for on the Sunday previous, while pitching for Oklee, Hemmy had lost a 2 to 0 duel to Mortrude and Plummer. The Plummer team will play the locals on the fair grounds diamond next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Plummer scored the game's first run in the second inning last Sunday when Hoflus shot a single through the box, went to third on Mortrude's double to center field, and scored when Jaranson's relay throw to Lee, on Mortrude's hit, was low and rolled into short left field. In the third inning the locals bunched three hits, with a walk, to score two runs. Sahl opened with a double, the first hit off Mortrude. Wally DuChamp popped out. Bob DuChamp drew a walk, Roy Lee singled to center, and, with the bases filled, Stan Cockrell smashed a double off of Bud Jasper's shins, scoring Sahl and Bob DuChamp.

The Red Sox tied up the ball game in the fifth inning, when Hemmy Sahl lost his control, walking two men, and then wild-pitching a run across the plate. Thief River regained the lead when Rasmussen, in the sixth inning, received a base on balls, and then he was sacrificed to second when Jaranson laid down a bunt, and Clarence scored when Bergstrom singled into left field. The scrappy Red Sox knotted the score in their half of the sixth on Mortrude's long double to the center field fence, and he was sent to third when Sahl committed a balk, scoring when Hemmy threw a curve ball into the dirt for a wild pitch.

Thief River won the ball game in the seventh inning, when they tallied two runs. Roy Lee got his second hit, a single to left field; but he was forced at second when Cockrell bounded to the third baseman, Stan reaching first on a fielder's choice. Rasmussen was given a pass, sending Cockrell to second, and then Jaranson punched out a long single to center, scoring Cockrell, and when Johnny was trapped in a 'hot box' between first and second, Rasmussen raced home with the inning's second run. The ninth inning saw both teams scoring a run. Thief River tallied on an error, a sacrifice hit, and a single. Plummer scored their run on two bases on balls, and two wild pitches.

Hampered by the cold weather, both pitchers, Sahl and Mortrude, hurled erratic ball. Hemmy collected 11 strikeouts, while Mortrude whiffed 7; and Sahl issued 6 walks, while Mortrude doled out 7 passes. Mortrude, in addition to pitching creditable ball, was the hitting star of the game, getting three hits, two being long doubles, in four trips to the plate.

PLOW TURNS UP INDIAN RELIC AT FARMINGTON

Farmington.—A relic of long ago, possibly an Indian weapon, was turned up by Albert Jacob's plow seven miles southeast of here near what are thought to be several Indian mounds. The weapon is a knife, fashioned from a piece of iron; it is flat, 10 inches long and about an inch and a half high. The rusty old weapon apparently was made by crude tools.

SPORTS Tid-Bits

By Huck Olson

You will be watching a pitcher with plenty of baseball smartness when you see Plummer's Arv Mortrude in action on Sunday. And he will be here Sunday, for the Plummer vs. Thief River Falls Northern Minny game which will be played on the Fair Grounds diamond. Having had six or seven years experience in the Northern League, with Duluth and Crookston, and he's still the property of the Crookston club, he should be able to pitch smart baseball. Mortrude hasn't so very much swift on his fast ball, nor does his curve take an extraordinary break; but he does throw his stuff for the corners. His fast ball hits for the high corners, and he bends his curve down over the low inside and low outside corners. Very, very seldom does he give the batter a fat pitch to hit. Even on a 3 and 0 count, when the batter can be expected to 'take' a pitch, Mortrude doesn't lay a 'cripple' across the plate. Maybe that was one of the reasons why Thief River drew seven bases on balls off him last Sunday.

Jaranson Catches Eye

Speaking with Mortrude after Sunday's game, he told be that he was impressed by the play of our second baseman, Johnny Jaranson, and he wondered whether Johnny would be interested in 'pro' baseball. Mortrude, who managed Crookston for a time last year, liked the actions of Johnny around second base, and the way he stood in there while at the plate; and as he, Mortrude, has some influence with the Pirates, he would recommend that John be given a try-out. If the offer had come two or three years ago Johnny would have accepted, but now he has a job, and he's 22 years old, and he thinks that there is more future in his present work than in baseball. And I think that he is wise in passing up baseball.

And the Pirates have considerable faith in the catching ability of the youngster that will be behind the plate for Plummer Sunday, Wesley Westrum. He is being touted as another Russ Rolandson. And Westrum does have nice actions, a good arm, and is a fair hitter. He's a Clearbrook kid, and a cousin of Ardell Robinson, and a nephew of Oslo's Smoky and Bunty Robinson.

Our all-home-talent team, with the exception of the Middle River CCC team, and the possible exception of the St. Hilaire club, is the youngest team in the league. The ages of the regulars run about like this: Bob DuChamp, 18; Wally DuChamp, 23; Len Helquist, 21; Stan Cockrell, 24; Clarence Rasmussen, 27; Roy Lee, 19; John Jaranson, 23; Bing Bergstrom, 20; Hemmy Sahl, 21. And Cockrell, at first base, is the only married man in the outfit.

Junior Baseball

Something should be done to provide junior baseball this year. The youngsters are anxious to play, and they have the uniforms, and the players, for a fine team this season, maybe a district championship team. And there wouldn't take very much money to get this junior baseball program under way, because about all they need are a few bats and a dozen balls.

Diamondball

Walt Larson and his Land O' Lakes team ran into a blitzkrieg of their own last Monday night. They were beaten by the DeMolays. I missed the game, because I was out at the Fair Grounds watching Hemmy Sahl hitting fungo flies to Thor Williamson, and making nickle bets that one of those high flies would hit T. W. on the head.

Miscellany

Sophomore LaRue Anderson told me that he is writing his state board exams left-handed this year. If he wrote them right-handed they would know that he's too smart to be a sophomore, and he would be graduated, and he has two years of football to play. The idea is that when Andy writes left-handed he thinks left-handed, and when he thinks left-handed he isn't as smart as when he thinks right-handed. So he's writing his State Boards left-handed.

PRESIDENT IN RADIO APPEAL FOR U. S. UNITY

Pledges Military Security to American Citizens Sunday Night

CITES THREATS TO NATIONAL SECURITY

Says Events of Past Weeks Have Shattered Many Illusions

In a solemn appeal for national unity, President Roosevelt coupled a pledge of military security Sunday with a warning against Trojan horse treachery and the "undiluted poison" of foreign-sponsored dissension.

Calling for an end to fear, illusion and calamity-howling, the chief executive said in his fourteenth radio "fireside chat" that American defense forces would be built up "to whatever heights the future may require."

He denied charges of critics that money spent for the army and navy in the last few years had "gone down the rat-hole." Instead, he said:

"This money has been used to make our army and navy today the largest, the best equipped, and the best trained peacetime military establishment in the history of this country."

After declaring that nothing in the present emergency justified breakdown or cancellation of "any of the great social gains" under the new deal, Mr. Roosevelt asserted that "today's threat to our national security is not a matter of military weapons alone."

"We must deal vigorously," he said, with "spies, saboteurs and traitors."

"Campaigns of group hatred or class struggle have never made much headway among us, and are not making headway now," he said. "But new forces are being unleashed, deliberately planned propaganda to divide and weaken us in the face of danger as other nations have been weakened before.

"These dividing forces are undiluted poison. They must not be allowed to spread in the new world as they have in the old."

The president said that "the past two weeks have meant the shattering of many illusions" for persons who had "closed their eyes" to events abroad or "who could not admit the possibility of the approaching storm."

The president reiterated the administration's promise to advance RFC money to private industry to help expand factories and personnel under the preparedness program.

The president called for protection of consumers against higher living costs and asserted that "no new group of millionaires (should) come into being in this nation as a result of the struggles abroad."

After opening his talk with an appeal to aid the Red Cross war relief fund, Mr. Roosevelt detailed advances in the army and navy during his seven years in office.

TURKEY POULT HATCHED WITH FOUR LEGS

Pelican Rapids.—A turkey poult was hatched at the local hatchery recently having four legs. The little bird lived a few days, having evidently worn himself out trying to manipulate so many legs. Perhaps some wanted to go in one direction while the other headed for another. It was a curiosity and attracted much attention.

Drastic Reduction in Wolf Bounties in State Cited by Department

A drastic reduction in state wolf bounty payments through elimination of fraudulent bounty applications was reported today by the game and fish division for the past year.

From peak bounty payments of $52,000 in the fiscal year ending in 1937—when the "bounty racket" was at its peak—disbursals declined to a low of $17,000 during the calendar year 1939. During the fiscal year ending in June 1939, $37,000 was paid.

J. A. Lingle, state game warden supervisor, said the $17,000 is regarded as "a reasonable amount." He said "99 per cent of the fraud has been eliminated through the cooperation of wardens and county auditors."

Investigations started in 1938 showed hundreds of wolf bounties were paid on grey fox, red fox, and cur dogs. One southwestern county paid $1,252 in "wolf counties"—with wolves unreported in the county the last 30 years.

Scores of bounty payment convictions were secured in the drive. The new bounty application plan requires that wardens must personally certify the specimen to be a wolf and affix a seal to the pelt attesting thereto.

While Waldemar Walters, Will McCrum's hired man, was springtoothing down on the Franklin farm the other day, he happened to glance absently on the ground when he noticed something peculiarly shiny. He stopped the tractor to investigate, and sure enough, there lay a watch. The watch, indeed, must be at least forty years old. It appears to be in fine shape in spite of a lot of rust and dirt, but it seems impossible to ascertain the make of that old timepiece, that probably had been lost years and years ago on that field.

Dogs, again are taking the toll of sheep in this community. B. B. Hammers and L. O. Stenseth's have noticed evidence that their precious sheep have been tampered with by evil dogs.

Wonder whatever became of....?

Did his classmates lose track of him? How could they? He was the sort of friend that all of us would want to keep . . . mostly because of his understanding slant on life and people and things. He was active in athletics, yet his studies never suffered . . . nor did overwork cheat him of recreation and relaxation. Light-hearted, yet serious when problems faced him . . . always master of his worries. He avoided idlers, but added constantly to his circle of sincere friends. He was courageous without being reckless, confident without being cocksure . . . moderate in all things. Everybody said he'd make good. He has.

Will this calf bring 66¢ a pound?
It's HARD to tell... but EASY to pick a winning oil
To encourage the great work of the 4-H Clubs, Phillips representatives frequently bid in 4-H Club prize animals, offering 66¢ a pound in honor of Phillips 66 products.
Which of the thousands of animals now being raised will win?
Even experienced judges of cattle can't answer the question until all the animals appear in the ring. But when you want a winning oil for your motor . . . you have a simple, easy, rapid way to pick the champion lubricant.
To do away with all question and doubt, the great Phillips refining organization makes this plain, straightforward statement. If you want our best oil, remember we specify that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality . . . the highest grade and greatest value . . . among all the oils we offer. Ask for it, when you make the seasonal change in lubricants which every engine needs.

1139 are Arrested by State Highway Patrol for April Violations

State highway patrolmen, under the more rigid enforcement policy adopted to check those traffic law violations which are the most frequent causes of serious accidents and deaths, arrested 1,139 motorists during the month of April, Elden Rowe, chief officer of the patrol, announced today.

Arrests brought the total number of motorists brought into court by highway patrolmen up to May 1 this year to 3,078 as compared to 1,856 arrested during the first four months of 1939. The patrolmen also have given 9,128 verbal warnings, and 1,568 "do not repeat" written warnings, to other motorists so far this year; have issued 6,166 tags for illegal equipment, and have stopped 4,173 motorists operating vehicles with improper license tags. During the same four months they have checked 29,547 driver's licenses, have helped out 14,451 motorists in trouble on the highway, and have given traffic directions to 66,836 motor vehicle operators.

The largest number of arrests during April for any one offense was 191 apprehended for excessive speed. Other offenses commonly recognized as potential accident causes and the resulting number of arrests during April, were: careless driving, 168; running through a stop sign, 135; driving with unsafe and improper equipment, 115; driving while drunk, 95, and improper passing 61.

Money collected in fines as a result of arrests by Highway patrolmen between January 1 and May 1 was $36,183 as compared to $21,212 during the same period of 1939.

Minnesota's Sunday and holiday ban on heavy commercial truck traffic over state trunk highways in congested travel areas will become effective for the summer season on Memorial Day, W. F. Rosenwald, traffic engineer of the state highway department, warned this week. The ban will continue from May 30 through the second Sunday in September. During this period heavy commercial trucks are prohibited from any trunk highway within 35 miles of cities of the first class, from 9:00 A. M. until midnight, on Sundays and holidays. Certain exemptions from the rule are specified by law. Exceptions include commercial vehicles of one ton or less, farm trucks, emergency vehicles, highway construction equipment, motor vehicle repair cars, and vehicles for transporting livestock, dairy and poultry products, newspapers, fresh bakery goods, ice, non-intoxicating beverages, or other perishable products.

PIPE IS SOUND AFTER 60 YEARS OF SERVICE

Glenwood.—Gunder Olson unearthed part of the first water system laid in Glenwood about 65 years ago. The water pipes were made from long narrow tamarack logs with a hole drilled through the center. Although this log had laid under seven feet of ground all those years, when removed it was in perfect state of preservation. Mr. Olson has left it with the historical society where it can be seen at the Court House.

FARM SECURITY AGENCY EXTENDS $357,939 LOANS

Charley Ommodt Reports on Operations in Marshall and Pennington

During the last five years the Farm Security Administration has assisted a total of 767 farm families in Marshall and Pennington counties, according to Mr. Charley Ommodt, FSA supervisor for the two counties.

Supervisor Ommodt pointed out that the last agricultural census showed that there were 4271 farms in these counties. On this basis, he pointed out, the Farm Security Administration has extended loans and other forms of rehabilitation assistance to one out of every six of the two counties' farm families.

The financial assistance given by the FSA has taken three general forms, the supervisor explained. First, there are the rehabilitation loans to enable borrowers to carry out improved farm plans. Second, emergency loans are made to farmers in need of small amounts for immediate use in saving their crops or providing food for the families and feed for their livestock. Finally, there are grants, made to supply urgent living needs to families whose farms are not capable of producing income enough to pay both farm operating costs and family living expenses.

In Marshall and Pennington counties since 1935, the FSA has made 844 standard rehabilitation loans, 199 emergency loans, 26 relocation loans, and grants to 399 families. All standard, emergency and relocation loans are self-liquidating.

In the two counties, a total of $357,939.79 has been loaned in the past five years. Repayments of these loans to date total $93,-186.69, or 26 per cent. In addition, a total of $70,380 has been loaned for relocation purposes, repayments on which total $2,006.82. Since full settlement of most of the chattel loans is not due for three to four years and settlement for most of the relocation loans is not due for twenty to twenty-five years, Farm Security officials feel they can conservatively expect eventual repayment of an extremely high proportion of the total amount loaned.

Commenting on the collection record, Supervisor Ommodt said, "We are particularly proud of this, because by ordinary business standards Farm Security borrowers could not qualify for commercial credit; yet a bulk of the repayments have been made, and made when they were due."

An optimistic editor tries to cheer us up with, "Hitler can't live always." We must remind him that neither can we.

TO SPEAK IN CROOKSTON

Miss Bess M. Rowe, woman's editor of "The Farmer", St. Paul, will be one of the chief speakers and demonstrators at the forthcoming Women's Camp at the Northwest School at Crookston, June 17-20. Miss Rowe, according to Superintendent T. M. McCall of the Northwest School, is an outstanding authority on home economics subjects and the author of several booklets on the farm kitchen and related subjects. Miss Rowe, a former head of the department of home economics at the Northwest School, is well known in the Red River Valley. She will give four lectures and demonstrations during the camp period.

Junior Short Course and 4-H Club Week Will Open June 10th at Crookston

The twenty-ninth annual Junior Short Course and 4-H Club Week at the Northwest School, Crookston, will be held on June 10-15. Miss Anne Thorbeck, acting district leader of 4-H clubs, states "The fifteen county 4-H club leaders in the Red River Valley counties have reported that county contests in music and dramatics have all been held and groups have been selected to represent their counties in the regional contests at Crookston. Indications at present indicate that the enrollment for the two camps will equal or exceed the record enrollment of 1120 for the 1939 camp." The counties including East and West Polk and south will meet on June 10-11-12; counties including Clearwater and counties north to the Canadian border will meet June 13-14-15.

Sgt. N. F. Quigley at the U. S. Army Recruiting station located in the Post Office Bldg., Grand Forks, N. Dak., has announced that he is now authorized to accept young men between the ages of 18 and 35 for enlistment in the Infantry at Ft. Snelling, Minn. and the infantry at Ft. Lewis, Washington. Any young man who may be contemplating a military career should get in touch with him immediately as the quota is very limited at the present time.

59 PEDESTRIANS DIE IN TRAFFIC IN FOUR MONTHS

Total Is 22 More Than for Comparable Period Last Year

Fifty-nine fresh graves, this Memorial Day, mark the last resting places of as many Minnesota men, women and children, who have literally walked to their deaths during the first four months of the year.

Twenty-two more pedestrians have been killed in traffic during the first one-third of 1940 than met death under similar conditions during a corresponding period of 1939, according to accident analysis statistics released by the state department of highways.

And due to this disastrous increase in pedestrian fatalities, Minnesota's traffic safety record, which won the state national distinction in 1939, has been marred by 16 more traffic fatalities than occurred during a similar period of last year.

The number of traffic deaths since January 1, motorist and pedestrian, has increased 14.68 per cent, from 109 for the first four months of 1939 to 125 for a corresponding period this year. However, because of the increased volume of motor vehicle travel, as measured by gasoline consumption, the death rate has increased only from 8.0 persons per 10,000,-000 gallons of gasoline consumed to 8.1.

"Traffic fatalities for April, with 41 persons losing their lives, were the highest for any month so far this year, and far higher than for any one of the first four months of last year," W. F. Rosenwald, traffic engineer of the state highway department, pointed out. "Last year during April only 25 deaths were caused by traffic accidents. Now, with 125 fatalities already recorded this year, we have yet to face what are usually the worst months from the accident standpoint."

Record Wall-Eyed Pike Hatch Is Seen for 1940

A record-breaking wall-eye pike hatch in the state's fisheries and a new high in the number of fry distributed to Minnesota lakes appeared likely today on the basis of reports to the game and fish division.

Better fertilization and hatching conditions, explained Fisheries Superintendent George Weaver, have been responsible for the increased production. Pike eggs on hand numbered close to last year's figures.

An incomplete tabulation showed that 1,173,831,000 pike eggs were incubating in state hatcheries as of last week. At several points pike fry were already being distributed. The hatch will continue into June.

A short business meeting was held before the program and the Secretary's report was read and accepted. Floyd Olson was re-elected president and Harold South was elected Vice President and Mrs. Obed Sabo was elected Secretary and Treasurer.

The club deserves a lot of credit for the good use they have put their money to, by buying the curtain for the stage and also buying the stage furniture, and buying the play ground equipment as well as paying all the small bills and keeping up the library rent. Speaker Warns College Education Is No Guaranty of Success

DORIS HOSTVET GIVES VALEDICTORY TALK

Legion, Auxiliary Awards Go to John Magnuson and and Dagny Tungseth

A graduating class of 110 seniors, in addition to fifteen members of the teacher training department, made their last formal appearance in the Lincoln high school auditorium Friday evening when diplomas were awarded at the 57th annual Lincoln school commencement exercises.

Supt. Morris Bye presided over the impressive rites, which opened with the seniors, garbed in somber caps and gowns, marching into the auditorium to the music of "Marche Noble", played by the high school band directed by Glendon Ahre.

Dagny Tungseth gave the salutatory, followed by the high school mixed chorus under the direction of Miss Ruth E. Nelson, which supplied two numbers, one of them being an excellent rendition of "Beautiful Savior" by Christiansen.

Dr. Tracy F. Tyler of the college of education of the University of Minnesota delivered the commencement address, selecting for his topic "Overlooked Opportunities". He reminded his hearers that, despite the advance in educational facilities in past years, a college education is still no guaranty of success in after life, pointing out that the benefit received depends on the aptitudes of the student and his fitness for the course of study he selects.

The big task of educators is to give proper guidance in selecting the course of study for the individual student, Dr. Tyler said, adding that too many desire to become doctors and lawyers. He concluded his address by stating that the most important opportunities lie within the individual.

Following a selection by the Lincoln school boys' octet, Doris Hostvet, highest ranking senior, gave the valedictory, after which W. G. Claffy, high school principal, presented the class to Dr. A. E. Jacobson, president of the board of education, who addressed the graduated briefly and then conferred the diplimas.

Mr. Bye conferred certificates to the teacher training graduates, and also awarded a number of scholarships, the recipients including Doris Hostvet, James Burreson and Robert Stewart, while Blaine Vogen received the honorary science award and Wayne Bredeson received the Robert McGinn trophy for proficiency in athletics and scholarship.

In behalf of the local unit of the American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. J. M. Bishop conferred the auxiliary award on Dagny Tungseth, while Tom Rowan presented the Legion award to John Magnuson.

MEMORIAL DAY IMPRESSIVELY OBSERVED HERE

FARGO ATTORNEY IS PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

Delivers Eloquent Plea for Preservation of Democracy in U. S.

Encouraged by ideal weather prevailing for the occasion, local citizens assembled in large numbers in the Elks park last Thursday morning for highly impressive Memorial services. The program followed a procession to the park from the municipal Auditorium, included in the line of march being a color guard of Legionnaires and Veterans of Foreign Wars, the municipal band, Lincoln high school band, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownies.

Kern Olson presided at the rites, which opened with the playing of "America" by the municipal band, followed by the invocation by Rev. C. J. Cloutier. The address of the day was delivered by Claire F. Brickner, Fargo attorney and World War veteran, who made an eloquent plea for peace and the preservation of democracy.

Stating that more than eighty per cent of the people of the world are ruled today under dictatorships, Mr. Brickner declared that the United States is the last refuge of the democratic way of life. Contrasting the situation of people here and in Europe, he said preparedness of the military forces in this country is necessary to protect liberty from assaults. At the same time, he asserted, this country cannot afford to become involved in European power politics.

Following the address, Dr. A. R. Hulbert, adjutant of the Legion post, called the roll of departed veterans, one of an array of white crosses in a corner of the park being decorated by a Boy or Girl Scout as each name was called. Rev. E. A. Cooke dedicated a larger cross to the Unknown Soldier, after speaking briefly of the spirit of justice, fair play and liberty for which the unknown soldier gave his life. J. A. Narverud placed a wreath in the river in memory of the sailor dead.

The program closed with a vocal solo, "America the Beautiful", by H. M. Hitterdal, accompanied by the band, followed by the firing of a volley in salute to the dead, and the sounding of taps by P. G. Pederson.

STATE JOB OFFICE IN CITY SEEKING WORK REQUESTS

Sjolander Asks Public to Make Full Use of Facilities Offered

The Minnesota state employment service encourages all persons who are seeking employment to file an application for work. The local office is located in the Citizens bank block in Thief River Falls. The invitation to register is extended especially to youths who desire work during vacations or on Saturdays.

The employment service cannot guarantee every applicant a job, but unless persons desiring work have an application on file, it is obvious that recommendations cannot be made when job opportunities develop.

Farmers and all others needing help are encouraged to consult Clarence Sjolander, who is in charge of the local office. If both employers and employes use the office of the Minnesota state employment service as a labor clearing house, the best interests of the community will be served.

ACTION PUT OFF ON OFFERS FOR DIESEL ENGINE

Three Bids Opened Monday Average in Vicinity of $100,000

3 COUNCILMEN FAVOR BUSCH-SULZER UNIT

Two for Fairbanks Morse; to Seek Reduction in Total Cost of Project

After devoting two sessions to considering three bids on a 1750 horsepower Diesel unit for the municipal power plant, all of which ran higher than had been anticipated, the city council voted to defer final action until next week. Four ballots were taken in the course of the two sessions, resulting in three votes for a Busch-Sulzer engine and two for a Fairbanks Morse unit. Alderman P. O. Myhrum was unable to be present owing to illness.

Pending next week's meeting, Ralph D. Thomas & Associates of Minneapolis, engineers on the project represented by O. J. Pfeiffer, were instructed to prepare revised estimates on the building to house the unit, including estimates on a structure to house only one unit instead of making provision for another engine to be added at some future time.

The Fairbanks Morse & company low bid was on the basis of $94,897 for a ten-cylinder engine yielding 1750 horsepower and 1250 kilowatts. The unit operates at 300 revolutions per minute, is 35 feet nine inches in length and weighs 180,000 pounds. Delivery date is specified within 105 days.

The next lowest bid, that of the Busch-Sulzer company of St. Louis, was $103,487 for a five-cylinder engine operating at a speed of 240 revolutions per minute and yielding 1700 horsepower and 1190 kilowatts. The unit is 26 feet 1½ inches long and weighs 188,000 pounds. Delivery would be made in 200 days.

Highest bid was that of the Nordberg Manufacturing company of Milwaukee, in the amount of $104,850 for a seven-cylinder 1750 horsepower unit, this offer failing to receive any affirmative votes.

On the basis of tentative estimates made at Tuesday night's session, it was indicated that the total cost of the completed project might be kept below $155,000, items in addition to the cost of the engine being estimated at $10,800 for switchboard and station wiring; $22,000 for the building; $7,-000 for pumps and piping; $2,800 for engine foundation; and $4,500 for engineering fees.

The cost of the work, on this basis, would be met by the proceeds of the $130,000 bond issue recently sold, together with the balance taken from cash on hand in the water and light department fund.

The present equipment of the power plant includes, in addition to the water turbines, a large Busch-Sulzer unit acquired about five years ago, as well as a McIntosh & Seymour unit installed in 1930 and two old Busch-Sulzer engines.

Auxiliary Notes

The American Legion and Auxiliary wish to thank the public in their cooperation and support during their poppy sale. The American Legion poppies are made by the disabled veterans in the poppy work room in Minneapolis. Each veteran received a certain amount for work to be spent for his dependents. Aside from the actual cost of the poppies, the proceeds of the sale are spent entirely locally, spending being supervised by the welfare board.

The poppy posters used for advertising this sale are made in art classes of the public schools and the Auxiliary awards prizes for same.

For the past twenty years the American Legion Auxiliary has been carrying on their work, and their official poppy day is the Saturday preceding Memorial Day. Just twice a year—on poppy day and forget-me-not day—does the Auxiliary ask for this small contribution from the public, and the funds so collected are placed in a separate account and used for welfare work only.

The welfare committee reports this money spent as follows: two hundred dollars spent in care of eyes, teeth, and tonsils, and hospitalization in some cases. A. D. C. procured for mothers and children. Veterans claims placed for investigation. Twenty six Christmas baskets for the needy, clothing supplied, etc.

Signed by Welfare Committee,
Mrs. A. W. Swedenborg

SPRINGER HAS FOUR DRUMSTICKS AT OLIVIA

Olivia—A four legged chicken at the Olivia Hatchery is the object of much curiosity and comment at the present time, but unaware of its sudden popularity, the queer little creature timidly goes on living its natural life. Normal in every other respect, the little chick may grow to give someone a rare treat—that of feasting on four drumsticks instead of the customary two.

2 Former Lincoln High School Students Faring Well on Dakota Elevens

Two former Lincoln High School football stars may be regulars at identical positions for the two major North Dakota college elevens next fall. Gordon Caldis was rated the number one right halfback at the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks during the annual spring training season recently completed.

At Fargo Pomeroy Hill enjoyed a similar rating on North Dakota State college's team. According to the coaches at the two schools, C. A. "Jack" West of the university, and C. C. "Casey" Finnegan of the AC, Caldis and Hill earned their positions by their greatly improved play this spring.

Hill was used last fall as a part time regular while Caldis saw most of his action as a substitute although he did start a few games. Hill's forte is ball carrying while Caldis has been most effective as a blocking back. Last fall North Dakota State was well stocked with ball carriers so Hill's blocking game was concentrated upon. This spring he has been a consistent ground gainer so next fall will probably find him doing a greater portion of the ball carrying.

Caldis was the Prowler's regular fullback on the undefeated 1938 team while Hill was a first string halfback in 1935 and 1936. Hill finished his prep career at Fargo high where he was given all state mention in 1938.

Hunt Is in Progress for Aquatennial Queen

The search for Minnesota's Queen of the Lakes, who is to rule over the Minneapolis Aquatennial, July 20 to 28, is under way. Entrants need not appear in bathing suits. Charm, beauty and graciousness, combined, are what the judges will be most interested in, Nate Crabtree, vice-chairman, announced today. A sectional contest will be a feature of the Detroit Lakes Annual Northwest Water Carnival, July 12 to 14. Any Minnesota girl between 18 and 25 years of age is eligible to compete. The grand prize will be a circle via the Southwest and Chicago.

LANDS RECORD TROUT

Preston.—Knute Underbakke of Canton broke all existing trout records in this area when he successfully landed a 10½ pound German brown trout from the Wisel creek in Preble township. The monster measured all of 40 inches and was more fish than Knute's large family could consume at one meal. Believe it or not, the big fellow was caught on a worm.

These Trees of Mine

By Mrs. E. E. Zah

So many of my shrubs or little trees are volunteers, sown by the wind, the birds or the squirrels, but I value them none the less because of that. The hazel nut bush was planted by a squirrel and most of the others by birds. Do you know that nearly all of the nut bearing trees in the United States were planted by squirrels? Butternuts, black walnuts, hazel nuts, as well as the oaks and many others we owe to the squirrels.

It is really quite exhausting to watch my gray squirrels burying acorns all day long after a good acorn year. To one who is fussy about their lawn it is something else than exhausting to watch them dig the acorns the next spring and summer. The lawn looks as if it had suffered a severe case of small pox. Of course it is the nuts that they miss that make the future generation of trees.

My largest group of volunteers is in a square just behind the house where a tent stood for several years while the children were growing up. We slept there each summer until the glass of water on the stand by the bed would freeze solid, then we went back to the house. One particularly cold night one of the children said, "Mother, if we were so poor that we had to sleep out like this wouldn't everybody feel sorry for us?" But finally we were done with the tent and the board floor was taken up, leaving an ugly black square of bare soil. My husband wanted to sow it to grass and make it a part of the lawn but I begged to have it for a little flower garden and of course I had my way. I planted two hydrangeas, some tiger lilies and a number of other perenials and, little later, an apple tree. But nothing thrived. They did not die but they would not grow. For one thing it was too shady. For another the sun had been shut away from the earth too long.

But Mother Nature had tricks up her sleeve. Though she had been in the dark, she had not been asleep. She had a flock of children waiting to do their bit as soon as they were given a chance, children moreover who were more used to fending for themselves than the ones I had set out. So presently we had several plum trees, two or three choke cherries, one high bush cranberry, two or three dogwood, golden rod, meadow rue, fall aster and several other odds and ends. Once in a while a sickly tiger lily or a pale oriental poppy makes a feeble effort to prove that it still lives but nature has taken over.

This bunch of volunteers does not look as well as the lawn would have looked, I have to admit, but it is a nice place for the birds, especially when the choke cherry tree is full of fruit, and as there is a bath and a feeding pan near by, they have all of the comforts of home.

Union Building at "U" Now Nearing Completion

Under construction for less than a year, the new Coffman Memorial Union on the University of Minnesota campus is nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy when college reopens next fall. It is much the largest building on the campus, outrivaling in size the big Northrop Memorial Auditorium that was constructed ten years ago. The new Union will provide recreational and social centers for both men and women students, whose buildings for those purposes have been separate hitherto. The Coffman Memorial Union is a PWA project, the federal government having contributed $995,000, as 45 per cent of the cost, and the structure must be completed on PWA schedule. No tax money is involved in the cost of the building. Gifts, certain surpluses from campus service enterprises, and a $400,000 loan at one and a half per cent interest have provided the money over and above the sum that came from PWA.

6,000 Acres in State Reforested This Year

Minnesota is restocking 6,000 acres of forest land this spring with Norway, white and jack pine and white spruce, according to figures released this week by Clarence Prout in charge of forest management, division of forestry. An average of 1,000 trees are planted to the acre. They are seedlings from two to three years old, grown at state nurseries. Ten CCC camps are working with the Division of Forestry in restocking the forests.

A SICK CARIBOU?

"Sadie" is one of a dozen dwindling caribou left in the United States. Through some mysterious ailment she has lost her muscular co-ordination. Hanweiller who brought her from the reservation is shown holding her.

Why does cutting affect its value?
The style and accuracy of cutting control the brilliance of a diamond . . . and brilliance is one of the important standards of value.
Too deep, too shallow or inaccurate cutting allows light to escape needlessly . . . dulls the "fire" of the stone, and reduces its value per carat. In the process of re-cutting a diamond to modern standards of brilliance, as much as one-quarter of its carat weight may be lost.
We shall gladly show you the importance of accurate, modern cutting . . . and shall also explain the three other qualities which determine the real value of any diamond you buy.

RED CROSS SEEKS $20,000,000 FOR REFUGEE RELIEF

Million Dollar Shipment Is Slated to Depart for Europe This Week

Supported by leaders in every phase of public life, Red Cross chapters redoubled efforts this week to raise the $20,000,000 Red Cross war relief fund. Meanwhile a 9,000-ton "mercy ship" was scheduled to sail this week for France with a million-dollar cargo of American Red Cross relief supplies.

The ship is loaded with clothing, drugs, soap, gauze, dried fruits, canned soups, meat, milk, vegetables and a number of auxiliary hospital trucks. Earlier, Red Cross emergency supplies were rushed to the war zone by clipper plane. Ten American Red Cross disaster workers are now in Europe, and funds nearing the million mark have been cabled overseas by the organization to date for desperately needed supplies to fill the most immediate needs of more than 5,000,000 homeless, destitute war-sufferers.

The war fund goal was increased to $20,000,000 to help meet a refuge problem of "unprecedented and unforseen proportions," William M. Baxter, Jr., manager of the Red Cross Midwestern area, said today.

"After the tragic events of the past weeks the $10,000,000 originally asked by the American Red Cross will be insufficient to cope with the desperate need in Europe today," he said. "America is the one outstanding neutral nation where these suffering people can turn for aid. Unless their plight is quickly relieved, there can be little hope for these stricken populations against actual hunger and disease. I cannot stress too strongly the urgency of this need."

Early this week contributions had passed $5,000,000, Baxter said. Many chapters had oversubscribed their original quotas, the majority had doubled them, and a number had even tripled them, in the face of the rapidly multiplying needs, the Red Cross official pointed out.

7 PCT. OF FARMS IN MINNESOTA OWNED BY CORPORATIONS

Foreclosed Properties in Hands of Unwilling Owners

How much of Minnesota's farm land has passed into the hands of credit agencies and other large corporations? What are the reasons farm families have been losing in their struggle to hold their land? The answers to these burning questions were sought by A. M. Myrom and A. A. Dowell of the agricultural economics division at University Farm, St. Paul.

Nearly seven per cent of all farm land in the state was owned by the Federal Land Bank and Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, the State Department of Rural Credit or insurance companies, at the beginning of 1939, according to the findings of these men. Other corporations, including open and closed banks and miscellaneous mortgage, investment and trust companies, also held farms, but the first group named was most important.

The per cent of all farms held by these agencies varied greatly in different sections of the state, however. Only about one per cent of the farm land in the Twin Cities area was owned by these agencies, while nearly 12 per cent was held in the west central section. Corporate ownership was low in most of the southeastern area of the state, but individual counties in western areas had as high as 19 per cent of all farms company-owned.

In general it was found that the foreclosed properties are in the hands of unwilling owners who are anxious to dispose of them. Consequently much of the corporate ownership is temporary and it may be expected to decrease as conditions improve.

G. H. Mayer-Oakes to Conduct Summer Term in Lincoln High School

The regular summer session of the Lincoln high school conducted by arrangement with the board of education and Supt. Morris Bye, will open on Monday, June 10, according to an announcement by G. H. Mayer-Oakes who will be in charge.

For the past several years this summer session of the local high school has provided an opportunity for students to make up back work or to obtain credits needed for college entrance and missed during the regular course. Students have been enrolled from schools many miles from Thief River Falls as well as from this immediate locality.

According to Dr. Mayer-Oakes there are no classes in any subject but each student works at his own pace and tackles his own problems. In this way students learn study habits which are invaluable to them in later courses.

To Open Bids Tuesday on Erection of Rural Electrification Lines

As announced in the Times last week, bids on construction of lines for the Red Lake Electric Cooperative will be opened in the court house in Red Lake Falls Tuesday afternoon, June 11, at 2 o'clock. C. L. Palmerton of Ellerbe & Company of St. Paul, engineers on the project, and his assistant, Vernon Anderson, are at work this week staking out the lines, which aggregate 238 miles in length in Pennington, Red Lake and Marshall counties. Mr. Palmerton said today, "I wish to ask all the members to cooperate with the easement and staking crews, as I know you will. In this way we will have our project completed according to schedule, and we will all soon enjoy the conveniences which electrical energy alone can give".

First Summer Session at Minnesota "U" Will Get Under Way June 17

Exactly one day, a Sunday, will elapse between the close of the regular college year at the University of Minneapolis and the opening of the first summer session, June 17, which promises to be one of the largest in the university's history.

T. A. H. Teeter, summer school director, has announced that advance inquiries, which in March were 20 percent greater than those of the same time last year, were 10 percent greater in April. He has no idea that attendance will grow in the same ratio, but feels these figures indicate a marked increase in enrollment.

Approximately 6,000 are expected to attend the first session, a majority of them public school teachers, whose way to professional advancement and salary increases often lies through the work taken for self improvement in university summer schools.

Every state in the Union and every county in Minnesota will be included among the districts from which students are drawn. The first session will start June 17 and run through July 27. The second session, drawing another 2,500, will run from July 29 to August 30. All colleges of the university except the Law School will offer summer courses.

DAIRY MONTH TO BE MARKED OVER NATION IN JUNE

Campaign Designed to Promote Increased Use of Dairy Products

Hundreds of Minnesota communities are completing plans for participation in the activities of National Dairy Month which starts Saturday.

This great nationwide movement which is designed to stimulate increased use of milk, butter, cheese, ice cream and other dairy foods, is being directed by a producers' committee headed by W. S. Moscrip of Lake Elmo, president of the Twin City Milk Producers Association.

Minnesota in the last two years took a commanding lead in the extent and variety of activities to promote Dairy Month and even greater efforts are being made this year. Many local committees of producers and processors of dairy products, business men and civic groups have been named so that each community can develop its own program.

With dairying the leading agricultural industry of Minnesota the prosperity of the entire state depends in no small degree on the success of the dairy farmers. General public support of the month through increased consumption of dairy products will be a boom to the industry which is of vital importance to everyone.

Both chain and independent stores have been provided with poster material through the National Dairy Council which will be displayed during the month. Many stores are planning special window and interior store displays of dairy products and will emphasize them in their advertising and sales programs.

Road Workers to Guard Game Birds on Roadside

Conservation department and state highway officials are cooperating to give nesting birds a break along Minnesota's roadways this season. To avoid distributing game bird nests, road-side cuttings by the state highway department will be delayed until June 15. Officials hope to save thousands of game bird eggs and nesting birds. Minnesota farmers are urged to use a flushing bar on their mowers in the hayfields if it is necessary to cut before the game bird nesting season is over. The action of the flushing bar helps frighten the birds away before they can be harmed by the cutting knife. Directions for making the bar are simple and are explained in leaflets distributed by the State Division of Game and Fish.

DIVISION ENGINEER REJECTS ROSEAU RIVER PROPOSAL

Says Cost of Flood Control Project Would Exceed Benefits

The report on the Roseau River Flood Control Project has been forwarded to Washington by the office of the divisional engineer of divisional headquarters in St. Louis, and is unfavorable to the project, says the Roseau Times-Region. The report was mandatory under the Flood Control Act of June 22, 1936.

The statement by the divisional office as issued by Malcolm Elliott, colonel of the corps of engineers, and the divisional engineer, is as follows:

"The report has been made and is unfavorable to participation by the United States in any improvement for flood control by measures for which the War Department is responsible. The principal ground upon which the adverse conclusion is based is that the costs of any such flood control improvement would be in excess of resulting benefits."

The statement went on to say that all interested parties had the privilege of an appeal from this conclusion to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, a permanent body sitting at Washington, D. C., to which all examination and survey reports of this character are referred.

SMILEY

Tragedy

Little ten years old Ronald Haynes was killed Friday evening towards twilight. A more shocking incident could not possibly have occurred. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Haynes of this community. Young Ronald was helping his father hauling out manure with the spreader on his grandparent's farm, the L. O. Stenseth's late Friday afternoon. The horses became frightened at something that broke on the spreader and a runaway resulted. The young fellow decided to jump off the spreader and then he somehow or other landed in the way of the wheel which crushed his vertebrae and pelvis bones so badly that he lived only two hours after at the hospital in Thief River Falls. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Larson Funeral home, with Rev. E. A. Cooke, officiating. The entire community mourns the loss of the promising young lad and, indeed, do the Smiley folks extend the very sincerest condolences to those bereaved families, the Haynes and Stenseths.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Weckwerth motored to Fargo Saturday. On their return they were accompanied by their son James who will spend the summer vacation at his parental home. James attended the International State Business College the past term.

Visitors at the Ted Lendobeja home in Kratka Memorial evening were Mr. and Mrs. Adam Lendobeja and daughter Dianne.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hackett and daughter of Eldred were Sunday visitors at the Marion Cater home.

Mrs. S. S. Nelson spent Wednesday in Moorhead. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Hafdahl of Kratka. While in Moorhead, Mrs. Nelson visited with former folks from this community, the Iver Kvalheim's. The Kvalheims used to live, eleven years ago, on the farm the Sig Sigurdson's now occupy. The Hafdal's visited their daughter, Grace, who accompanied them on their return home. Miss Grace had been attending the Moorhead Teacher's College the past year. She taught in the Sunnybrook school, Dist. 51 a year ago. She plans to return to the college this fall for further study.

Indian Agency Outers

The Freeman Allen's accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Korupp and three daughters of Thief River Falls made a very enjoyable trip up in the Red Lake vicinity Sunday. They did some sight seeing in and around Redby; they had a picnic dinner there, and they bought lots of fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bjorge and son Marlyn visited at the Henry Hanson home Sunday evening. The Hanson's are now nicely settled on the farm to which they recently moved. They lived on the former Braaten place this winter.

The St. Pauli Ladies aid meets at the Ole Valavik home Thursday afternoon, June 6. The hostesses, Mrs. Ole Valavik and Mrs. Martha Lokken extend a sincere welcome to everyone to come and get a delicious lunch and visit one another.

Wednesday evening visitors at the Adam Lendobeja home were Mrs. Lendobeja's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and children and a niece, Miss Olive Jorde of Steiner who is visiting at the Johnson home. Miss Jorde was one of the Lincoln High School graduates last week.

Mrs. Grace Cabot and sons Hugh and Alan returned Friday evening from a visit to the Cities. They also spent a few days with relatives and friends at Sullivan Lake near Mille Lacs.

The Smiley Community club met Friday evening. The excellent program that was prepared suddenly dissolved. Dr. Hulbert was to have been the Memorial speaker, but was unable to come at the last moment. Young Miss Delores Sigurdson, the county champion orator, came down with a typical old-fashioned "flu". The one act play "It Can't Be Done" was not presented at this time. But, at any rate, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hitterdal of Thief River Falls gave a number of musical selections which seemed to satisfy everyone pleasantly. A social time was enjoyed and a lunch was served. Our next meeting, June 28, we hope will be more successful, as it should be, with a dandy program committee in charge of a 4-H theme meeting. The committee is composed of the Owen Weckwerths, chairmen, the Norton Nelsons and the Mark Olsons. The refreshment committee consists of the Freeman Allens chairmen, the Leonard Helgelands and Will McCrum.

Earl Sefkow of St. Cloud is visiting his sister, Mrs. Marion Cater and her family.

Mrs. O. C. Parabst (Katie Dahl) and her mother, Mrs. John Dahl of Thief River Falls visited Memorial Day at the O. N. Olson home. The Dahl's homesteaded on the Olson farm years ago and had many an interesting tale to tell of their hardships in those days on that very farm.

"Family Feeders" Meet

Thirteen members were present at the lovely meeting of the South Smiley unit of "Feeding the family" Tuesday afternoon, May 28. The meeting was held at the Norton Nelson home with thirteen members present. Mrs. S. S. Nelson and Mrs. Ole Lian brought out the interesting points of the lesson, "Food Makes a Difference". Arguments were thoroughly debated and enjoyed. The leaders showed us some good foot exercises too that are so beneficial to those poor over worked feet of all those farm women who must be forever walking from dawn till night. Lunch was served by the Meadames Norton Nelson, Carl E. Olson, Jim McCrum, S. S. Nelson, and Martin Rehm. The next meeting will be held at the Freeman Allen home, Wednesday, June 26. Hostesses will be Mrs. O. N. Olson, Mrs. Gust Gustafson, Mrs. Herman Rude, Mrs. Marion Cater, and Mrs. Mark Olson.

Smiley Group II

The members of this group on the north side of the river met on Wednesday afternoon, May 22nd at the Edwin Helgeland home. Twelve members were present one of whom was a new member, Mrs. Elias Angell. The leaders, Mrs. Willis Roese and Mrs. Rollie Haynes produced an excellent lesson on Food and vitamins, their value and purpose. Discussions were also carried on among the members. Most of the members ordered charts for their personal use, and the majority have really taken the exercises daily and have improved their posture and carriage. Hostesses were Mrs. Henry Bolstad and Mrs. Sivert Brakke who served a delicious lunch. The next meeting of this group will be at the A. B. Newton home Friday, June 21, with Mrs. Clifford Helgeland, Mrs. Adam Lendobeja and Mrs. Elias Angell as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rude and children accompanied by Mr. Rude's mother, Mrs. John Rude motored to Karlstad Sunday, where they visited at the LeVoy Rude home. The elder Mrs. Rude remained at her son LeVoy's home for a longer visit while the Herman Rude's returned the same evening.

Mrs. Gertrude Sundberg is back home again from an extended visit at her daughter's home in Norden, the Oswald Norn's. Mrs. Norn and her two sons are visiting a short while at the Sundberg home.

Members of the Helperettes club will meet Wednesday afternoon, June 12 at the Al Kraemer home. There's lots to do that afternoon, work on Mrs. Kraemers' friendship quilt and make plans for the picnic, so the members are requested to be sure and be present as early as possible.

Miss Thordis Svensgaard made a business trip to Fargo last week returning to the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Lendobeja Friday evening for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Korupp of Thief River Falls spent Wednesday evening at the Sadie Ayer's home in Norden. While there they enjoyed the evening visiting with Mrs. Ayer's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. M. McCawley and daughter of Albert Lea.

Mr. and Mrs. George Matske and family of St. Paul spent last week visiting Mr. Matske's brother Harold and his family.

The Zion Luther League will be entertained at the O. N. Olson farm home Sunday evening, June 16. The hostesses will be Clara Olson and Mrs. Gilfred Hannes. They beg you to remember the date and place and that you will be cordially welcome to come and spend a pleasant evening with them.

Over night guests Thursday at the Willis Roese home were the following folks, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bakke and son Lawrence of Emerado, N. D. and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chapman of Hilverton. Mrs. Bakke and Mrs. Roese are the daughters of the Chapman's.

The Bethania Luther League had a business meeting in the church Sunday. Officers elected for the year were President, Mrs. Leonard Helgeland, vice president, Miss Marian Nelson, treasurer, Joe Johnson and secretary, Miss Helen Hardisty. These young folks will be at the helm of the league for the coming year.

The St. Pauli Parochial school ended its six week term with a picnic program Saturday at the church. Over twenty young folks attended with Miss Naomi Johnson of Hazel as instructor.

Delores Roese celebrated her tenth birthday at her parental home Tuesday with Mrs. Leonard Helgeland and her three daughters and the Roese family helping her.

Plans are being made for the neighborhood farmers to get together soon to build a walking bridge across the river by the Hall for temporary use until a new full bridge is built. Anyone interested in helping will be notified when work will start.

Official Paper of Pennington County and City of Thief River Falls

NO ONE KNOWS ABOUT THE FUTURE

There is a difference of opinion among members of the city council as to which of three offers for the sale of diesel engines should be accepted. After trying in vain at two meetings to reach an agreement, the question has been postponed until next week.

That there should be a difference of opinion on such a matter is not strange. It perhaps would be more strange if there were no differences. After all, it is a large sum of money that is being spent for equipment about which none of the members of the council have much knowledge — less knowledge, for instance, than they have about automobiles. And who is so smart that they know definitely which automobile is the best buy. It is to be expected, therefore, that any council buying a diesel engine will be guided largely by opinions, prejudices and guesswork. So as far as we are concerned, whichever make of engine they finally agree upon will be satisfactory to us.

We do believe, however, that the council should reconsider the question of size of unit to be purchased. Engineers who recommend the large units now being considered admit that present needs do not justify the purchase of so large a unit. Their recommendations are based on estimates of what our future needs may be, assuming that the city will continue to grow as it has grown in recent years. That is the kind of reasoning that led the school district, twenty years ago, to build the Knox school so large that even today only half of it is being used. We are of those who believe the city will continue to grow but when we buy printing machinery we buy for present needs and not for what our needs may be ten years from now. When the new high school was built, some allowance was made for expansion, but not a great deal, and we believe the school board in this instance built more wisely than the board that built the Knox school. As our city increases in size we will be able to add to our power equipment.

And we believe two smaller units, if the addition of another unit becomes necessary in a few years, will provide a greater margin of safety against interruptions of service than one large unit. At the present time the new unit now being considered would be able to handle the entire load of the city at all times. Most of the time, however, it would be operating at less than half its capacity. Only for a few hours of the week, a few weeks of the year, would all of its capacity be required. That doesn't seem to be a reasonable arrangement and some engineers with whom we have discussed the problem tell us it isn't reasonable. The unit now being considered would cost nearly twice as much as a smaller unit, the size of the largest one now operating in our plant. And the purchase of a smaller unit at this time would enable the council to confine its investment to the limit approved by the citizens at the special bond election. To buy the larger unit would force the city to dip into its comfortable cash reserve, a reserve that may be needed for other purposes in the near future.

One of the arguments advanced in favor of speedy action when the proposed bond issue was submitted to the voters a few months ago was that the city was confronted by an emergency, that if we did not act quickly we might find ourselves in darkness next Christmas. Now that we know the new engine, even if we buy it at once, will not be installed by next Christmas, we can quit worrying about the emergency. If we take a little more time now to consider the problem we will not be adding to the probability of service interruptions next winter.

That an additional unit must be added to the power plant there is no question. And there seems to be little difference of opinion among engineers as to the size of unit that would best serve our present needs. The differences of opinion as to the size apparently are based on possible future needs and no one, certainly, knows much about what the future will bring us. A few years, for instance, may bring improvements in engine construction that will make all of our present equipment obsolete. So from every standpoint, as we see it, we will be wise if we provide as best we can for present needs and solve the problems of the future as we face them.

In spite of the fact that it was a disastrous defeat, the conduct of the allied army in its retreat from Flanders and Northern France was more encouraging than any event of the war to date. To conduct an orderly retreat under pressure, under any circumstances, is a difficult military maneuver. It requires greater courage and a higher morale than an advance by a successful army that is spurred on by the elation of victory. Any army that is able to cover its retreat successfully, under circumstances so discouraging as those faced by the allied forces in their withdrawal from France, deserves the highest respect. Such an army may eventually be overpowered but the enemy that does conquer it will pay dearly for the victory. The prospect is brighter.

Crops hereabouts this year are certain to be discouraging. They couldn't possibly come up to the present fine expectations.

WHAT WILL ITALY DO?

Things happen fast in Europe these days and one guess is as good as another as to what the next day's developments will be. One of the present interesting uncertainties is the course to be followed by Mussolini and his Italian war machine. He has been shaking a sabre at the Allies for some time now but, in spite of their already distressing condition, the Allies seem to show no disposition to yield to whatever demands he is making. They apparently do not fear him as much as he would like to be feared. That this may be true, and the possible reason for it, is explained as follows by the Foreign Editor of Business Week, who has recently returned from Europe.

> The British blockade is stifling all Italy's dreams of making a haul in this war by playing middle-man to Germany and going after hastily abandoned German and Allied markets abroad. Behind all his blustering, Mussolini is genuinely alarmed over his supply situation. He boasted a year ago that he could put eight million soldiers in the field if necessary, but it is common knowledge in Milan—Italy's hard-boiled industrial center—that the country couldn't supply boots to half this number of soldiers.
> During the last seven months in which Italians have been frantically rushing their new Badoglio Line (stretching—no one explains why—along Italy's German frontier from Switzerland to Yugoslavia) all but the most essential building projects, even in industrially important Milan, have had to be stopped because of the shortage of cement, and this great city has been combed of skilled workmen. Italy's remarkable synthetic textile industry has even been forced to curtail its output, despite good export demand, because of curtailed deliveries of coal to all non-military industries. Those who do not know the real economic situation, and who have not been in the country in the last two years scarcely realize how perceptibly Italy is "slowing down," along with Il Duce, from the feverish pace he set for the first 15 years after his "march on Rome" in 1922. Rome's recent vitriolic attacks on the Allies are much more alarming to the general public than to the people who know Italy's real economic plight.

If Thief River Falls is a typical American city, if the people of this community average up in their reactions with the rest of the country, and if we gauge the sentiment in this community correctly, then there is an increasing sentiment in this country in favor of our government giving all possible assistance to the democracies of Europe.

There were many favorable comments on the beauty of Elks park at the Memorial Day exercises last week. Old timers, who remember when the park was a public dump, are perhaps more appreciative of what has been accomplished than those who have seen it only as it is. Of historical interest is the fact that, dating back to the pre-dump days, the old boat landing was located at this point, the home port for the crews of several steamers that operated up the river and on the Red Lakes. There was romance on the river in those days. And there still is, if we can believe sources that are usually reliable.

A new record for power production by water was established during May when the river gave us more than a quarter of a million kilowatts. Credit for this record volume should go to the weed cutting operations of the light department last summer. Without an open channel much of the water now being released from the Red Lakes probably would be spread out over the reservation flats, possibly causing a flood condition in the eastern end of the county. The weed cutting has proven to be a good investment.

HOW NORWAY WAS KNOCKED OVER

(Colliers)

> Leland Stowe's sensational report that a huge and beautifully executed German plot was what knocked over southern Norway for the Nazis was an excellent story, deserving all the credit it got.
>
> But according to stories that have come out since, there was more to the episode than just a German plot. The whole story is one we think believers in democracy would do well to get firmly fixed in mind.
>
> It's true that Hitler's agile secret agents had wormed themselves into many a key Norway position, to pull switches and send out fake orders and snitch essential gun parts when Der Tag should arrive.
>
> It's also true that Hitler's government sprung the almost incredibly dirty trick of sending with its first invading contingents a raft of Germans who had been taken in as starving children by kindly Norwegians after the World War, and who therefore knew the Norse language and geography.
>
> But those weren't the only reasons why southern Norway and the best Norwegian ports caved almost at the snap of Hitler's fingers. There were internal reasons as well as external.
>
> For one, class hatred had widened the capital-labor split in Norway so far that the two elements couldn't close ranks in a hurry. The admiral who gave the cease-firing and surrender orders belonged to Norway's Labor party.
>
> For another reason, most Norwegians had cultivated for decades the notion that a country that wants no quarrel with anybody can count heavily on the naked and beautiful love of peace to save it from war. Superpacifism, in short. Knut Hamsun, world famous Norwegian novelist, was quoted after the coup as saying that Norwegians had been foolish to try to put up any resistance whatever — a surprising utterance.
>
> Many Norwegians, too, evidently had let the blowhard Nazi propaganda frighten them — in strange contrast to the Finns, who had lived for twenty years next door to the biggest blowhard government on earth, but who stood up and fought that government nevertheless.
>
> So what knocked over the best part of Norway was largely this: Democracy's weaknesses, as analyzed by democracy's enemies, got Norway's democracy; just as those enemies and those weaknesses would get any democracy.
>
>
> We can tighten up our antispy system. We can keep closer tabs on members of the Communist party, the Bund and other subversive groups in this country, coolly recognizing them and treating them as the public enemies we know they will be in any national emergency. To neutralize class hate peddlers here, we can carry on our efforts to raise American mass living standards. We can strengthen our defenses by land, by sea, by air. And we can fumigate propaganda with our native common sense.
>
> Norway was a democracy. We hope it will be a democracy again. We can learn from Norway's tragedy how we can go on being a democracy.

"Continental Vanities Revue" at Fair Aug. 1-3

Flo Ziegfeld in his palmiest days could not assemble a more exquisite group of girls than those pictured here, all of whom dance with the grace and skill that only professional training makes possible. They will appear in the five ensembles of "Continental Vanities," a colorful, swiftly-paced musical revue, night attraction before the grandstand at the Pennington County Fair, starting August 1, and continuing through the night of August 3.

WHAT IS WRONG WITH HITLER

Many things are deduced from certain actions of Herr Hitler. For example, recently he gave a remarkably brief talk. He spoke for only 11 minutes. Usually Herr Hitler for any other politician for that matter) can say very little more than "Hello" in 11 minutes.

Denies He's Hitler

Many persons are wondering what this means. Has Hitler's voice become weakened through too much shouting & screaming? Is he really married, as they reported awhile back, and now getting conditioned to saying very little?

To this department, gifted with the clear vision of frosted glass, it is very simple. None of the above answers is right. The plain truth of the matter is that Hitler's eyes are failing him!

It doesn't take powerful detective instincts to see this. He has to wear glasses (very likely he wears them in private right now). So he has to save his breath to clean his glasses with.

Are there any other questions?

Honoring Veterans

The custom of firing three volleys over the grave of a deceased veteran is derived from the old Roman custom of casting earth over the coffin, calling the dead by name three times and then saying "Vale" three times. The word "vale" is the Latin word for farewell. The firing of three volleys is equivalent to saying farewell to the deceased.

South St. Paul, Minn., June 4, 1940: Fed steer and yearling prices slumped 25c on the initial session of the week, but demand improved a little on Tuesday and there was a tendency for values to show a touch of firmness. The upward reaction, however, was not of measurable quantity, according to the Federal State Market News Service, and current levels, except on common grades, are generally 25c under the close of last week. Common kinds held about steady. [illegible] Cows were in good demand and showed strength. Cows, however, which definitely showed grass were subject to some discount from dry fed kinds. MEET FRIDAY TO ORGANIZE LEAGUE FOR DIAMONDBALL

A meeting to organize the summer diamondball program will be held Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Civic and Commerce association room, it was announced today by Ole Engelstad, in charge of arrangements. A league schedule will be drawn up, and it is expected the loop will consist of teams representing Land O' Lakes, Bridgemans, Klewels, Hartz and DeHolay from Thief River Falls, with teams from Red Lake Falls, Viking and Middle River also expected to participate, making an eight-team league. The belated start of league play is due to difficulties encountered in arranging for a lighted diamond for night games. However, facilities are now being provided at the fair grounds.

Plummer Team Takes Revenge on Local Club

Bunching five hits, with a catcher's balk, and an error, the Plummer Red Sox scored three runs in the eighth inning of the Northern Minny league game played here Sunday, to break up a pitcher's duel between Hemmy Sahl and Arv Mortrude, and to win the game by a 5 to 2 score. The defeat dropped the locals into tie for second place in the league standings, and gave the league lead to the undefeated St. Hilaire club.

Another Northern Minny league game is on tap for next Sunday, when the Oklee team will play the locals on the fair grounds diamond.

Plummer opened the scoring in the first inning, when Schoenauer singled, stole second, and scored on Mortrude's single to center field. Thief River knotted the score in the third inning, when Nick Stromberg punched a single to left center, was sacrificed to second on Roy Lee's bunt, stole third base, and scored when catcher Scholl threw the ball into left field.

Wally DuChamp's infield hit, Hellquist's sacrifice, and an error, gave the locals a tally in the fifth inning, and sent them into the lead. Plummer evened the count in the seventh frame, when Lefty Fremling dropped a single into left field, stole second, reached third on an error, and scored when Hemmy Sahl sent a wild pitch into the dirt, and to bring the game score to 2 all.

And then came the disastrous eighth inning, when Plummer won the ball game. Schoenauer singled to left field, Hoflus singled to center, St. Marie singled to left, scoring Schoenauer, and Hoflus scored when Bergstrom committed a catcher's balk. Mortrude singled over second, and St. Marie scored when the throw to first base on Mortrude's hit went wide. Mortrude was thrown out attempting to steal third, and then Fremling singled to center, the fifth consecutive hit off Sahl, but Hemmy struck out Jaspers, and forced Scholl to hoist a fly to Hellquist, to end the inning, and the game's scoring.

Until this eighth inning Sahl had pitched three hit baseball, while Mortrude had permitted four hits in the eight innings. Both pitchers had fine control, with Sahl issuing only one base on balls, while Mortrude did not allow a walk.

Diamondball

The electric light poles are being erected at the Fair Grounds, to hold the reflectors and bulbs for night play, and when the schedule and final arrangements are completed at Friday's meeting, the D-ball season will finally get under way. They will have to hustle right along if they are going to complete a full season of play.

I've gotten myself a new 'dope' bucket. The one I had turned sour on me during the regional basketball tournament, when I picked the Prowlers to win. But this new one is guaranteed to give out sweet stuff, and some of this stuff is to the effect that Walt Larson and his Land O'Lakes team will win the city D-ball championship. According to the 'bucket' the race won't even be close, except for second place. Look at the aggregation that Walt has signed up: Oscar Bakke, to catch; Stan Cockrell, at first; Walt Ekeren, second; Jesse DuChamp, shortstop; Jim Sletten, third base; Jim Kelly or Ole Engelstad, short field; Abner Stromberg, left field; Mighty Andy Anderson, center field; Duran Anderson, in right field; with Gordon Omar Ballangrud, as the probable starting pitcher. And then there is manager Walt to cook up strategy from the bench. With the exceptions of Gordy Ballangrud and Jesse DuChamp, who have a slight weakness for blondes, there is not a weak spot in the line-up. Man for man, position for position, and manager for manager, Land O'Lakes have the best balanced team in the league. And then, too, they have new gabardine pants. I suppose Clarence Offerdahl, of the Hartz, and Ole Ness, of the Klewel's, think that I got this new bucket of mine at the Land O' Lakes. That's not so.

Kevin O'Malley

Young Kevin O'Malley, who was just graduated from St. John's prep school, received a great deal of favorable publicity from the Twin City papers last week-end because of his athletic achievements. Kevin attended high school here during his sophomore year, and was a member of the football, basketball, and tennis squads. The family moved to Crookston in 1938, and Kevin played football and basketball there, being elected captain of the 1939 football team. But he did not remain at Crookston for his senior year, for in September, 1939, he enrolled at St. John's prep school, where he distinguished himself at fullback on the football team, at forward on the basketball team, and as first baseman and leading hitter on the baseball team. In addition he was a member of the tennis squad.

Gustavus Retains Baseball Title

Gustavus Adolphus, coached by 'Bump' Gabrielson, and with Louie Benson on its pitching staff, succeeded in retaining its state college baseball championship, when it nosed out St. John's, 7 to 5, in a game played at St. John's last week. The win gave the Gusties a half game lead over the runners-up Hamline and St. Thomas nines. According to the latest reports, Louie is going to play ball for St. Peter this year.

Hockey Player Reported Killed

Al Stenberg received information to the effect that 'Mosse' Dionne, a defenseman on Hallock's championship States-Dominion hockey team of two years ago, was reported killed in action during the Allied siege on Narvik, Norway. Reports such as this tend to bring the war quite a bit nearer.

Fishing

Mostly good; that's the reports that fishermen are bringing in. Nice catches have been made all along the river here, north of the Squaw Point bridge, up along the Red Lake river to the old Conklin farm, and in the pool above the dam. Bullheads, northern pike, and wall-eyes, have been on the stringers. Phil, Milton, and Justus Larson, J. P. Curtis, and Matt Mattson, were up at Wheeler's Point, on Lake of the Woods, on Sunday and Monday, and they came back with limit catches of wall-eyes, and a couple of these pike weighed about five pounds each. The bait used was a prescott spinner and a minnow. I was up there last Friday, but the pike weren't very anxious to strike, and it was only after four hours of hard fishing, trolling and casting, that we got our limit, and the pike we did catch were small. Lake Winnibigoshish, according to Oscar Ellingson and Johnny Jacobson, was good last Sunday; but the larger wall-eyes were being caught in the river, between Cass Lake and Winnibigoshish. 38 were the lake trout that Lincoln Arnold, Erv Swanson, Paul and Doctor Mellby brought back from their trip into Ontario and the Crow Lake region. A seven and a half pounder was the largest one landed, and Paul caught that. But you should hear Judge Arnold tell of the big one that got away from him. He'll do it every time.

Manager Krueger's 'gold-plated' Plummer team paid dividends last Sunday when it toppled the Thief River Falls team from its league leadership tie with the St. Hilaire club, handing the Thief River team its first defeat, 5 to 2.

Veteran Bill Hallamack continues to pitch fine ball for St. Hilaire team, and the four runs scored by the CCC Sunday were the first markers that he had allowed in league play.

Games next Sunday will have the Oklee team meeting the local club at Thief River Falls; the CCC at Plummer; and St. Hilaire playing at Red Lake Falls.

RECORD PREMIUMS OF $145,000 FOR MINNESOTA FAIR

Huge Annual Exposition to Open Gates in St. Paul August 24th

Record premiums of $145,758—an all-time high—are being offered for educational exhibits at this year's Minnesota state fair, August 24 to September 2, it was announced by Raymond A. Lee, secretary, today.

Largest share of the $19,465 increase in prize money over a year ago will be distributed as additional premiums to the owners of winning Minnesota livestock, it was pointed out. Cattle, horse, sheep and swine departments will award added prizes to home state breeders in addition to the regular premiums in open competition.

Cattle exhibitors are offered $33,866, an increase of $8,203. A large portion of this will go to dairy cattle breeders as a stimulant to the state dairy business which brings annually an income of $150,000,000. Substantial increases are also offered beef cattle exhibitors.

Horse premiums total $23,183, a $3,000 increase. To owners of prize swine will go $10,500, $1,000 over last year. Additional offerings to sheep and wool departments bring that amount to $3,982 and poultry raisers may collect $4,500.

To thousands of 4-H Club exhibitors is offered $25,000, the largest in club history. This tops by $3,000 last year's premiums and is a token of the appreciation of the management for the excellent achievements of the club members.

Other premiums follow: dairy $800, bee culture $540, agriculture $9,075, horticulture $5,700, fine arts $100, woman's activities $1,800, school exhibits $1,012, races $21,100, and miscellaneous events $4,000.

Premium lists just off the press will be mailed on request by writing to the state fair office, St. Paul, Minn.

A lot of people have the itch for money, but most of them don't want to scratch for it.

THIRD INFANTRY BACK AT FORT SNELLING

An advance detachment of six officers and 219 men of the Third infantry arrived at Fort Snelling last week from winter maneuvers in the Sabine river area of Texas. They will prepare the post for arrival by truck of 1,675 men and 104 officers, the remainder of the regiment, and 22 officers and 75 enlisted men of headquarters staff, Sixth division. Fort Snelling, in the army's "streamlining" program, became division headquarters, while the regiment was in the south.

Last Gravel Section of T. H. 52 to be Surfaced

Announcement by the state highway department that bids will be received on June 14 on two contracts calling for stabilized aggregate base and bituminous surfacing this year on 22.4 miles of T. H. 52, from Evansville northwest to the junction of T. H. 59 south of Fergus Falls, brought "good news" to the more than 60 communities directly served by the 383 miles of this state and federal highway.

These two projects will close the last gravel gap to make T. H. 52 a dustless, all-weather surfaced highway from Prosper, on the Iowa line in southeastern Minnesota, northwest through Rochester, the Twin Cities, St. Cloud, Sauk Centre, Alexandria and Fergus Falls to Moorhead and Fargo, N. D.

The mileage of T. H. 52 is all paved, with the exception of the gravel section northwest of Evansville, and a few miles between Osseo and Minneapolis and two sections of the present route between St. Paul and Hampton, which are bituminous.

STEINER

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crown and little son spent Sunday at Rosewood with relatives.

Mrs. Art Leiren was hurt quite badly when she fell down stairs on Monday with her baby in her arms. She was taken to the hospital at once, and she is much improved at this writing. The baby was not hurt.

Our women's project group No. 1, which met at the Kellerg home Wednesday was well attended. There were 17 members present. Mrs. Ilene Warner read the roll call. Mrs. Olaf Simonson gave a very interesting talk on diet. She also showed some pictures and charts on fruits and vegetables and their vitamins. Mrs. Meyer gave a demonstration on foot exercises. Mrs. Benson of Glendive was the only outside guest. The lunch was served by Mrs. Rausch, Mrs. Solem, Mrs. Agnes Waring and Mrs. Grytdal. The next meeting will be held at the Warner home June 20.

Group No. 2 met at the Steiner hall the same day. Their program was the same as No. 1. The attendance was poor, only six members were able to attend. The next meeting will be held at the Raymond [illegible] farm on June 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Kelberg and family were Sunday guests at the A. Toren home in Middle River.

Ruffed Grouse Numbers Mounting in State, Says Game and Fish Division

Field census counts showing Minnesota's ruffed grouse population is on the upgrade phase of its ten years fluctuation cycle were tabulated this week by the state game and fish division.

Gordon Fredine, state biologist, reported eleven tabulations made by CCC youths in State Forests indicate there were approximately 50 ruffed grouse per square mile on the ranges this spring. The latest spring census figures compare with 30 birds per square mile counted in the spring of 1939. Other counts: 1938, 18 birds per square mile; 1937, too few to enumerate; 1936, 10 birds; 1935, 21 birds.

Figures in game and fish division files indicate the birds reached the low point of the cyclic period in 1937. The peak of the cycle will be reached in the next three or four years—probably around 1944—at the present rate. The division emphasized that all census counts were made in the spring to show the breeding population. All grouse were counted on a strip through sample areas of approximately four miles. In 1939 and 1940, state counts were made on eleven such sample areas.

The division plans to use the census data and the information on grouse fluctuations in determination of the season this autumn.

CATCHES RIDE WITH SISTER AWAY FOR YEARS

Miss Rose Kronfus of Los Angeles, driver of the car, had to take a second glance at the young man before she realized that she had picked up her own brother whom she had not seen in nine years.

Danse Macabre

The black and white spotted Japanese Waltzing Mouse, which whirls around in a wild dance at night with few intervals of quiet, does not dance for joy. Most medical authorities agree that its disposition to waltz is due to a deformity of the brain that has become established in the breed and is transmitted from generation to generation.

LAST YEAR'S ROAD MISHAPS CAUSED $11,500,000 LOSS

Accident Recording Bureau Submits Estimates to Highway Chief

Traffic accidents reported to the state department of highways during 1939 cost Minnesota motorists and pedestrians the cold cash loss of $11,465,815, according to a study just completed by the department's accident recording bureau for Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann.

And these figures do not include all of the misery, suffering, sorrow and loss of time entailed by persons who were directly or indirectly the victims of these accidents. Nor do they include the thousands of unreported accidents in which property losses of less than $50 were suffered by one or more motorists, for such accidents do not have to be reported unless someone suffers a personal injury.

The largest single item of economic loss reported last year was the cost of 564 fatalities. Based on the legal figure of $10,000 for loss of a human life, this item alone totals $5,640,000.

Next in importance was the loss suffered by 8,711 persons, motorists and pedestrians, who suffered traffic accident injuries, averaging in cost $500 in medical, doctor and hospital bills, loss of employment, etc. This figure is placed at $4,355,500.

In addition to fatalities and personal injuries, there were reported last year 9,045 cases of property damage entailing a loss of $1,470,115. Damages ranged from $10 in each of 1,874 accidents, up to individual property losses of $1,000 in 35 reported accidents.

The national Safety Council estimates the total ultimate cost of motor vehicle accidents to be equal to $40,000 for each fatality. On this basis of estimating, Minnesota's economic loss through traffic accidents would be $22,560,000 for last year, which would indicate that the accidents reported fall far short of giving a complete picture of the cost of traffic mishaps.

Extensive Plans Being Mapped for Dairy Month, June Promotion Feature

Minnesota's activities for Dairy Month, which is being observed throughout June, promise to set a new mark in public promotion of an event designed to assist agriculture, W. S. Miscrip, Lake Elmo, Minn., chairman of the Minnesota Dairy Month Committee, said today.

"Reports indicate that not only will stores push the sale of all dairy foods," he said, "but also that many communities are planning outstanding features to bring home to the public the value of dairy products, special emphasis will be placed on greater use of fluid milk.

Unless they are wasted, the milk and cream not consumed as such must be processed. Surpluses of butter and cheese which the country has experienced in recent years have partly resulted from consumption of fluid milk lagging far behind production. Mr. Moscrip said that adult use of milk can be greatly increased.

"U" Farm Authorities Give Hints on Storage in Vegetable Lockers

Two new findings relating to the handling of vegetables in cold storage lockers have been announced at University Farm, St. Paul, as a result of experiments just completed by J. W. Winter of the division of horticulture, and Isabel Noble, associate professor of Home Economics. They are:

A dry pack is preferable to brine for most vegetables. The dry pack is cheaper, easier and gives results equal to brine packing.

Use of square-cornered cartons enclosed in a moisture and vapor-proof bag of transparent cellulose film keeps vegetables as well as glass jars or cylindrical containers of waxed paperboard and is cheaper in two ways—the containers cost less per quart and save much space in the locker.

By taking advantage of these two findings, says Winter, cold storage locker users can cut the costs of storing vegetables almost in half. A locker which holds about 70 one-quart glass jars will hold 150 quarts packed in rectangular cartons at a saving of 3.5 cents per quart in rental cost over a six months' period. The corresponding saving over using paperboard cylinders is 2.5 cents a quart, since an ordinary locker will hold 90 quarts in round cartons.

Dentists usually build a lot of bridges, but complain that folks just won't come across.

SCHOOL BOARD CALLS FOR BIDS ON COAL SUPPLY

Architects Report Washington School Condition not Dangerous

APPROVE SUMMER REPAIR PROGRAM

Miss Adaline Dock, School Librarian, Submits Resignation

The board of education at its June session Monday evening approved a large number of minor improvements to be made in local school buildings during the summer vacation period, voted to call for bids on next winter's coal requirements and heard a preliminary report by Gerald Anderson of the firm of Toltz King & Day, St. Paul architects, on the condition of the Washington school.

Mr. Anderson expressed his opinion that the structure, erected in 1901, is not in a dangerous condition structurally, thus failing to agree with the view of Deputy State Fire Marshal Himsl who inspected the building last spring. Suggestions for improving the condition of the structure will be made later by the architectural firm, it was indicated.

The board voted to call for bids, to be opened July 8, on 100 tons of coal for the Northrop building, 120 tons for the Knox school and 450 tons for the Lincoln-Washington buildings. At the same time bids will be opened on painting the outside woodwork on the old Lincoln building, and on installing acoustic tile to replace plaster, now in bad condition, in the first floor corridor and two classrooms in the old Lincoln structure.

Favorable action was taken on the request of the NYA resident center located in the old Central building for use of the facilities of the industrial shop in the Lincoln building for instruction purposes during the summer months.

The board accepted the resignation of Miss Adaline Dock, school librarian for the past three years. She is accepting a similar position in the schools of Stillwater.

Action was deferred on a proposal to construct a concrete tennis court on the Northrop school grounds to replace one of the two dirt courts, which are reported to be in poor condition.

A detailed report on the building repair program was submitted by Supt. Morris Bye, C. E. Hellquist and A. B. Stenberg of the maintenance committee.

NEARLY 800,000 KWH PRODUCED BY TURBINES IN 5 MO.

Water Power in Municipal Plant Shows up Best Since 1928

By producing 795,900 kilowatts of electricity in 1940 up to June 1, the two water turbines in the municipal power plant set up a record that has not been equaled since 1928 when three turbines then included in the plant turned out a total of 1,540,000 kilowatts in the full year, it is revealed in figures compiled in the office of Ole Legvold, superintendent of the water and light department.

Production by the turbines for the first five months of 1940 compares with totals ranging from 62,100 to 179,800 kilowatts for each of the full years from 1932 to 1936, when the river here was at an extremely low stage during the greater part of each year.

Mr. Legvold is keeping his fingers crossed and hoping that the present liberal flow will continue throout the remainder of the year.

BAIT NEXT WEEK IN ANNUAL CAMPAIGN ON GRASSHOPPERS

Farmers Advised to Watch Carefully for Spread of Pests

Farmers are asked to watch carefully for the spread of grasshoppers from the beds from which they hatch to adjoining fields during the next few weeks County Agent Howard Grow said today. Hatching has just gotten well under way, and will be increasing during the next week or two if weather conditions are favorable.

A W P A project has been set up for mixing of bait, and bait will be available by first part of next week. With weather conditions such as they are at this time, farmers are advised to spread bait now so that they can get results, rather than wait until the hoppers get larger and weather conditions perhaps less favorable.

An experiment is being planned to test four or five different kinds of bait on some of the farms in the county just as soon as the hatching is more complete than it is at this time. All farmers will be interested in this experiment and, no doubt, will watch it with critical eyes to see what the results will be.

Supervisor Tells of Recreation Program

The city council, in cooperation with the new recreation planning board and WPA recreation leaders, has planned an elaborate city-wide recreation program for adults and children of this community, Ferd Elstad, supervisor, announced today. Numerous activities, planned according to available facilities, will be at the disposal of the general public as soon as leaders and equipment are acquired. No one has been left out in the planning for an all-participation program.

Tindolph Park will be a haven for picnickers and vacationists, as soon as present plans become a reality. Four life guards will handle the swimming instruction as well as life-guard duty. Recreation leaders are scheduled to take care of beach games and playground games to be held in the park. Checker and Chinese checker boards, bean bag, jar rings, carom boards and other games of this type will be available to make the day interesting. Croquet sets, possibly archery, are other activities planned for the park.

The eastside park will include most of the activities offered at Tindolph Park with the exception of beach activities and swimming. However, horseshoe, tennis, basket ball, softball and midget baseball will be added here.

Tennis courts are available at the high school. Soon it is planned to have archery behind the school. Other activities are planned for the Knox and Northrup school playgrounds.

The craft shop and the puppet theatre, located in the arena will continue to operate throughout the summer as a part of this new program. In connection with these activities, hikes, camping, and day camping are being planned.

A midget-baseball league and an American Legion junior baseball team are planned for this year. It is hoped to get a six-team midget league started to play throughout the summer. The junior Legion team will compete in regular competition. A WPA recreation leader will also be in charge of these teams.

A city softball tournament, invitational softball tournament, tennis tournaments, horseshoe tournaments, swim meets and many other activities are included in the plans for summer recreation. Archery, if started, will also have tournaments.

The planning board invites everyone to take advantage of the recreational opportunities offered by them. They have worked hard along with Mr. Elstad in planning this program. For a successful program the cooperation of the public is needed.

Civic Group to Provide Fireworks on the Fourth

GERMAN ARMY ADVANCES INTO PARIS SUBURBS

Tremendous Nazi Forces Are Waging Campaign from Three Sides

ITALY JOINS WAR ON GERMAN SIDE MONDAY

Berlin Reports State Victory in Battle Is Assured

History was made in Europe during the past week, which saw Italy entering the war Monday on the side of Germany and Hitler's forces aggregating nearly 2,000,000 men, advancing to the suburbs of Paris, the French capital.

The immediate drive on Paris has developed into three separate main thrusts, from the east and west, where the Germans are 40 to 50 miles away, and from due north where Nazis have made their greatest advance, at Persan-Beaumont.

On the east the drive was in the Chateau Thierry region where American marines won glory in the last war. The west drive roaded along both banks to the Seine river from Rouen to Vernon. There the Germans were seeking to reinforce their detachments which had plunged across the river.

The Germans flung more and more troops, tanks and yet more tanks against the bitterly fighting French.

In the Senlis regions the gardens of the Chantilly chateau of American Ambassador William C. Bullitt became a battleground.

The German gains were being made at fearful cost.

The French said they learned from prisoners that counter-attacks by French tanks and planes, some returning to the fight five times during the day, had inflicted heavy losses.

In Berlin the Germans figured they had guaranteed victory in the battle of France.

FILING PERIOD FOR VARIOUS OFFICES NOW IN PROGRESS

Clerk of Court and Judge of Probate Among Offices to be Filled

The filing period for county, state and national offices opened in Minnesota Wednesday, and candidates may enter their names at any time up to August 1. The primary election will be held September 10.

County officers to be elected this year include probate judge, clerk of court and commissioners' posts in the first, third and fifth districts, now filled respectively by Frank Race, Paul Roy and O. M. Mandt.

The filing period got off to a fast start yesterday with the entering of the names of Adolf Eklund, incumbent; Ed Hill and Walter H. Quist for the office of clerk of court; and of A. W. (Bob) Oski for the post of county commissioner in the first district, now held by Frank Race.

Also to be elected, in addition to state officials, are two district judges, two representatives in the state legislature, a congressman from the Ninth district and a United States senator, the term of Henrik Shipstead expiring this year.

In past years candidates were permitted to file for office on the 2nd day of January and as a result political campaigns held forth from that date until the election in November. The last session of the Minnesota legislature changed the law, not only changing the time of the primary from June to September, but also set back the time for filing. All of the election laws were re-codified and as a result campaigns are shorter and candidates are saved the long and arduous task of soliciting votes.

COUNCIL BUYS BUSCH-SULZER DIESEL ENGINE

1700 Horsepower Unit to be Delivered in 200 Days; Costs $103,487

MAYOR REAPPOINTS 3 TO LIBRARY BOARD

Junior Chamber Seeks Construction of Dock on River Bank

Following a lengthy discussion at its June session Tuesday evening, the city council ended last week's three-to-two deadlock by voting four to one to buy a large new Busch-Sulzer Diesel engine for the municipal power plant at a cost of $103,487 in preference to a Fairbanks Morse unit. The resolution authorizing the purchase was later passed unanimously.

The new unit, on which delivery is specified within 200 days, is a five-cylinder model developing 1700 horsepower and 1190 kilowatts at a speed of 240 revolutions per minute.

After reaching its decision, the council authorized preparation of specifications for an addition to the power plant building to house the new unit. The next steps, after reaching a decision on the plans for the addition, will include calling for bids on the structure as well as on switchboard equipment, pumps and piping and station wiring. The entire cost of the project has been estimated at in excess of $150,000, of which $130,000 is being provided by a bond issue and the remainder from current water and light department funds.

Richard G. Mabey and Don Mattson of the Junior Chamber of Commerce appeared at the meeting to request the erection of a municipal dock for the convenience of operators of boats on the river. They suggested that the dock be installed either near the foot of Markley av. N. on the east side, or in the Elks park on the west side, and estimated that the cost would not exceed $150 to $200. The matter was referred by the council to the park board for investigation. A communication from Walter Smith, living on Markley av., was read objecting to the location of the dock on that street.

The action of Mayor W. W. Prichard in reappointing to the library board Harley Swenson, Clarence W. Pope and Otis Wold was confirmed by the council.

After some discussion, the council granted a request submitted by Ole Engelstad in behalf of the local diamondball league that lighting facilities for night games be installed on the fair grounds diamond. The sum of not to exceed $375 was appropriated for the purpose. Also voted was the sum of $50 to aid in financing the Fourth of July fireworks program being arranged by the Civic and Commerce association.

The state forestry division, which recently sprayed trees in the city to minimize worm infestation, in a communication to the council predicted that there would be no infestation in 1941 and expressed the opinion that another application of spray this year would be unnecessary.

Permits to construct small residences were granted to T. J. Walsh, $1,200, and Martin Alby, $900. City Attorney Theodore Quale stated that he would have a civil service ordinance ready for presentation at the next regular meeting of the council. The ordinance would affect full-time employes of the police and fire departments.

Pioneer Middle River Couple Observe 60th Wedding Anniversary

An unusual event was celebrated at the First Lutheran church of Middle River on Sunday, June 2, the occasion being the sixtieth or platinum wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Offerdahl, pioneer settlers of the Middle River community.

Mr. and Mrs. Offerdahl's ten children, all of whom are living and all of whom have children, were present for the occasion, together with 34 of the grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren, and a host of friends.

Arvid Carlson of Middle River presided over the program, given in the Norwegian and English languages, and presented Mr. and Mrs. Offerdahl with a purse of money, an anniversary gift from the assembled guests.

The church was decorated with a profusion of lilacs, bleeding heart, tulips, and ferns. The table laid for the honored couple was appointed with pieces from Mr. Carlson's Scandinavian collection. In the center was a silver cup of 16th century craftsmanship which came from Norway. This was flanked by two pewter candle holders, and 18th century brass holders were placed at either end of the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Offerdahl were married in Norway June 2, 1880. In 1882 Mrs. Offerdahl and their first daughter came to the United States with her parents. Mr. Offerdahl, in the service of the Norwegian army, joined his family in the following year when his term of service was completed, and they settled in Browns county, Minnesota, taking up residence at Hanska. In 1889 they moved to Ringbo, which is near the Holt community, and have since resided in this vicinity.

Two of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Offerdahl, Alfred and Ole Offerdahl, are residents of Thief River Falls. Other local people attending the anniversary observance at Middle River include the Alfred and Ole Offerdahl families, Mr. and Mrs. Almstedt, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Evenson, Mrs. Elmer Huset and Mrs. Ray Nelson.

Miss Celia Halland, Norman Johnson Wed At Pretty Ceremony

Lilacs, honeysuckle, and ferns in profusion formed an unusually attractive early-June setting for the marriage of Miss Celia Halland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Halland of this city, and Norman D. Johnson, which took place in Trinity Lutheran church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. Harlan Peterson of Viking officiated at the single ring ceremony.

Miss Eileen Rolland played a program of pre-nuptial pipe organ music, followed by The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, as the bridal party entered. Muted strains from the organ formed a background for the ceremony and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played for the recessional. Walter Ekeren sang "Because" and "I Love You" by Grieg.

The wedding party made a very pretty picture as it proceeded up the white-carpeted aisle. The bride, entering on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, was lovely in a princess gown of white net over satin with a long train, long, tight-fitting sleeves, and braided bodice. Her finger tip veil fell in graceful folds from a smart toque adorned with lilies of the valley and seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a necklace of pearls, the grooms' gift, and her bridal bouquet was fashioned of Premier roses, lilies of the valley, and baby's breath.

Her attendants were her two sisters, the Misses Judith and Marine Halland, as junior bridesmaid and maid of honor, respectively; Miss Lucille Holmgren, bridesmaid, and little Barbara Holmgren, flower girl.

The young women wore floor-length gowns in pastel shades, designed with very full skirts and close-fitting bodices. Velvet ribbons matching their gowns were braided in their hair, and they carried Colonial bouquets.

Blue chiffon fashioned the gown worn by the maid of honor and her flowers were pink roses and sweet peas. The junior bridesmaid wore aqua net and carried Talisman roses and lavender sweet peas, matching the bridesmaid's bouquet. An interesting detail of Miss Holmgren's gown of pink net was the skirt, elaborated with pink satin bows covering the entire skirt. The flower girl's gown was an exact copy of her older sister's Miss Holmgren. It was of white net, floor-length, tied with blue bows. She wore a blue hairbow and carried a basket of pink sweetpeas.

The bride's mother selected for the nuptials a frock of navy blue sheer with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses and lavender sweetpeas to complete the costume. The groom's mother wore a navy blue and white polka dot frock with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses and lavender sweetpeas.

The bridegroom's brother, Roy Johnson of St. Louis, Mo., was best man, the groomsmen were Charles Kraft of Hoople, N. D., and Oreal Halland of this city, brother of the bride. Ushers were Selmer Kivle and Marvin Lindbergh.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception for 70 guests, the bridal party and relatives of the bride and groom, was held in the church parlors, decorated for the occasion in an all-pink color scheme. Streamers extended to the head table with a beautiful wedding cake as the chief decoration.

A blue and white polka dot ensemble with white turban and matching accessories was the travel costume chosen by the bride for their brief motor trip to Detroit Lakes and the twin cities.

The bridal couple will reside in this city, where Mr. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson of Hoople, N. D., is employed in the office of the Thief River Grocery. His bride, a graduate of Lincoln high school, is employed with the local Woolworth store.

Nels Ornquist, 83 years old, of Strathcona gave his daughter, Miss Nellie Ornquist, in marriage at her wedding to Melvin Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gotfred Anderson of Middle River, which took place at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, June 9. The scene of the wedding was the Swedish Lutheran church at Strathcona, which was decorated in an arbor effect with lilacs.

Rev. Chas. W. Erickson of Thief River Falls read the service. The wedding march was played by Miss Effie Peterson of Middle River, and Mrs. Ivan Gjovik sang.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Ellyn Carlson of Minneapolis, a cousin of the bride, who served as matron of honor; Miss Madeline Gunderson of Reynolds, N. D., bridesmaid; and Yvonne Newland of this city, niece of the bridegroom, and Lila Hanson of Middle River, who acted as flower girls. Lloyd Newland of this city, a brother-in-law of the groom, was best man, and Eddie Henning of Middle River also attended the bridegroom.

The beautiful bridal gown was of white silk net with a short, circular veil, and the bridal bouquet contained pink and white carnations. Corsages of carnations and sweet peas were worn by Mrs. Carlson and Miss Gunderson with their frocks of pink net and blue organdie, respectively. The flower girls carried Colonial bouquets of sweet peas.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained close relatives and friends at luncheon at their home. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Holmen and family of this city.

The bride, who was graduated from the Middle River high school in 1937, completed a course in the teacher training department in Thief River Falls the following year, and since then has been engaged in teaching.

Louise Rolland And Edward Fisher Speak Wedding Vows

At a nuptial mass at 10:30 o'clock Saturday, June 8th, at St. Ann's Catholic church at Goodridge, Miss Louise Rolland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Seraphin E. Rolland of Goodridge, became the bride of Edward Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Fisher of Werner, N. D., Father Cloutier officiating. Lilacs and ferns decorated the church for the occasion.

The beautiful service began with the entrance of the groom and best man, Marcel Rolland, brother of the bride, who took their places at the altar to the soft strains of the organ played by Miss Martha Havel of Thief River Falls. The groom's other attendants, Lawrence Kasse and Jerome Mutnansky, both of Goodridge, followed by the two bridesmaids, Miss Lucy Rolland and Miss Mary Rolland, sisters of the bride, next took their places at the altar. The bridesmaids made a charming picture in their pastel frocks of silk ninon in aqua blue and delicate yellow, respectively. Both frocks followed a full princess mode. Arm bouquets contained pink and white carnations.

The bride chose as the maid of honor her sister Augustine, whose costume, in harmony with the pastel effect, was of pink net. She, too, carried an arm bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. Her wedding gown of white silk satin was of simple bodice style, with a bustle back and a long train, and sleeves puffed at the shoulder. Her only ornament was a gold cross chain. She wore a finger tip length veil of white silk net and carried a white missal with white satin streamers knotted with white and pink sweetpeas.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. A reception for relatives and friends was held from three to five.

DISTRICT BAR UNIT HONORS WM. WATTS ON 90TH BIRTHDAY

Members of State Supreme Court Attend Banquet in Crookston

Tribute from men on the highest courts in the state came Saturday evening to William Watts, retired judge in the fourteenth judicial district, who was honored by the District Bar association in Crookston on the eve of his ninetieth birthday.

The occasion was the annual dinner meeting held by the District Bar association in the Red and Gold room of the Hotel Crookston with former Judge Watts as the honor guest. Judge Watts celebrated his ninetieth birthday Sunday at a family gathering at his home.

Chief Justice Henry Gallagher headed the list of speakers paying tribute to the retired jurist. He said that Judge Watts' fame as a jurist was not confined to this district, but was state wide, and declared that when he first started practice as a young lawyer in southern Minnesota, he began hearing of the decisions of Judge Watts. He pointed out that the retired jurist, in his 36 years on the bench, had a record for reversals attained by no other judge in the state's history, so few were the times when any decision of his was changed by a higher court.

Accompanying Chief Justice Gallagher and speaking also in tribute to Judge Watts were two associate justices of the state supreme court, Royal A. Stone and Julius Olson.

District Judges James E. Montague and M. A. Brattland represented the district courts in tribute to the retired jurist. Telegrams from many associates in the legal profession and from high state officials were read. Included among these was one from Governor Harold E. Stassen.

A business session of the district group followed the dinner program. F. H. Stadsvold of Crookston was elected president succeeding M. J. Hegland of Roseau, and Olav Vaule, of Ada, was named vice president. Re-elected were L. S. Miller, secretary and W. P. Murphy, treasurer.

Judge Watts responded to the program of toasts which were given in his honor. Mr. Hegland presided for the dinner program.

Present from Thief River Falls, in addition to Judge Brattland, were Harley Swenson, court reporter, and a number of local attorneys.

4500 PRESENT AT CREAMERY PICNIC HELD LAST SUNDAY

John Brandt and Morris Bye Speak on Patriotic Themes

Stirring addresses of American patriotism by Morris Bye, superintendent of the Thief River Falls public schools, and John Brandt, president of Land O'Lakes Creameries, Inc., Minneapolis, featured the 12th annual Marshall County Creameries picnic at Middle River State Park Sunday afternoon.

In spite of a rainy morning, clouds began to break shortly before noon to permit another huge crowd of people, estimated at about 4,500 people, to attend the afternoon program at which E. M. Evans, Middle River, presided.

Supt. Bye talked on democracy and what it means to American citizens. He said the democracies in the world were on the defensive against the military dictators who have forced their people to believe in their principles of government and were able to present an united front. He spoke of the advantages of democracies in comparison to dictatorships.

While Americans are permitted to criticize the government, Mr. Bye was of the opinion that we are carrying this privilege too far for the good of our form of government. He condemned the practice of mudslinging in political campaigns and urged that political parties point out the good things of their party, rather than raking down the individuals and principles of the opposition.

Get hold of whatever small cash you can and send it to the treasurer, Fred Protz, of the Pennington County Red Cross Chapter. Every cent will go to the millions of men, women and children who have been forced by this cruel war to flee their homes.

Give to the Red Cross and give now—not in the name of any country, race or creed, but in the name of humanity and because you are an American.

NOT PLEASANT BUT NECESSARY

President Roosevelt spoke for America when he condemned Italy's declaration of war, and, with few exceptions, the American people, fully appreciating the gravity of the charge he made, subscribe wholeheartedly to what he said.

Our country is not yet at war but, as a nation, we are no longer neutral. We are pledged to give all the material support possible to the Allies. We are officially opposed to the dictators of Europe and by those dictators we are looked upon as an ally of the democracies they are striving to conquer and as a power to be reckoned with in the final settlement of that struggle.

So be it.

This is serious business. The game of war, as it is played today, is not a gentlemanly contest governed by a Queensbury code of approved ethics. It is catch as catch can and no holds barred. It is a life or death struggle. It is a battle with gangsters who respect no rules.

There could be no question but that, sooner or later, we would have to take sides in this struggle. We could not stand by indefinitely and see the forces of oppression extend their power. The only possible criticism of our present stand is that we already have waited too long. Had we extended our influence earlier the present prospect might have been less discouraging. Now that we have quit quibbling about meaningless nothings and set our hand to a definite purpose, the course to be followed is clear.

We will be called upon to make sacrifices. Our nation will have to be organized as a war machine. A large portion of the energies we have heretofore directed into peaceful pursuits will now have to be harnessed for military purposes.

We will have to sacrifice some of our wealth and some of our earning power. It may become necessary to make a few unpleasant adjustments to our standard of living. And in order to preserve them, we may have to put some of our civil liberties on the shelf for a while.

The experience of other countries proves how effectively the forces of oppression have worked under the protection of the "civil liberties" of the countries they have planned to destroy. There is no need for hysteria in our country over the activities of possible "fifth columns" but there is justification under the present circumstances, for limitations on such individual "liberties" that would enable subversive groups to operate.

We are not at war but we are close to it and we are preparing for war. At the present time our only hope for peace rests in the effectiveness of our war preparations. To make our preparations effective may require as much discipline, individually and nationally, as if we actually were at war. It may not be pleasant but it is necessary.

Topics of the Times

By N. A. H.

The free-for-all is under way again. Filings for office are now being accepted.

In keeping with the spirit of the times, we are reminded that even some of the new model cars are shiftless.

Add Horrors of War—Cigaret prices are due for a boost.

Remembering former years when firecrackers already were making a lot of noise by this date, local residents can give thanks for at least one city ordinance.

Henry Ford recently said his factories can produce 1000 airplanes a day, and, if his past record counts for anything, he isn't exaggerating very much.

One conclusion to be drawn from these tall fishermen's tales is that the scales are fishy.

It now remains to be seen whether the Presidents' War Advisory commission of big businessmen is to be allowed to be more than a figurehead.

If that recreation program for the city works out, as it should with its present backing, there will be plenty of activity for local young folks.

They call the European trouble a lightning war, and it isn't sheet lightning either.

Better put off that fishing trip Sunday, men, as you may get a little special attention at home. It's Fathers Day.

Just 25 years ago saloons were voted out of Thief River Falls. They are scarcely missed in these days of rapid transportation.

With that proposed federal tax on small incomes, the little fellows will be made to realize that they are part of the government.

The American people may well look back with regret to the days when they had only their own troubles to worry about.

The U. S. Communist party at its national convention endorsed "the peace policy of the Soviet Union." No special reference apparently was made to Finland.

Pessimistic note—The sun starts traveling south in about a week.

The Republicans at their convention in Philadelphia late this month presumably will answer the question, "Dewey or don't we?"

GOODRIDGE

Silver Wedding

One of the nicest events that has taken place for some time was given Sunday when about one hundred and twenty-five relatives and friends were invited by the ladies of the First Luthran church to help Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christianson celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The gymnasium which was used for the occasion had been turned into a large reception hall, with a U shaped table set for the relatives and smaller tables for other guests. A profusion of white and purple lilacs and honey suckles in large vases and baskets were used for decorations. The large table had a center piece of a wedding cake decorated with white frosting and flowers of rose and silver. A program of instrumental and vocal music by the string quartet of Thief River Falls composed of Misses Gudrun and Gladys Tviet, June Peterson and Elva Overvold. A reading was given by Mrs. Harold South, the title being "Courtin", and Rev. E. L. Tungseth gave a talk which was enjoyed very much. Rev. Tungseth presented Mr. and Mrs. Christianson with a gift of silver as a token of friendship from their many relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Christianson responded with their sincere appreciation. The guests from out-of town were, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gunnerson and Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Tvedt and son Earl and daughter Marlene of Ada, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sorenson and son Alfred and Mrs. Hannah Sorenson of Grygla, Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Tungseth, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. [illegible] dahl and daughter Carrie, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Halverson of Thief River Falls.

Gustafson-Howard

Miss Mildred Gustafson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Gustafson of Trail and Clarence Howard, son of Mrs. Sophia Howard were united in marriage Saturday evening, June 8th, at seven-thirty at the parsonage of the Goodridge Lutheran church with Rev. O. O. Bjorgan officiating. Miss Gladys Gustafson, a sister of the bride, and Daniel Nielson of Bemidji were their attendants.

The bride wore a dress of delf blue silk of street length and a corsage of roses. Her sister's dress was of pink silk also street length. They will make their home at Oklee where the groom is engaged in business.

Ladies Aid

The ladies aid of the First Lutheran church will be entertained on Wednesday afternoon June 19, at the church by Mrs. C. L. Noer and Mrs. J. A. Christianson. All welcome.

Local Ball Club Shuts out Oklee Sunday 3-0

Playing on a wind-swept and soggy diamond, the local baseball team, with Hemmy Sahl turning in a two hit and shut-out performance, defeated Oklee 3 to 0 in a Northern Minnesota league game played here Sunday.

After Roy Lee and Nick Bromberg had gone down on strikes in the first inning, the locals manufactured a run when Rasmussen drew a base on balls, stole second, and scored when Johnny Jaranson pounded out a long single to center field. Thief River scored their second run in the second inning when Hemmy Sahl, the first man to bat, connected with one of Hank Sandland's fast pitches and drove out a line drive that bounced into the race track in deep center-field for a home-run. And in the third inning the locals tallied the game's final run on Bromberg's single through the infield, his steal of second base, and scoring with Rasmussen sent a sharp hit through third base.

Sahl pitched excellent ball, allowing only two hits, one a looper into right field in the fourth inning, and the other a bounder that went over the first base bag in the seventh inning. In six of the game's nine innings, Hemmy set the Oklee's down in order. Henry Sandland, pitching for Oklee, turned in well-pitched game too, showing a sharp-breaking hook that collected 11 strike outs.

Next Sunday the locals meet St. Hilaire at St. Hilaire in a game that should be one of the league season's high lights. The two teams have been rivals for years, and with the league leadership perhaps dependent on the outcome, the game should draw a capacity crowd.

Diamondball

The city council, at its meeting last Tuesday night, made the authorization and the appropriation that will complete the flood-lighting of the Fair Grounds diamond For diamondball, that is. With facilities for night play completed, or authorized, the league directors went into a huddle to draw up the schedule for the season. According to present plans and latest reports the league will have six teams: Middle River, Land O' Lakes, Bridgeman's Kiewel's DeMolay, and Harts.

The first week's schedule, with play to begin next Monday night, is as follows: Middle River vs. Bridgeman's on Monday; Harts vs. the DeMolay, on Wednesday; and the Land O'Lakes vs. Kiewel's on Thursday. If the lights are installed at the Fair Grounds by Monday, the games will be played there, beginning at 8:30 p. m.; otherwise the games will be held at twilight on the East Side park.

Not So Sure About Champ

I'm not so sure this week, as I was last week, that the Land O' Lakes will romp away with the championship. Ole Ness, of the Kiewels has signed up Hemmy Sahl, Iling Bergstrom, Wally and Bobby DuChamp, and with Gordon Kaushagen pitching, that outfit will have something to say about who's to be the champs. And Clarence Offerdahl has been busy, too, for he hooked Don Lorentson to his city-champion Harts team. No, I'm not quite so sure this week as I was last. Guess I'll have to see Walt Larson and have him give me a 'sales' talk on the Land O'Lakes team, to restore my confidence.

Last Friday, Bones Stadum took his assortment of diamondball players, called the Ten Varieties, up to Newfolden, for a game with Ham Myhrer's team. And while Bones' outfit was beaten, 5 to 3, they had the satisfaction of completing a triple play. It went like this: Jewell Stadum to Wes Burrell to Jim LaFave to Bones Stadum, and three Newfolden Indians had bitten the dust.

Baseball

Gus Krueger, president of the Northern Minnesota baseball league, and manager pro-tem of the Plummer team, maintains that he has signed Louie Benson to the Plummer club. And that Louie is to replace Westrum as the team's catcher. Wes Westrum, you know, is the property of the Crookston Pirates, and he has been getting into the Pirate line-up every now and then, and consequently, he isn't available to the Plummer team. But I'll be surprised if Benson plays with the Red Sox, for I was informed that he had a better job at St. Peter than it would be possible for him to get up here. But perhaps there are other reasons than a job, that will bring Louie up into this part of the state.

Turn Out For The Games

Why not make it a point to attend some of the Northern Minny baseball league games? The entertainment is well worth the 25 cent admission fee. Lop-sided scores and numerous errors, which were the rule the early part of the season, have largely disappeared, and considering the fact that the teams are composed mostly of home-talent players, the teams play an excellent brand of ball. Our game with St. Hilaire, at St. Hilaire, next Sunday should be a 'natural'. It will be Bill Hallamack against Hemmy Sahl, and with the league leadership in the balance.

Dental Precautions

CHECKING RETURNS ON STATE INCOME TAXES PROFITABLE

State Secures $874,000 Additional, Tax Commissioner Says

Utilizing new methods of checking income tax returns made possible during the past year, the Minnesota state tax department during the fiscal year just closing has placed on the assessment rolls $874,239 in additional taxes not included when taxpayers made their original returns, G. Howard Spaeth, state tax commissioner, reported this week. Most of this money already has been collected, Spaeth said, and the rest will be paid in shortly.

The accumulation of the $874,239 total has been made possible to a large degree Spaeth said, by action of the Minnesota legislative emergency committee in providing funds for additional auditors, adoption by the last legislature of a change in procedure which allows opportunity for more careful auditing in checking returns and by systematic efforts to adjust differences promptly.

The improvements made in procedure are contribution to a very substantial increase in income tax receipts, Spaeth said. Receipts from the state income tax for the fiscal year ending July 1st will reach $11,149,525, according to present estimates, compared to $10,295,086 for the previous year. Receipts up to June 1st this year were $10,849,525, and $300,000 more is expected this month.

23 Successfully Pass Stiff Training Course for State Road Patrol

Twenty-three young men from various parts of the state have completed successfully the training course conducted by the state highway patrol for prospective new patrol officers, according to announcement this week by Elden Rowe, patrol chief, under whose direction the training and test school was held. Neil Deemer of Crookston was among those selected.

Existing and future vacancies will be filled from this group. The men were certified to the highway patrol by the Minnesota civil service department after that department had conducted extensive adaptability tests and after the patrol had made individual character investigations and physical examinations.

The school was held from March 20 to June 1 on the campus of University Farm at St. Paul, where facilities of the state agricultural college of the University of Minnesota were made available. The recruits were quartered in dormitories on the campus and spent full time, day and night, at the school except for week-end leaves or special leaves granted because of family emergencies.

N. W. Minnesota Seed Produces Record Potato Crops

Weyl-Zuckerman & Co., California Growers, Direct Production of All Their Seed Stocks in This Territory

World's Production Records Broken Twice by Seed Potatoes Developed and Grown in Thief River Falls Area

"Northwestern Minnesota Potatoes Break World Production Record—1130 Bushels to Acre." If we were to run that heading as a banner line across the front page of the Times, three out of every three readers would say, "you can't believe what you read in the newspapers," to coin a new expression. Nevertheless the statement would be substantially correct. Potatoes grown in this area have broken the world production record not only once but twice in the last fifteen years, the first time in 1926 when a per acre yield of 1060 bushels was established, and again in 1933 when that record was boosted to the figure already mentioned, 1130.

No, of course the record crop was not grown here. It was grown in California. But it was grown from seed developed in the Thief River Falls territory. And, after all, growing the seed that produces the champions is quite an important part of the procedure of breaking records.

Credit for the achievement goes to the firm of Weyl Zuckerman & Co., potato growers, who farm 6,400 acres at Stockton, California. The program dates back to 1923 when California potato growers were having difficulty with their seed and crops were not good. A Chinese potato grower, operating near the Weyl Zuckerman & Co. farm, had exceptionally good results that year and the good results were attributed to the seed. The Chinaman didn't know where the seed was grown. He had bought it on the open market. The only information that could be obtained about its origin was that it had been grown somewhere in Wisconsin or Minnesota.

With this meagre information at his disposal, H. G. Zuckerman journeyed to the north central states in the fall of 1923, determined to find the home of the "American Giant" potatoes that had done so well for his Chinese neighbor. He checked Wisconsin first, visiting the various communities from which potatoes had been shipped. He found no trace of them in that state and then came to Minnesota, eventually arriving in Thief River Falls. Here the trail grew hot. Potatoes answering his description had been shipped out the previous year. And in the Henry Kaushagen potato cellar he found what he had been looking for. He bought a carload from Mr. Kaushagen and another car of the same variety from M. H. Ballingrud. Then he went back to Stockton to plant the seed and await developments.

The results justified his hopes and he determined to standardize on this potato, grown in the community in which it had already proven itself. Then is when he started the program of contracting for his seed potatoes in the Thief River Falls area, a program that has been extended until approximately forty farmers are growing a total of more than 500 acres of seed potatoes for him under a plan of supervision that is developing a seed stock of the highest quality.

The potato that was called the American Giant is really a White Rose, and for many years it had been a heavy producer in New Jersey. Through disease and cross breeding it had deteriorated, losing much of its former popularity, and the seed stock he secured here the first years was far from perfect. The first problem was to cull out the "baseballs" and other not-true-to-type deformities. It took only a few years of careful handling to establish the type wanted.

A more difficult problem was the eradication of disease. The usual methods of supervision employed in the growing of certified seed were of course adopted. Seed for the seed plots was selected with the greatest care. During the growing season fields were rogued three and sometimes four times, and in the digging, samples were selected at random to be tested at the company laboratory at Stockton. Over a period of years there was a gradual improvement in the stock, demonstrated by the improvement in the quality and quantity of market potatoes grown on the California farm.

In 1936 a new experiment was started. Two thousand individual potatoes were selected to form the parent stock in a new seed development program. Each individual potato became the parent of a family of potatoes and each family has been kept segregated until now the company has up to 100 bushels of some of these family groups that are being planted for seed this year. The number of families has already been reduced to about 1,200, the poorest producers having been eliminated. Mr. Zuckerman expects the number of families eventually will be reduced to 20 or 25 and this stock, he hopes, will produce exceptional results. The company has an accurate record of the background for four generations of each potato that is planted here this year and more general records of the ancestry over a period of more than 15 years.

Seed grown in the Thief River Falls area is not planted for market purposes in California the next year. It is too expensive, Mr. Zuckerman explains. Under their method of operation, the seed grown in this area costs them on an average about $2.00 a bushel. In order to reduce the cost of their seed to a more normal level the company operates a farm in the Klamath Falls region of Oregon and there, at 4,000 feet altitude, the nursery stock produced here is planted to grow the seed that will be used on the Stockton farm the following year. By this intermediate planting the cost of the seed used in California is reduced to about $1.00 a bushel. The Oregon farm serves as another test plot. The high altitude reduces the chances of disease infection and the Oregon crop is grown under ordinary farming conditions and at a production cost that is a great deal lower than here. And because of this step-up, the company expects that a sack of potatoes shipped out of Thief River Falls will give them a carload of potatoes at Stockton in the third year.

That the company considers its investment in quality seed of substantial value is indicated by the measures it will take in safeguarding that seed from disease and deterioration. At the present time one of the disease headaches in the potato world is bacterial ring rot. Weyl Zuckerman & Co. have not been troubled by the disease as yet but it seems to be spreading. Instead of waiting until it made an appearance in their stock, the company decided to check their seed, and this year each individual potato that had [illegible] tipped and examined for evidence of the disease. It was an expensive operation but Mr. Zuckerman considers the money spent in this way to be very much worth while.

And each potato gets individual attention throut the growing season. The potato is cut when planted, which brings all of the plants from the one parent potato together in the row, and a double space is left between each family. This makes it possible, in case any one plant shows symptoms of disease during the growing season, to rogue out all of the plants of the same parent stock. The fields are checked regularly throut the growing season.

When the crop is harvested in the fall samples of the various lots are shipped to Stockton where they are carefully checked in the company's laboratory and test plots. Here the records of each lot are analyzed and the selections made for the following year's plantings. Three plant specialists are employed on a full time basis in the company laboratory and under their direction experiments of various kinds are constantly being made.

The farming operations of Weyl Zuckerman & Co. properly classify both as a science and as a business—and perhaps to some extent as a hobby. H. G. "Herb" Zuckerman, who has directed these activities for the organization, "gets a bang out of it."

"This development has been a slow and a cautious one," he says, "resting on the cooperation of good growers and great care on our part. Each step of the way [illegible] fornia. We feel that we have made some progress but what has been done is little more than a suggestion of what can be accomplished in the future."

Mr. Zuckerman doesn't know why this country produces good seed potatoes. All he knows is that it does. And that is his answer to most of the problems when you ask him "why." The only good methods are the ones that produce good results. The best seed is the one that produces the best results. Results are the important things.

He likes our country and likes our people and marvels at the progress that has been made by our community since he first visited our territory in 1923.

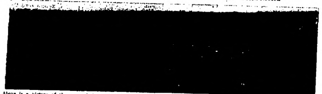
On the Stockton farm 25 bushels of seed are planted to the acre. The rows are 28 inches apart and spacing in the rows is only 8 inches.

The world's record potato crop was grown on irrigated peat land on which 1,200 lbs. of fertilizer is used to the acre. The fertilizer is equal parts of nitrate, phosphate and potasium.

Potatoes grown by Weyl-Zuckerman & Co. in California are not harvested for the early market. They are planted about March 15 and harvested during July, August and September.

Six inspectors worked two months examining the potatoes that were used for seed here this spring. Each potato was "tipped" and the knife was sterilized after each operation.

One Acre Produced 1,130 Bushels of Potatoes in 1933—New World Record

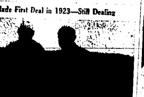


Above is a picture of the acre of the Weyl-Zuckerman & Co. farm at Stockton, California, that produced the record breaking crop of 1,130 bushels in 1933. The previous record of 1,060 bushels was grown on this same farm in 1926, and the seed for both of these record breaking crops was developed in the Thief River Falls territory. At Stockton the company farms 6,400 acres, of which 2,000 are put into potatoes, the rest of the land being used for beets, carrots and onions. The average potato yield is a little over 500 bushels. The company expects a sack of seed shipped from here to grow a carload of market potatoes in Stockton. It is a three-year program however, the carefully grown seed stock produced here being planted the second year on the company's Oregon farm.

Kaushagens Build Their Own Planter

It was from Henry Kaushagen that Mr. Zuckerman bought his first carload of seed and the Kaushagens are still cooperating. This year they improvised their own two row planter, the material for which cost them "not more than five dollars." The top picture shows the "stone age" device in operation behind a dust protector, not a hail. Below, Eli and Melvin Kaushagen are tilting the planter for a bottom view. Wooden blocks plow the trench into which the potatoes are dropped as they are cut. It didn't take long to plant forty acres with this equipment.

Made First Deal in 1923—Still Dealing



H. G. Zuckerman bought his first carload of potatoes in this territory in 1923 from Henry Kaushagen, and the relationship that started then still continues. When they posed for this picture Mr. Kaushagen was preparing the field for this year's seed crop.

Experiment With Phosphate on Schalz Farm

N. P. Schalz, who is growing 23 acres of seed potatoes on his farm eight miles west of St. Hilaire, is experimenting with phosphate this year and has rigged up a phosphate attachment for his planter. In the first picture Mr. Zuckerman, left, and Mr. Schalz are examining the attachment. Below, "Nick" and "Herb" are looking over the new arrangement for the planter's cutting device.

Each Potato Gets "Physical Examination"

Every possible precaution is taken to grow healthy seed. This year each potato received individual attention before planting. The end of each potato was "tipped" and examined for possible disease. The knife that was used for this "tipping" was sterilized after each cut. The lower picture above is a view of the "operating room" where this surgery is being done under the supervision of F. W. Hassis, formerly assistant plant pathologist of the California State Department of Agriculture. It was an expensive procedure but considered well worth while. In the top picture are David Zuckerman, J. J. Thompson, F. W. Hassis and H. G. Zuckerman, examining one of the potatoes.

Tandem Planter Works Well on Rud Farm

Two old potato planters were hooked up together by Arthur Rud to plant the forty acres of seed raised on his farm eight miles northwest of Viking. Two men cut and two feed the planter. This machine does accurate work, a double space separating each potato family from its neighbors. Mr. Rud, operating the tractor, has been growing seed potatoes for Weyl-Zuckerman & Co. since 1925.

N.W. SCHOOL WILL NOTE ANNIVERSARY SATURDAY, JUNE 29

Morning Parade will be Followed by Program in Afternoon

The celebration of the anniversary of the founding of the Northwest Experiment Station, a branch station of the University of Minnesota at Crookston, will be observed on Saturday, June 29. Superintendent T. M. McCall announced that the program will start at 11:00 a. m. with a parade depicting the evolution of farm power in the Red River Valley from the time of the Red River oxcarts to the modern streamlined tractor. Early settlers and alumni of the Northwest School will have their picnic lunches on the school campus at noon, followed by the anniversary program in the afternoon. The University board of regents will be represented. Three former superintendents of the Northwest Experiment Station and School, T. A. Hoverstad, 1895-1906; C. G. Selvig, 1910-1927, and A. A. Dowell, 1927 to 1937, will appear on the program. The chief address of the day will be delivered by Dean W. C. Coffey and Vice Director C. H. Bailey of the Minnesota agricultural college and experiment station, St. Paul.

Movies of the 1920 dedication of the Northwest School Dining Hall, Soldiers' and Sailors' Memorial, the first rural paving, and 1940 pictures of the school in technicolor will be a feature of the afternoon program. Old settlers associated with the former superintendents in the early development of the experiment station and representatives of the Great Northern Railway, donors of the land for the station, will be given recognition during the day. Music for the occasion will be provided by the Crookston Municipal band.

The Alumni Association reunion groups will have special picnic suppers on the campus, to be followed by their annual faculty-alumni kittenball game, and alumni ball in the evening.

JOBS FOR 14,400 FOUN BY STATE AGENCY IN 1940

36 Placements Are Made in the Thief River Falls Community

Jobs in Minnesota for approximately 14,000 persons have been obtained during the first four months of 1940 by the Division of Employment and Security according to report issued in St. Paul today by Victor Christgau, director.

The employment service's figures show that women have been gettin gthe lion's share of current employment. Of total placement, 14,364 to be exact—7,792 or 54 percent have been of the so-called weaker sex.

Of the total placement in the state, 36 were in Thief River Falls and vicinity, Mr. Christgau said. Of these, 29 were women and 7 were men.

In the Bemidji district, of which this section is a part, there have been 209 placements, of which number 120 were women and 84 were men.

Of approximately 7,800 Minnesota women who went to work, 5,074—or slightly more than 65 percent—engaged in domestic and personal service jobs. Among men, 2,591 or 38 percent found employment in agriculture, including forestry and fishing.

The project, it was explained, is open to any young men between the ages of 18 and 24½ years who are not attending school, providing they meet the state regulations for NYA certification. Further details on admission requirements may be obtained from Mr. Christopherson in the Central school building.

The term of enrollment is for six months, with two groups of youths attending each month, one group to be in residence from the 1st thru the 15th and the other from the 16th thru the 30th. Each youth will earn approximately $20 for each semi-monthly period of work, from which will be deducted cost of subsistence, leaving not less than $8 a month as the actual net earnings of each youth. The young men will have their meals and sleeping quarters in the local center.

Mr. Christopherson stated that about half of each fifteen-day period will be spent on project work, which during the summer and fall will consist of the construction of granaries, brooder houses and other buildings on government-owned farms and the demolition of unserviceable structures. Other work will be provided for the winter months.

As a result of arrangements made with the local board of education, the extensive facilities of the Lincoln high school industrial arts department will be available to the youths, a competent instructor having been secured to teach the use of hand and power tools in wood and metal work. About five days out of each fifteen will be devoted to this work.

BELATED FROST CAUSES DAMAGE TO TENDER CROPS

Mercury Drops to Freezing Mark Wednesday; Tomato Plants Killed

When the mercury Wednesday morning dropped to the 32-degree mark, a belated late June frost resulted, causing heavy losses to market gardeners, as well as possibly to late-seeded fields of flax.

One of the biggest losers was Mike Antonoff, who reported that a field of 3000 tomato plants had been killed in addition to one and one-half acres of cantaloupes. A considerable number of tomato plants in gardens in this city also were killed by the frost.

The cold spell marked a sudden transition in the weather from Monday, when the mercury mounted to the 90-degree mark. Sunday also was hot, and was marked by a severe hailstorm in the Brooks and Erskine vicinity that did much damage to growing crops.

FRANCE AWAITS HITLER'S WORD ON PEACE PACT

French Government Yields to Nazi Forces after Brief Campaign

HITLER CONFERS WITH MUSSOLINI ON TERMS

German War Planes Bomb England for Second Successive Night

In a fast-moving series of history-making events during the past week, the hemmed-in-city of Paris was opened to the German invaders last Thursday, to be followed Sunday by the capitulation of the French nation, which asked Adolph Hitler to name his peace terms.

Battling between the French and German forces continued yesterday, altho Hitler announced an armistice would be granted and met with Premier Mussolini of Italy to draft terms on which they will make peace.

The French government, finding Hitler's demands for a complete subjugation to Nazi rule too onerous, may yet flee to Africa to join the British in continuing the battle, it was reported Wednesday night.

Reports said that the government of Marshal Petain had learned the gist of the main German terms, and had found them too harsh.

Both Rome and Berlin made it plain France cannot negotiate—she must surrender. Rome press accounts of the Munich meeting said the axis powers would demand military occupation of France, her gold and her industrial and economic organization turned into war production against England. Diplomatic quarters in Spain said the French fleet must be turned over. Berlin quarters said the terms would be harsh—intended to make France helpless until the fight with England is settled.

If France does continue the fight, it was thought likely she would eventually fall back on her North African possessions from which her armies and those of Britain could squeeze Italian Libya.

The Germans, taking French capitulation or rout as a foregone conclusion, pressed on England with little respite, and their warplanes bombed that country for the second successive night in the opening skirmishes of the "Battle of England."

France, however, announced that her troops had delivered a "new battle" against the enemy on the middle Loire river before withdrawing to "establish themselves on a more favorable line."

HOPPER BAIT NOW BEING SPREAD BY COUNTY FARMERS

Mechanical Mixer in Operation Speeds Output of Material

The farmers of Pennington County are now using grasshopper bait with good results, states Howard E. Grow, county agent. With millions of hoppers in many fields, it is now time to bait while weather conditions are favorable. As long as it is dry the hoppers will continue to increase and do more damage day by day unless they are checked.

Many of the discouraging results last year were caused by not following recommendations for spreading. The best way to find out if the hoppers are eating the bait is to spread a little by hand and watch carefully to see if they are eating. The hoppers feed best when temperature is between 65 and 85 degree fahrenheit.

The bait is handled the same this year as it was in 1939, so far as the county is concerned, except that no sacks are furnished by the county. Bait is available from eight to four-thirty o'clock daily.

A mechanical mixing machine is in use this year which will give a uniform mix, and turn out more bait than was possible a year ago.

Reierson of this city and Alvin Theodore Dahlstrom, son of Alfred Dahlstrom of St. Hilaire, exchanged marriage vows at a candlelight ceremony at 8:30 o'clock. The bridegroom's brother, Rev. Elmer B. Dahlstrom of Worthington, read the single ring service, and Rev. J. O. Jacobsen, pastor of the church, offered a prayer.

The soft light from candles arranged in tiers on two tall white pedestals shone on an improvised white arch of gathered streamers tied with silver bows and decorated with ferns and sprays of white spirea. The front of the church was banked with ferns and baskets of hydrangea blossoms and along the white-carpeted aisle were sprigs of white spirea and fern tied with white streamers.

Before the bridal party entered, Mrs. Elmer Dahlstrom sang "Oh Promise Me", and when the wedding party had taken their places at the altar Miss Merriam Anderson of this city, niece of the bridegroom, sang "I Love Thee, Dear" by Greig. From her tiara of pearlized orange blossoms a full circular lace-trimmed veil fell just to the shoulders in cape effect, and over it extended an enveloping train-length veil. Her shower bouquet contained white roses and lilies of the valley, and her only jewelry was a string of pearls, the bridegroom's gift.

Her attendants carried bouquets of roses and sweet peas and wore floral headdresses. The maid of honor wore peach net over taffeta, and the bridesmaids frocks were fashioned of aqua chiffon. The flower girl, who carried a basket of sweetpeas, wore a floor-length frock of all-white net. For the nuptials, the bride's mother wore a lovely frock of blue chiffon.

Roaming the ROUTES

—With Janney

JANNEY MICKELSON

A personal column by Janney Mickelson, who will represent the Times in the rural communities during the summer months.

Although five isn't my lucky number, it proved to be the number of the first route out of Thief River Falls of my roaming and visiting. Route five served by mail carrier Geo. Schulke runs southwest and has 171 boxholders.

Mrs. Irvin Tommerdahl, though she lives so close to town, is one of the first patrons on this route. The Tommerdahls have just recently moved here from downtown Thief River. Their yard is taking on an appearance of freshly-dug trenches for a few days; in order to facilitate a city water system, ditches are being dug. An electric pump has been used before and this new system will improve their home greatly.

Came From North Dakota

One of the most attractive farms I came to was that of the George Sooks. Mr. Sooks was finding, or taking time on this day, to put in new fence posts. He has been on this farm just three years. Having lived some of his life in Dakota, somehow, while inserting the posts, his memory must have turned back to the days when fences weren't needed in Dakota, and all was wild. But [illegible] more of his thoughts centered on the present world crisis, for Mr. Sook is a sound thinker and likes to probe into conditions and find the causes.

Mrs. Anna Anderson and the Henry Oens are close neighbors with the Red river separating them. Even without the added beauty of the river, Mrs. Anderson's farm would be one of those places you just want to remain indefinitely. Edward, one of her few children, at home, runs the farm. The five Anderson girls are living in Chicago as well as Mrs. Anderson's other son. It seems that after one had gone there the others went one after another. Mrs. Anderson is planning a visit to Chicago this summer, much as she hates to leave her beautiful farm.

Popular Gathering Place

Every Sunday afternoon a big gang gather on the Red Lake River bank near the Gust Wilkins farm. The Wilkin young people set up a volley ball net horizontal to the river and then volley the ball over in relays. This sport has gained in popularity to the extent that some twenty to thirty people engage in this game Sundays.

Sigurd Wik is constantly thinking of ways to improve his farm. On the day I visited there he was moving the granary to a place further behind the house. For many years it has stood partly in front of his attractive white house, but will now let the latter be seen from afar in it's shiny brightness. He is lucky in having the help of his boys in doing this feat.

Related to Knut Hamsun

There is a trick to visiting the Earl Jensons. Their large, two-story cottage-shaped house is built on a slope with the back door at the bottom, facing the river at an advantageous point. A stranger would knock at the door on the second story at the top of the slope and miss seeing the Jensens entirely. This would be a calamity for the Jensens are a sociable, interesting couple.

It is interesting to know that Knute Hamsun, the great Norwegian author (Growth Of the Soil) is a second cousin of Mrs. Jenson. She herself was born in Narvik, but left there when a small child. Mr. Hamsun is a resident of Osl, Norway. She was even named after him in part and another relative over there "Thora-Pere."

Her husband is one of the most avid listeners of the news broadcasts. He was one of the first Minnesota men to enlist for the World War. After training at Fort Snelling he helped build Camp Cody and then saw active service in many of the towns mentioned these days.

An Expert Knitter

It is a fine thing to be a relative of Mrs. N. G. Stark, route five, for her knitted presents are to be desired. An old settler from Norway, she has kept up her carding, spinning and knitting to the present day. Despite the hours it takes to get the wool ready for knitting, she has spun many yards of wool. The majority of the balls are used in making mittens, but she does turn out many pairs of warm stockings for her grandchildren, who live farther north. Her daughter Louise, is also an excellent knitter having learned the process from her mother.

Cows have a right to be shy of women. Such seems to be the case of the seven cows owned by John and Hjalmer Brandvold, bachelors on route five. They bought these cows from bachelors also, which gives more reason for this claim.

Christoffer E. Dahl, Gatzke Pioneer, Dies in a Local Hospital

A pioneer settler of the Gatzke community, Christoffer E. Dahl, passed away in a local hospital on Wednesday, June 12, at the age of 77 years.

Mr. Dahl was born March 15, 1863, in Sweden, where he grew up and was married to Sarah Kvaalsaas. In 1892 he brought his family to America, living at Twin Valley until 1897. In that year he took a homestead near Gatzke, where he had since made his home.

LAND USE EXPERT ADDRESSES CIVIC GROUP THURSDAY

A. D. Wilson, Bemidji, Talks on State's Problem of Forfeited Land

At a meeting of the Civic and Commerce association last Thursday evening in the Evelyn hotel, A. D. Wilson of Bemidji, land use specialist with the state extension service, discussed the problems arising from the forfeiture to the state of tax-delinquent lands, particularly in the cut-over areas of Northern Minnesota. Robert J. Lund presided over the meeting in the absence of President F. A. Rinkel.

Mr. Wilson pointed out that in 11 counties in the cut-over region embracing 19,000,000 acres of land, 5,000,000 acres are tax-exempt lands held by the state and federal governments; another 5,000,000 acres has been forfeited for non-payment of taxes; 4,000,000 acres are tax delinquent; and only the remaining 5,000,000 acres are paying taxes.

Citing the fact that 16,000,000 acres of the total is wild land, Mr. Wilson said his experience led him to oppose selling the land to private owners to get it back on the tax rolls in view of the expense of preparing it for cultivation and the present over-supply of farm products, especially with developed farms for sale at sacrifice prices.

Declaring that no general answer to the problem of land use can be found, Mr. Wilson recommended that each township be studied separately in an effort to arrive at a solution. He urged that a land use classification be made by township committees under the auspices of the county commissioners, and added that an excellent job had been done in this way in Roseau county.

SENATOR WHEELER ASKS SHUNNING OF EUROPEAN AFFAIRS

Senator Speaker at Floyd B. Olson Memorial Banquet in Minneapolis

Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, said in an address in Minneapolis Monday night that American participation in European affairs will mean war and eventual collapse of this nation's democracy.

Senator Wheeler, who was the principal speaker at a dinner honoring the memory of the late Gov. Floyd B. Olson, Farmer-Laborite, of Minnesota, urged paying more attention to affairs at home.

"We in America face an enemy," he said. "That enemy is the force that is slowly sapping the strength of our economic and financial system. Let it collapse, as it surely will if we are engulfed in another war, and Democracy and liberty are gone."

This viewpoint, Senator Wheeler said, would have been that of Gov. Olson were he alive today.

"We who knew Gov. Olson knew how today he would be fighting to keep us out of war," said Wheeler.

Half of European War Relief Fund of Twenty Million Raised to Date

To aid Europe's war-ridden millions, the American Red Cross is now embarked upon a relief operation greater than any previously attempted in its peacetime history. This gigantic task is exceeded only by the organization's operations during the first World War.

As representative of the strongest nation not engaged in war, the American Red Cross has become the only hope for victims of the European holocaust, particularly the 5,000,000 civilian refugees. As their own resources become exhausted, only the Red Cross stands between these hordes of sufferers and starvation.

Up to June 10, approximately $5,200,000 had been spent by the American Red Cross for European war relief. Additional millions are desperately needed and will be translated into aid to suffering humanity as funds are contributed through the $20,000,000 war fund campaign, which now has approximated the 10-million dollar mark. The National organization is urging chapters to bring their local campaigns to a successful close by June 30.

First Line 6.00-16 $5.48 When you purchase one tire at our regular low price.
8 Days Only!
When we make an offer of the next tire at 50% off, we mean off our own regular low prices, not the high list prices used by some companies. For example, take the popular 6.00-16 size—list price of some companies on this tire is as high as $15.75—our list is only $10.95. Therefore, when you buy one tire at $10.95—you get the next tire at just one-half that amount, or $5.48. Prices on all other sizes are figured on the same basis. Bear in mind too, the tires offered in this sale are our FIRST LINE, FIRST QUALITY SUPER CREST Tires. They are equal to or better than any other first line tire you can buy.
They are positively guaranteed to give complete satisfaction for the life of the tire without limit as to time or mileage.

WE WILL HAVE TO SACRIFICE

President Roosevelt has said that our people would not sacrifice any of their "social gains" as a result of the preparedness program. If that means anything at all it must mean that we are going to build a great military machine without any extra effort or cost. And just how that can be done is beyond our poor powers of understanding. It's a good trick if he can do it.

We are of the opinion that our people will have to make a very substantial sacrifice if we are to prepare properly for war and we believe our people are willing to make whatever sacrifices are necessary for such a purpose.

What is happening in Europe today is convincing proof of the futility of attempts to maintain high social standards and at the same time build war machines. It is estimated that in Germany during the last six years up to forty per cent of the energies of the people have been put into armament. While the Germans were making progress with their military program the French were making progress with their social program. Three years ago the French began to wake up. They sacrificed a few of their "social gains" in an effort to keep pace with the Germans. But they did not sacrifice enough of their "social gains" and the nation that was unwilling to work more than forty hours a week is now crushed by the men who worked sixty hours a week.

The world is at war and if we are going to survive as a nation we must think in terms of war and not in terms of "social gains." We will pay the price. We will pay the price either as the Germans paid it or as the French are now paying it. Most Americans will prefer to pay it the German way, through preparedness. And they will make whatever sacrifices are necessary.

Have you done your bit for the Red Cross? A few more dollars are needed to fill the county's new quota and this should be raised this month. The need for relief in the war-torn countries of Europe is great—and urgent. You probably will not be solicited personally but if you wish to give there will be a representative of the Red Cross at the post office this Friday and Saturday who will be glad to accept your contribution, large or small.

THE WITCH BURNERS ARE BUSY

Hatred of Hitlerism evidently is leading a few people to emotional extremes. It is one of the things that can be expected under present conditions. During the last war some people tried to prove their own patriotism by daubing yellow paint on the homes of those who had been tried and found guilty of disloyalty by the village gossips. In some cases the gossips may have been right but more often they were wrong and the punishment not only unjustified but cruel.

There are good American citizens today who think well of Hitler. They are a small minority. Most of them, realizing the unpopularity of their views, avoid arguments. A few of them are vocal and these few of course are quickly recognized by the witch burners as members of the fifth column. And there is nothing the witch burners like more than to burn their imaginary witches.

We have a few friends who favor Hitler in the European war. They do not consider him as a threat to the freedom of our country but look upon him as the liberator of an oppressed people. We think they are nuts and tell them so. They return the compliment. But we have no right to question their loyalty to our country. We have no reason to question their patriotism.

They have as much right to hope Hitler will conquer the Allies as we have to hope the Allies will win. We may question their good judgment in expressing their views but not their right to express them nor their loyalty to our country because they express them. We are not yet at war.

We have no fears about them being members of a fifth column. The members of a fifth column are not openly antagonizing anyone. They would operate in a more snaky manner. They would be found in the ranks of the flag wavers, loudly proclaiming their patriotism and secretly encouraging dissension among us.

Before we nail anyone to the cross let's be reasonably sure a crucifixion is necessary.

This week we present to Times readers Miss Janney Mickelson who will be with us during the summer months as a roaming reporter. It is her idea of a practical way to spend a vacation. She is the daughter of W. K. Mickelson, publisher of the New Ulm Daily Journal, formerly secretary to Senator Shipstead. It is her first visit to this corner of the state. The community seems to interest her and we hope her column will interest the community.

Speaking of war, our community is now engaged in a tough battle, a battle with grasshoppers. In this battle, however, the harder we fight the smaller our losses will be.
